LOCAL NOTES.....

The first shad in Chestertown waters were caught on Wednesday.

The Jitney Players presented Sheridan's musical production "A Trip to Scarborough in William Smith Hall Saturday night to an appreciative auidence. This company came here from New York after a two weeks run. They are at Ford's theater, Baltimore, this week. Prof. Makoskey deserves congratulations for having brought such a fine attraction to the college.

David P. Davis, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Davis, of Cecilton, and Miss Grace Pippin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Pippin, of near Chestertown, were united in marriage Monday evening, the ceremony being performed by Rev. W. G. Harris, pastor of the M. E. Church, Elkton. They will reside on a farm near Cecilton.

Reports from widely scattered sections of Queen Annes county indicate that an epidemic of raids on hen roosts, meat houses and private homes is prevalent. Several hundred dollars worth of property has been stolen and so far no clues have been found that might lead to the burglairs. William Robinson of Carmichael, lost seven hams and several other pieces of meat from his meat house. Thomas Cook, who resides on the T. R. L. Price farm, near Centerville, has had 40 hens stolen.

Two chimney blazes caused the Chestertown Volunteer Fire Company to be called out twice during the past week-end. A blaze in the chimney at the home of John Schauber, near the college, was extinguished without damage early Saturday morning. A similar fire at the colored house on Railroad Avenue occurred on Sunday morning.

Mac Williams, a local colored youth is being held for the April term of the Kent Circuit Court on a charge of stealing coal from Washington College. Williams was caught by Bryan Newton, superintendent of buildings at Washington College, in the act of making away with a bag of coal which he had taken from the fuel room of the heating plant at the local school.

John W. Myers. of Betterton, was awarded second honors in Goldey College in Rapid Calculation for the month of February. This award was given for proficiency in speed and accuracy in the arithmetical calculations. It was won in competition with many high school graduates from various sections of the country in attendanee at Goldey College.

Anna E., beloved wife of Jacob Krugnee Hobka, died in Baltimore, March 21, interment in Baltimore Cemetery Monady.

The combined garden clubs of Maryland and Virginia will visit here, May 6, for the opening to the public of "Widehall." the colonial home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Hubbard, of Chestertown and Washington, situated on Front Street bordering the Chester River. This is one of the oldest and most historic residences in Maryland. The associated clubs will visit each of the Eastern Shore towns boasting historic houses and gardens and the Hubbard mansion has been seelcted here. Widehall is over 200 years old and was once occupied by U. S. Senator Chambers and by his son, the late Judge Chambers, of Kent County. President George Washington is said to have stayed in the house when he visited here to attend a meeting of the board of governors of Washington College, of which he was a mem-

During the past two weeks thieves have stolen considerable quantities of gasoline and other articles from the garages of Howard Jones and Geo. Lee at Fairlee.

Louis Plugge of Ingleside reported the loss of a quantity of meat and on the farm of Dr. Samuel T. Earle, has been stolen. Coupled with these has bee nstolen. Coupled with these activities of thieves, reports from widely scattered sections of the Peninsula, indicate that a gang of burglars are systematically conducting a series of raids on mercantile establishments.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of Christ Methodist Protestant Church was entertained Tuesday evening at the Maryland Tea Room, the hostesses being Misses Annie Copper and Nellie Walters.

The Young Men's Club of Christ Methodist Protestant Church was entertained Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Wheotley. Dr. Fred G. Livingood, of the Washington College faculty, delivered an address.

"OLD RIVALS MEET"

The final debate of the season will be held in William Smith Hall on Friday evening, April 4. Washington College will uphold the affirmative while St. John's will defend the negative.

The question is, Resolved, that the United States should withdraw from the Kellogg Peace Pact."

This contest will be waged in formal attire.

The affirmative team composed of Elmer Bennett, Nelson Hurley and James H. Clow request your support in their battle with Washington's old rival, St. John's.

With the Chestertown High School basket ball team having been eliminated from the State championship race now in progress, thoughts of the athletes are turnng toward baseball, and 16 candidates for the team have reported to Coach Jack Stenger. Thus far the practice season has been confined to a study of the fundamentals of the game.

Lack of flingers seems to be the main problem of the local mentor, who is preparing his nine for the county and State championship race in the interscholastic field. Stenger believes that Billy Nicholson is a coming star. This hefty lad not only has a strong throwing arm, but is a heavy hitter. He palyed on both basket ball and soccer outfits.
