U. S. CONGRESS HARD AT WORK

John N. Garner, representatives in the House from Texas for the last 28 years Monday, was elected Speaker.

By their victory, the Democrats ...k control of the House for the ...e in 12 years. They have ...14 for the Republicans ...r-Labor. There is one ... New Hampshire.

...an T. Alan Goldsborough ...st Maryland District said that the issues before the present session of Congress were definite and clear-cut, and would have to be met.

He said the country is tied up in debt. These debts were made when ...ney was cheap. Money is now ... The country's debts cannot be ...l normal business resumed ...e value of money is made to ...nate its value at the time ... of the debt was created, ...s, roughly, in 1927, 1928, and 1929. This can be done in several ways. One would be a specific direction by Congress for low redis... count rates by Federal Reser... Banks to purchase commercial paper, thus putting money into circulation.

"What I am trying to emphasize is ...es the power to ... the machin... siness, the ...raising the ...odities, and ...ssist in giv... millions who ... get work."

...is first sug... and tem... ontinued, ... for the ... to be ...rigid, as it now ...eserve system ...credit system ... not, under present ... in a position to go very ...ds enabling the business of the country to be done without a tremendous burden of credit.

He said the normal human condition should be to pay your way as you go, but that with a comparatively small amount of actual money and the inflexible monetary system we ...ow have, it was impossible to go ...ry far towards the payment of ...ebts, because as soon as debts begin to be paid, there is a contraction of currency and credit, and the debts have to be made all over again. Congressman Goldsborough commented on the fact that, with the help of th... country's labor saving machinery, enough could be produced to furnish not only the necessaries, but many of the luxuries, to all of our people, so that the problem of statesmanship was not one of production, but of ...stribution; but as a specific ... Mr. Goldsborough said that the American picture of poverty in the midst of plenty was an indictment, not of the American system of Government, but of the manner in which the system has bee nperverted.

Mr. Goldsborough will reintroduce his stabilization bill.

1931 Christmas Seal

THIS year the Christmas seal celebrates its 25th anniversary with a special design to commemorate the quarter-century mile post of its fight against tuberculosis. A stage coach is shown, pulled by four horses prancing through the snow. One of the passengers is seen blowing a horn to trumpet ... news that the Christmas ... od news that the ...ng with every letter ...ed package they decorate at holiday time. It is good news that the toll of tuberculosis has been cut in half in the twenty-five years the seal has been at work to help make people well. It is good news that this progress is to be continued until it can no longer be said, as now is the case, that tuberculosis strikes down more people in the first decade of maturity than any other disease.

Don't forget your Christmas seals this year! They cost little, but they save human lives. They are as much a part of the regulation American Christmas as the stocking on the hearth. And you will have the silent thanks of a great army of people who need your help this year.

Christmas Seals sales are booming: there's a reason—a capable organization selling something people realize is well worth buying.

HUGE TASK IN DROUGHT AID MET BY RED CROSS

Relief Given to Distressed Helps in Meeting Serious Situation, Chairman Payne Says.

"The year of the great drought," as these past twelve or more months will be known to future generations, wrought great damage to millions. Not alone did the crops, which were burned in the fields in twenty-three states, in the summer of 1930, deprive several million persons of food, but the drought disaster continued in the summer of 1931 in the northwestern states, and also brought other minor catastrophes in its wake, such as forest fires, and the grasshopper plague.

More than a year has elapsed since the American Red Cross launched, in August, 1930, its first moves for relief of the drought-stricken farmers, and in that time more than 2,750,000 persons were given food, clothing, medical aid, shelter or other type of assistance. At no period during this year were there fewer than 70,000 persons being aided and at the peak of the relief work on March 1, last, more than 2,000,000 persons were being helped.

Today, still as a result of the drought, the Red Cross is giving extended relief in parts of North Dakota, Washington and Montana, where resources of hundreds of families were wiped out this past summer, when a second and more severe spell of dry weather was prolonged in that region.

This drought relief presented the greatest task that has ever been undertaken by the Red Cross as a peacetime activity. The Mississippi Valley flood of 1927, while more spectacular, and calling for relief of a costlier type, because homes and possessions were swept away, affected hardly one-fourth the number of people who suffered because of the drought.

In addition to the broad program of drought relief still being carried on, John Barton Payne, chairman of the American Red Cross, has given the following suggestion to Chapter chairmen, in regard to unemployment relief: "Where there is suffering and want from any cause and the fundamental local needs are not being met, Chapters may participate in the community plans for meeting the need."

Some type of general family relief, whether for the drought victims, the unemployed or the war veteran and his family, were carried on by more than 3,000 Red Cross Chapters last year, Judge Payne said.

"The drought relief work of 1930-31," he added, "the relief now being extended following last summer's drought, principally in Montana and North Dakota; the assistance which is being given to ex-service men and their families; and the part which several hundred Chapters are taking locally in their communities' relief measures are activities of the Red Cross, national and local, which have met and are meeting some of the serious needs of the present situation."

