DEATHS.

Percy B. Hollis died at his home near London, England, aged 74, on Wednesday, January 29th, 1930. He was sick 23 days. He met death as he met life with perfect courage. The deceased sailed for England on April 15, 1928, after a residence here of 44 years. For 40 years he had his headquarters in the Kent News building. He was a man of sterling qualities, intelligent and loyal, and leaves a wide circle of friends. He leaves several sisters and a brother living in England.

Mrs. Hybert May Trinks, wife of Edward Trinks, passed away at her home, Saturday evening, near Worton, Md., in her 44th year. Mrs. Trinks was a devoted mother, loving wife, a member of the Methodist Church of Still Pond, her christian spirit endeared her to her many friends and acquaintances. She is survived by her husband, four children, mother and father, and four sisters and two brothers.

Services were held at the Methodist Church at Still Pond, Tuesday afternoon at 2 p. m., Rev. Richardson officiated, interment Still Pond Cemetery; B. R. Fellows, undertaker. Pall bearers were Herman Crew, Bennie Herbert, James Matthews, Willie Noblet, Herbert Matthews and John Price.

Mrs. Mary Griffith, aged 81 years, widow of Levi Griffith of No. 7 East Fourteenth street, Wilmington, died unexpectedly at Rock Hall, Sunday from heart trouble. She was born in Chesapeake City, Md., but lived most of her life at Dover. She has been making her home with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Edw. A. Griffith, for 15 years. Her son died several years ago.

Mrs. Griffith's only survivors are her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Harriet Griffith, and granddaughter, Mary Elizabeth Griffith. The funeral took place from the home at 2.00 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, with Rev. R. H. Adams, pastor of Brax-Ex M. E. Church, officiating. Burial in Riverview Cemetery.

John W. Ennis, 58, Assistant State Auditor, and son of the late Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Ennis, died at his residence in Pocomoke City Monday after a lingering illness. He was appointed assistant State Auditor five years ago. In 1896 Mr. Ennis married Miss Minnie Merrill, daughter of his first employer who with one daughter, Mrs. David O. Hawkins, of Concord, Mass., survives him.

Mr. Ennis was a member of Crescent Lodge A. F. and A. M. Masons, Knights of Pythias, No. 96, and of the Eastern Shore Society of Baltimore city. He was prominent in all civic, social and religious circles and was a stanch Democrat. He was widely known throughout the State in political and financial circles.

Funeral services were held at 3.00 p. m. Thursday from his home. Services conducted by the Rev. S. E. R. Rein and the Rev. J. W. Jones. Burial in the Presbyterian Cemetery.

Mrs. Stephanie Huber, wife of John Huber, well-known Rock Hall baker, died last Friday morning at St. Agnes Hospital, Baltimore, aged 45 years. Funeral was held on Monday, interment in Holy Cross Cemetery, Baltimore.

Besides her husband she is survived by the following children: Mrs. Rose Kavensen and John Huber, Baltimore; one daughter residing in Switzerland, and Robert Huber, who is associated with his father in business in Rock Hall.

The funeral of Mrs. Linden Loper, of Philadelphia, formerly Miss Katie Peacock, of Millington, was held on Wednesday from her late home. She died early Monday morning in Jefferson Hospital for a short illness. She is survived by her husband; one brother, Joseph Peacock, and a sister, Miss Mollie Peacock, both of Philadelphia.

Walter, T. Levin, employed on the Stafe road near Worton Station, was taken to the Wilmington Hospital last week suffering from pneumonia. He died there after a short illness, aged about 30.

A week-day school of religious education was inaugurated at Christ M. P. Church Tuesday afternoon by the pastor, the Rev. D. E. A. Sexsmith, with 39 scholars. The school was established for the purpose of affording school children an opportunity for a systematic study of the Bible, and is open to pupils in the elementary school from the first to the seventh grades.

The instructors include Mrs. E. A. Sexsmith, who is in charge of children from the first to the fourth grades, assisted by Miss Flora Wheatley; Mrs. George H. Cannan, who has the fourth and fifth grade students, and Mrs. John D. Makasky, who teaches the sixth and seventh grade classes.

Preliminary hearing on a charge of theft of an automobile tire was waived Monday by the attorney representing three Washington College freshmen when the case came up before Police Justice Usilton.

The Triangle Club of Christ M. P. Church met on Tuesday, February 4th, at the home of Eulah Smith's and was entertained by Eulah, Katherine and Susie Smith.

The Club will hold its annual banquet on Thursday, February 27.

The Rev. Walter C. Eastburn, for the past four years rector of St. Paul's-By-the-Sea parish at Ocean City, Md., has accepted a call to become rector of St. Luke's parish, Church Hill, to succeed the Rev. L. Irving Insley, who recently accepted a call to Northeast parish, Cecil county. The Rev. Eastburn will assume his new duties on March 15.
