It isthe cause and not the death that makes the martyr.—Napoleon.

Do not keep the alabaster boxes of your love and tenderness sealed up until your friends are dead. Fill their lives with sweetness. Speak approving, cheering words while their ears can hear them and while their hearts can be thrilled by them. —Henry Ward Beecher.

CHICKS FROM THE HATCHERY

Hatcheries pay from 30 cents to 75 cents per dozen for their hatching eggs. If the farmer were to hatch eggs like these with hens and take the lowest price eggs, 30 cents per dozen, it would cost him 37½ cents for the 15 eggs he puts under the hen. If this hen, at the time she started setting, were broke up and placed in a slat bottom coop, she would start to lay in three weeks (the time it would have taken her to bring off a hatch) would lay at least 12 eggs, which would be another 30 cents.

It should be remembered that in hatching with hens, small breeds like Anconas, Leghorns and Minorcas do not set—only the heavy averaging about six pounds each After setting three weeks, this large hen will lose at least two pounds in weight. Figuring this loss in hen's weight at 25 cents per pound, there is another item of 50 cents in the hatching of eggs with the hen. The labor of taking care of the hen would surely be worth 50 cents.

There are a number of other items that should be figured in the cost of producing chicks which would make it much higher than those above enumerated.

To summarize:

Value of 15 eggs set under hen	37½
Value of 12 eggs hen should have laid	.30
Value of loss in hen's weight two pounds	.50
Labor in taking care of hen	.50
Total	$1.67½

The best records we have been able to obtain do not show more than eight chicks out of fifteen eggs hatched under hens. This would make them cost practically 21 cents each, and cannot be produced for less.

FINE AFFAIR AT KENNEDYVILLE

On Wednesday evening, the Men's Bible Class of Kennedyville M. P. Church, taught by Rev. J. McLain Brown, held a banquet in the school building. Promptly at 7:30 P. M., the members of this class and their guests had arrived and had taken their seats in the Assembly Hall.

Mr. William T. Hague, the President of this class, presided at the meeting. The stage was beautifully decorated with potted plants and ferns. In the stage was seated the Teacher, Rev. J. McLain Brown, the President, Mr. Wm. T. Hague, Vice-President, Mr. George R. Rasin. 2nd Vice President, Mr. Granville Ward, Secretary, Mr. William C. Dempsey, Treasurer, Mr. E. T. Othoson.

The meting was opened with singing "Onward Christian Soldiers," with Mrs. Norman Hopkins at the piano, accompanied by the Men's Bible Class Orchestra, Messrs. Otho Fogwell, Mason Willis. Edgar Lipscomb and William Fogwell.

The Scripture Reading was by the Pastor, Rev. J. McLain Brown, then the President, in an impressive manner, introduced the Teacher and Officers of the Class, to which each one responded. The members were introduced in a body and a warm welcome was extended to the invited guests which made every one present feel the sweet Christian fellowship, all working for one great cause in serving the master.

The prayer was offered by Mr. W. T. Hague, after which the male quartette, "Speed Away", was sung by Messers. William Fogwell, Albert Hague, William T. Hague, E. T. Othoson. Rev. C. S. Marshall, of Warwick, Md., addressed the audience. His subject being "The Bible," "A lamp to my feet and a light to my pathway," which all enjoyed very much.

Another song was sung by all called "The Son of God goes forth to War" after which a beautiful piano selection was played by Mrs. Norman Hopkins, class pianist. Another quartette was sung "The Beautiful Land."

The closing song, "Blest be the tie that binds" was heartily sung by all, after which the Benediction was pronounced.

Oweing to the inclement weather, Prof. Fox, of Washington College, and Mr. John N. Bennett, who were to have part in the programme, could not attend. After the programme, all were invited to the dining room tables where a splendid plate supper was served, consisting of chicken salad on lettuce, ham, deviled eggs, slaw, salads, and all the nice trimmings.

One hundred suppers were served. At a late hour all left for their homes having spent an enjoyable evening.
