TO GIVE WASHINGTON'S BIRTHDAY ADDRESS

J. Hall Anderson, an alumnus of Washington College of the class of 1899, is to be the speaker at Washington College on February 20 which date is set for the celebration of the birthday of George Washington. This is the red letter day on the calendar of the college program since Washington stands somewhat in the position of god-father to the local college in that he was one of the first contributors to the institution and allowed his name to be used for the infant in the educational world nearly 150 years ago.

Mr. Anderson, who was former Lieutenant Governor of Delawar, is well-known in Kent and recently renewed his friendship with the county by being the principal speaker at the banquet of the Kent County Chamber of Commerce which was held in Rock Hall last September.

J. M. HEPBRON TO ADDRESS THURSDAY AESSEMBLY

James M. Hepbron, Manager-Director of the Baltimore Criminal Justice Commission and a native of Kent County, will address the students at the regular Thursday morning Assembly at Washington College this week. Mr. Hepbron has had a most interesting series of articles appearing during 1929 in the magazine section of the Baltimore Sun dealing with the subject of crime from many varied angles. Mr. Hepbron has spoken once each year for several years before the student body of Washington and is coming on Thursday is looked forward to with much interest. The public is invited to attend.

Alonza Parham, Negro, of Chicago, was among the sixty-four cadets honorably discharged Tuesday from the United States Military Academy for failure to pass their midterm academic examinations. Parkham was deficient in only one subject, mathematics, and he is eligible to take a reexamination in March, which, if successfully passed, will entitle him to reenter the Academy.

Forty-eight of the cadets dismissed were plebes, or freshmen, and the others were sophomores. The examination was taken by 137 cadets, 73 of whom passed. Forty-six, all third and fourth classmen, were deficient in only one subject and they have the privilege of reexamination in March.

Seven of the 256 concrete piles which will be required in the building of the new Chester River bridge here had been removed from the forms and begun the drying and hardening process at Kibler's Wharf at noon Wednesday. The wharf is the headquarters of the Raymond Concrete Pile Company, which has contracted for the piling work on the new span.

A period of 28 days must elapse from the time the concrete is placed in the forms before the piles are ready to be driven. This would indicate that the driving process would be started in the early part of February.

The seven piles now completed are in seventy feet lengths. It is understood that some of the piles will be longer and some shorter than this length.

The tons of sand placed on top of the trial piles has caused the piles to sink consideraole which will necessitate longer piles than those driven.

A NEW YEAR THOUGHT

Here is a man who was born in an obscure village, the child of a peasant woman. He grew up in another obscure village. He worked in a carpenter shop until he was thirty, and then for three years was an itinerant preacher. He never owned a home. He never had a family. He never went to college. He never put his foot inside a big city. He never did one of the things that usually accompany greatness. He had no credentials but himself.

While still a young man, the tide of public opinion turned against him. His friends ran away. One of them denied him. He was turned over to his enemies. He went through the mockery of a trial. He was nailed upon a cross between two thieves. His executioners gambled for the only piece of property he had on earth while he was dying, and that was his coat. When he was dead he was taken down and laid in a borrowed grave through the pity of a friend.

Nineteen wide centuries have come and gone, and today he is the centerpiece of the human race and the leader of the column of progress.

I am far within the mark when I say that all the armies that ever marched, all the navies that ever built, and all the parliaments that ever sat, and all the kings that ever reigned, put together have not affected the life of man upon this earth as powerfully as has that One Solitary Life!

A GOOD MAN DEPARTS

It seems as if this community has had more than the usual number of sad deaths during the past few months. It may be only the advancing years that make it appear so to the writer, or maybe the close association with those who have passed on makes it seem universal.

In the death of Prof. Mark Creasy this community has lost a fine citizen, the school an efficient head, the church a valued member and the home a loving husband. His influence for good will live on thru the years in boys and girls who came under his instruction and his successor will find it hard to fill his place. As a disciplinarian he was hard to equal, as an industrious teacher he was recognized by his colaborers and his sense of humor and ready wit was always in evidence.

The life of Prof. Creasy brings to mind that

"There is no death
What seems so is transition," for his good life and its lessons of benefaction still endure and will for many years to come. His soul is now far from the busy crowd, and snow and sunshine come with the seasons to cover his last resting place, but no mound can hide his sweet memory from those who will, year by year, stop for a period of thought on what a good man he was and how much this community has missed him and will continue to miss him throughout the years yet unborn.

May we who are left emulate his fine christian character and benevolent manhood and so prepare for that day when we shall Cross the Bar and see our Pilot's face.

Governor Ritchie and Mrs. Frances F. Cleveland Preston will be guests of honor at the fourth annual banquet of the Woman's Eastern Shore Society, of Maryland, January 28, at the Southern Hotel. Mrs. John W. Lowe will act as toastmaster.

She will present the Governor, who in turn, will introduce Mrs. Preston. Mrs. Preston is president of the Needlework Guild of America and will speak on that subject, it is said.

Mrs. James C. Elliott will be heard in a group of songs during the banquet and dancing will follow. Mrs. Jesse W. Downey, vice-president of the society, is chairman of the committee making arrangements and she is being assisted by Mrs. Ferdinand A. Meyer, Mrs. George A. Bunting, Mrs. Howard S. Kroh and Mrs. Clarence W. Miles.

Franke Barger, of Baltimore, was the week-end guest of Miss Margaret Jefferson.

Mrs. Lulue Dukes is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Ormand Andrew, of Denton, who is ill.

Miss Florence Anthony spent the week-end in Baltimore.

Dr. Helen Murphy, head of Biology Department at Washington College, is ill at the home of Mrs. Humphreys.

Among those who attended the performance at the Lyric Theatre in Baltimore Friday evening were Dr. and Mrs. William R. Howell, Prof. Geraldine Harwood and Miss Margaret Jefferson.

MOTOR BUSSES PAY FOR MAINTENANCE

Motor busses, said Mr. Self, manager of Red Star Motor Busses, in an address before the Easton Rotary Club, pay more for upkeep than the railroads. He said the prevailing opinion of the public is that the railroads have to pay heavy to keep their road bed in shape while the bus lines use the state roads which is kept up by the state.

This propoganda, Mr. Self stated, has been spread broadcast for so long that the people know nothing else. He cited the case of four motor busses which paid last year $11,829.55 for four license tags as an entrance fee. The busses pay the state and county taxes, the regular license tag tax, but in addition they have to pay 1-18 of a cent a mile for every seat in the buss as a road tax. This means that for a bus seating eighteen passengers a road tax of 1 cent a mile has to be paid to the state.

Mr. Self told the number of motor busses now doing business in the United States, and if the money paid by them for the maintenance of the roads were spent for a boulevard from New York to Detroit there would still be enough left after paying for it to maintain it for many years to come.

In the United States there are 46,000 motor busses traversing over 270,000 miles of highway. These busses averaged sixteen passengers to a buss, and their taxes averaged $500 a buss for 1928.

These taxes do not include the gasoline tax, the personal taxes, etc., but simply the road tax. And if the company makes a mistake in turning in its tax the state has confiscatory powers, revoking not only the license of the bus in question, but of the entire company.

The Tolchester Steamboat Company Wharf, north of the Pennsylvania Railroad Bridge, at Havre de Grace, was sold to the Gulf Refining Company. The Tolchester Company has owned the wharf for many years, and used it as a landing for their steamers plying between Port Deposit, Havre de Grace, Betterton and Baltimore. For the past few years the company has not operated the line.
