Kent News

SATURDAY, MARCH 15, 1930

Senator David G. McIntosh, Jr., who aspires to be the candidate for Governor on the Democratic ticket, was in Chestertown Thursday, and conferred with leaders of both factions.

Inncluded in the Grand Jury report in Cecil which Walter Buck, foreman, turned in at the close of that body's sessions Wednesday noon were recommendations for a new Court House and County Jail.

Judge Adkins after congratulating the jury, declared that some provision should be made for the employment of prisoners serving sentence in jail here in order that the burden on the State might be lightened and the ill efforts of idleness be avoided.

He added that, in many cases where persons had been sent to the House of Correction for minor crimes the Court would have imposed jail sentences had the jail been sanitary and reasonagly fit to house human beings and if the prisoners could have been employed.

The Judge also pointed out that, although Cecil is the richest of the five counties of the circuit and one of the wealthiest in the State of Maryland, it maintains a Court House which the citizens of any county should be ashamed.

BIG CONTRACT AT TAYLOR'S RANCH

Wealthy owners of waterfront properties recently purchased in this county have begun a campaign of development which involves an outlay of thousands of dollars.

Frank E. Duver, of Chestertown, has been awarded the contract for remodeling the old colonial mansion on Taylor's Ranch on Chester River and Grey's Inn Creek recently purpurchased by Eugene du Pont of Wilmington. The interior of the mansion will be entirely transformed while a large portico with massive columns will adorn its front, giving the mansion a decidedly colonial effect. The spacious lawns surrounding the mansion are being cleared and made ready for grass sowing, while a slag road will be built from the State highway to the property. The most costly and extensive improvement however it is said will be the conversion of a marshland into a beautiful lake for the propagation of wild geese, ducks and other wild water fowl, while the farming lands will be converted into a game preserve for raising partridges, rabbits and other game.

The beautiful estate lies directly across Chester river from the palatial estate of Mrs. Helena S. Raskob, at Pioneer Point, and is just across Grey's Inn Creek from the Grey's Inn Point ducking shore of which Mr. du Pont is a member. Thousands of dollars will be expended in the improvement of this property.

WEDDINGS

W. Holt Woodell, Jr., young business man of Galena, was married Saturday to Miss Catherine Bracken, an attractive young lady from Philadelphia. The ceremony was performed at St. Dennis Catholic Church in Galena by Father John Walsh. Mr. and Mrs. S. Richard Woodall were attendants.

David P. Davis, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Davis, of Cecilton, and Miss Grace Pippin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Pippin, of this neighborhood were united in marriage at Elkton, Monday evening, the ceremony being performed by Rev. W. G. Harris, pastor of the M. E. Church, Elkton. They will reside on a farm near Cecilton.

U. S. COURT AT EASTON, MD.

A special session of the United States District Court will be held in Easton, beginning March. 24, it was announced by Amos W. W. Woodstock, United States Attorney for the district of Maryland.

The session, which is expected to last approximately three days, is being held to try forty men indicted on charges of conspiracy and smuggling growing out of the seizure of a large quantity of whiskey and otherliquor at Ocean City last December 31.

There are forty-three other cases scheduled for hearing at this special session, Mr. Woodstock stated

Except for one occaison, many years ago, no other United States District Court has sat at Easton. Mr. Woodcock said the statutes permit the Federal Court to be held any place in Maryland.

Judge Morris A. Soper will sit in the cases, which will be tried by Mr. Woodcock, O. Norman Forrest and Stanley E. Hartman, both the latter Assistant United States District Attorneys.

The Chestertown High School girls' basketball team defeated Elkton Thursday night here by a score of 18 to 17.

Fine Play To Be Given Here

Washington College takes pleasure in announcing a performance of Sheridans' enjoyable play, "A Trip to Scarborough," which the Jitney Players will present in William Smith Hall on the evening of Saturday, March 22.

The Jitney Players are a group of professionals who have toured the country successfully for seven years. During the five weeks season the company enjoyed in New York City in 1930, newspaper comment was most complimentary. The Evening World called "A Trip to Scarborough "an evening of rare delight," while the New York Times said "The production is all that you require."

The play is by the author of the famous "School for Scandal." It is light and extremely witty, both in situation and in dialogue. Incidental songs are introduced exactly as in the Old Drury Lane Theatre in the London of 1777. The scenery and the costumes combine to recreate the romance and the gallantry of the Eighteenth Century England.

The expense of bringing such a production to Chestertown is, of course, considerable. At the very low rates of 75 and 50 cents, Kent County people have the opportunity of seeing a performance identical in every detail with that which has so pleased New York reviewers. At these prices a full house will just clear the expenses of the players. The College feels that it is offering its patrons an unusual privilege, and trusts that the reaction of Chestertown people to this opportunity will encourage similar ventures in the future.

THE MODERN FUNERAL

The methods and systems in vogue a few years ago and still adhered to by many, are no longer applicable in this age and generation. A better understanding of the duties of the funeral director has changed the old order. One of the most difficult problems confronting the modern funeral director will be solved when the public realizes that SERVICE is the principal, and in fact, only commodity which we have to offer.

The casket and funeral appertinances are negligible or practically so, requiring little or no experience and, in the matter of expense, consist only with the cost of production.

SERVICE is the main consideration—the care and disposition of the body of the one that has Passed on, knowledge and ability and a readiness to relieve the burden of those who are left to mourn.

"RESOLUTION OF RESPECT"

Whereas, the death Angel has visited us and removed one of our oldest members, Mrs. Mary Pyle Smith, who died in February.

Therefore, Be It Resolved, that we, the members of The Town Relief do hereby give expression to the great loss that has come to us in the passing of one who was faithful and devoted to our society.

We cannot speak too highly of the deceased, of her interest in the organization and its work, and also of her beautiful Christian life. With her afflictions, she could not be active with us but always remembered and helped with her donations.

Be It Further Resolved, that we, her friends and loved ones, bow in humble submission to the will of God, knowing that He alone is wise, and will some day make all things plain.

Our society expresses sorrow, and extends our sincere sympathy to the broken home circle.

Therefore, Be It Further Resolved, that these Resolutions be spread upon the minutes, a copy sent to the bereaved family and published in the county papers.

Adopted at the meeting of the Town Relief, March 4th, 1930.
