A rich, loving nature, redundantly kind, moves all nature to gladness and mirth.—Wordsworth.

Failure is often that early morning hour of darkness which preceeds the dawning of the day of success.—L. M. Hodges.

WE DESERVE OUR CRIMINALS

"Every society has the criminals that it deserves," says Lewis E. Lawes, warden of Sing Sing penitentiary, and one of America's greatest authorities on crime.

This is a profound truth. Crime waxes or wanes in direct ratio to the attitude of society. The callous attitude of most Americans toward our growing criminality is responsible for the present strength and prosperity of the underworld.

We have allowed our criminal law to reach a point of impotence where it is mainly a display of technicalities and legal pyrotechnics. We have allowed reformers to create sickly sentiment for the most hardened lawbreakers. And we are now paying the price.

Crime will be subdued when public opinion demands quick apprehension and punishment of offenders; instead of sanctioning the passage of a "new law" which in each instance restricts the rights and liberties of law-abiding citizens on the theory that the criminal will be affected thereby. What a farce! Crime flourishes under such a system and the innocent suffer. Continue this system to its logical conclusion and the only man who would have any freedom of action would be the law-breaker.

Every citizen would do well to remember Warden Lawes' statement, "Every society has the criminals that it deserves."—New Citizen, Frederick.

U. S. INCOME-TAX BLANKS

Federal income-tax blanks of 1929 taxes were mailed Monday to citizens of Maryland from the office of Galen L. Tait, Collector of Internal Revenue. They are returnable Mar. 15th.

Accompanying the customary notice was a supplementary sheet giving the reduction in the tax rate authorized by Congress since the regular notices were printed. This provides that the first $4,000 of net income in excess of personal exemption and credit for dependents shall be taxed at one-half per cent. instead of at one and one-half per cent.

In accordance with this reduction the normal tax on net income, reported at Item 14 on the return, must be computed as one-half per cent.; also, the credit claimed in item 15, which is for taxes paid at source on tax-free Government bonds shall be computed at one-half instead of one and one-half per cent.

This is the day of overproduction and our law-making bodies are no exception to the rule.
