Move to Wipe Out "Athlete's Foot" Menace in Cities of United States

ENOUGH tiny parasites to infect every person in the United States with athlete's foot are lurking on the glass plate shown above. They are being examined by a New York bacteriologist. The plate contains billions of Tinea Trichophytons, which cause the foot malady, a form of ringworm, and these parasites were cultivated from a single specimen overnight.

Widespread evidence of this disease, which has caused some schools to close and has indicated that an outbreak of it might come to any village or city of the United States, has caused medical men in all parts of the country to study means by which it may be eradicated. Constant use of antiseptic is being urged as a means to aid the fight against this age-old malady which has recently taken a more serious appearance in this country. The photograph was taken in the Pease Laboratories in New York where scientists are constantly studying the disease in an effort to control it.

THERE is a tremendous amount of satisfaction in being able to offer farmers in this vicinity the new Model "L" Case Tractor. Those who have seen it pronounce it years ahead of present-day tractors because it has all the best features of modern design plus additional features as well.

EST. 1842

Now see what you think of the new Case. Its great power will astonish you, especially when you consider that the tractor weighs but slightly more than three draft horses. Its ease of handling, its three forward speeds, its short turning radius, its accessibility of all parts, its roomy platform, its adjustable spring seat—all these features and many more will instantly appeal to you.

Whether or not you are in immediate need of a tractor, it will pay you to investigate the new Case. Come in and get a copy of our new booklet that shows this attractive tractor in its natural blue-gray and red colors.

Bible Printing Restricted

As Colonial New England rebelled against the tax on tea, so it must have writhed under the ancient law which gave to the crown a monopoly of the right to print the Bible, for the literary tastes of those hardy pioneers were distinctly religious.

But it was a law with teeth, for it is a matter of history that in 1537 a certain Richard Grafton was imprisoned until he gave bond of $500 that he would print no more English Bibles until given permission to do so by the king. From that time the right to publish the English Bible was vested with certain printers who were connected with English universities.—Detroit News.

Early Bird

The prospective maid of all work was stating her terms: "I want $15 a week paid in advance, and I don't wash nor scrub floors, nor—"

"But," began the mistress of the house feebly.

"Or work after six o'clock," went on the woman steadily, "and I want every evening off and a fine reference and—"

"But surely the reference can wait till you leave us?" broke in the mistress, nervously. "No, I want the letter now," returned the domestic firmly. "I've tried getting them when I leave and I've never got a good one yet."

Virtue and Vice

Dr. Will Durant says, "Every vice was once a virtue and may become respectable again, just as hatred becomes respectable in wartime." How true is that? A mental search for examples should give you an interesting half hour. And if you examine your own "virtues" and "vices" in this light, as closely as you can, you may find it profitable. The border cases, those habits which seem to be neither vices nor virtues, or to be both, are especially interesting.—New Orleans Item-Tribune.

One Thing Man Can't Make

Doctors in a Nova Scotia city removed the heart from a cat. In its place they put a rubber heart, electrically operated. The artificial heart kept up the blood circulation for several hours, during which time the cat remained alive. Of course, the doctors could make a rubber heart work for a time. But a natural heart, of cat or man, is an engine that human genius can never duplicate or approximate.—Capper's Weekly.

Peep at Valencia

The city of Valencia is on that wonderful bit of Spanish Mediterranean coast where the climate is so much more certain than that of the Italian Riviera or the French Cote d'Azur. It is curious that so many places in this district should be associated with "dessert." Valencia and Malaga raisins, Denia oranges, Barcelona nuts—they are all familiar to us. And Tarragona supplies a wine which does duty on many a British dinner table for port.

Going Too Far

The strings have been taken out of string beans and the warts have been educated off pickles and now Professor Huelson of the Illinois College of Agriculture threatens us with an odorless onion.—Farm and Fireside.

BABE RUTH SIGNS
HIS NEW CONTRACT

Babe Ruth has signed his new contract and the New York Yankees took a two-year lease on his services at $80,000 annually.

The bambino signed on the dotted line for a raise of $10,000 over his salaryfor the past three years and will continue as the highest paid performer in the national pastime.

The formal signing took place in Colonel Jacob Ruppert's suite before a battery of cameras and the "war" correspondents following the Yankee spring training tour. Ruth announced Saturday that he would accept Ruppert's terfs after stating the previousday that he would hold out for $85,000 a year.

A fast life is a natural prelude to slow music.
