CITY MERCHANTS ARE INDIGNANT AT BALTO. SUN

LONE SHOREMAN AT BALTIMORE TRADE MEET

Only one Eastern Shore member of the trade relations committee of the Baltimore Association of Commerce attended the meeting of the committee Monday, which was held to consider the proposed boycott against Baltimore by citizens and merchants of the Eastern Shore. The executive committee of the association will meet again to discuss the recommendations made.

The committee has nine members on the Shore, and all were invited. Dr. William R. Howell, of Washington College, Chestertown, was the only one present. He represented the Kent County Chamber of Commerce. Of the fourteen Baltimore members eight attended.

Following the meeting, Jose a P. Healy, chairman, authorized a statemen which in part was as follows:

"The Baltimore Association of Commerce naturally is interested in maintaining and promoting close commercial contact and harmony with the citizens and business men of the Eastern Shore. "During the last few days the association has received numerous communications from public and private interests of the Eastern Shore, and from its members in Baltimore, relative to a proposed commercial boycott against this city.

"The matter was referred by the president of the association to the already existing committee on trade relations, organized with a representative State membership, to explain business relations between the city and its immediately surrounding area.

"The committee discussed the matter fully, and its comments and recommendations will be of the executive committee.

By the time a man has been in a pantry five minutes he has uttered sixteen complaints about the way the house is managed.

TRADE GROUP ACTS

The executive committee of the Baltimore Association of Commerce Tuesday considered a report from the trade relations committee of the association which discussed Monday the proposed boycott of Baltimore by citizens and merchants of the Eastern Shore.

After considering the matter an hour and a half the committee unanimously adopted the following resolution:

"Baltimore owes much of that which is best in its own citizenship to the Eastern Shore and the ties of blood and of affinity and the possession of a common heritage and history are a lasting bond between the two areas.

"We are confident that the citizens of the Eastern Shore will appreciate the fact that the citizens of Baltimore cannot control the contents or comments of the newspapers.

"The members of the Association of Commerce share the entirely justified indignation of the people of the Eastern Shore that the serious crime of the relatively few has been used as an excuse or opportunity for indiscriminate denunciation of the people of an entire section."

Members of the committee who attended the meeting were: Randolph Barton, Jr., Albert Berney, E. Asbury Davis, Albert D. Hutzler, Irving H. Kohn, F. A. Long, Y. M. McCormick, W. H. Meese, John M. Nelson, Jr., Frederick P. Steiff and James Carey Martein.

In the absence of W. Frank Roberts, president of the association, W. H. Jennings, vice-president, presided. Mr. Roberts was out of town.

Luella—I hear you lost your valuable dog in an auto accident.

Gorely—Yes, I was saved but the dog was killed.

Luella—What a pity!

Mistress—Now, Mary. this a a television set.

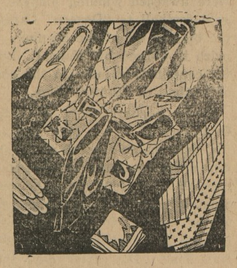

New Maid—Oi know, mum, a radio with a wishin' on it!

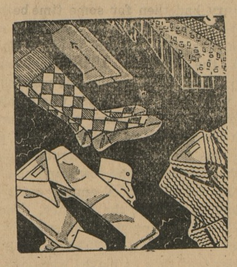

Every idealist is looking for a materialist to back him.