AN IDEAL XMAS GIFT

A Christmas present, in 52 installments, bringing appreciation at Yuletide and pleasure to the recipient throughout every week of the year would be a subscription to The KENT NEWS, Kent's "Old Home Weekly."

As to how it serves as a link of communication in providing contract between one's home community and those living elsewhere is best illustrated from letters of appreciation which reach the publication at frequent intervals.

To ones' relatives and friends, either in this locality or outside its confines, a more ideal moderate priced, Christmas gift could hardly be found.

Dr. Toychiko Qagawa, head of the Social Bureau of Tokyo, speaking in New York, attributed the present world depression to the divorce of industry from religion: "What we need today is to live up to our religion. To me industry must be baptized and Christianized. In the West you are busy with a Machine Age and neglect prayer. Without religion it is impossible to advance civilization. Without controlling our evil desires there is no way of solving our unemployment problem."

Some of our hunches turn out to be true—too late for us to profit by them.

SPORTSMEN URGED TO AID ALL GAME WHEN SNOW COMES

Urging farmers and sportsmen to get together in the inauguration of a coast to coast chain of "winter cafeterias" for game birds so that the feathered residents on farms will be able to get food during the snow periods of January, February, and March, National Headquarters of Izaak Walton League broadcast this week a special appeal for the winter feeding of quail pheasant and other valuable game birds.

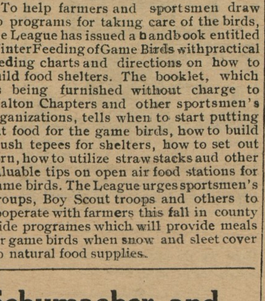

"Unless countless thousands of farmers and sportsmen consider game birds as an auxiliary crop, we never will have more than a fraction of all forms of wild life that should be produced in this country," says the conservation department of the League. "The winter feeding of the game birds is one phase of taking care of the auxiliary crop. Obviously it is a waste of money to stock areas of farmland and let them starve during heavy sleet or snow sorms."

To help farmers and sportsmen draw up programs for taking care of the birds, the League has issued a handbook entitled Winter Feeding of Game Birds with practical feeding charts and directions on how to build food shelters. The booklet, which is being furnished without charge to Walton Chapters and other sportsmen's organizations, tells when to start putting out food for the game birds, how to build brush tepees for shelters, how to set out corn, how to utilize straw stacks and other valuable tips on open air food stations for game birds. The League urges sportsmen's groups, Boy Scout troops and others to cooperate with farmers this fall in county wide programes which will provide meals for game birds when snow and sleet cover up natural food supplies.

WHY SO WORRY?

Either you are successful or you are not successful. If you are successful there is nothing to worry about. If you are not successful, there are only two things to worry about. Your health is either good or you are sick. If your health is good, there is nothing to worry about. If you are sick, there are only two things to worry about. You are either going to get well or you are going to die. If you are going to get well, there is nothing to worry about. If you are going to die, there are only two things to worry about. You are either going to heaven or you are not going to heaven. If you are going to heaven, there is nothing to worry about. If you are going to the other place, you will be busy shaking hands with old friends and acquaintances that you won't have anything to worry about..

So why worry?

ORDER PUBLICATION
Alma Mae Heiding Anthony, Infant by her mother and next friend, Sophie Heiring.
In the Circuit Court for Kent County, In Equity, No. 2712.

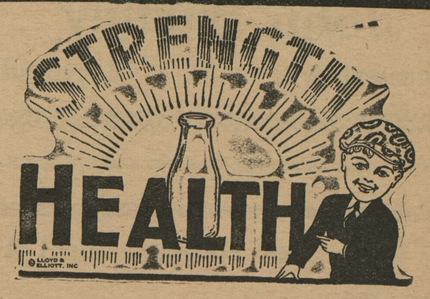

The object of the Bill filed in the above entitled case is to procure a Decree setting aside and annuling marriage of the parties to this cause.
The Bill states:
1. The said Alma Mae Hiering Anthony is a minor 20 years of age and resides with her mother at Maplewood, New Jersey.
2. That the said Defendant, Harry L. Anthony, 3rd, is about 22 years of age and lives at Edgewood Park, New Jersey.
3. That on the 6th day of August in the year 1931, the said Plaintiff, Alma Mae Hiering Anthony being a minor child as aforesaid, was married to the said Defendant, Harry L. Anthony, 3rd, at Chestertown, Kent County, Maryland, By Rev. W. R. Moon, of Cecil County.
4. That the said Plaintiff, Alma Mae Hiering Anthony, had known the said Defendant for a period of a few months and that she had only seen him comparatively a few times. That on the said August 6th, 1931, she was at that time at Seaside Park, New Jersey, and the said Defendant came to see her and requested her to take an automobile ride. Nothing was said about marriage until said Defendant had driven a number of miles and he then suggested that we would get married. I refused but he threatened me and threatened my life if I did not marry him. He drove to Elkton but it was too late for him to get a license and he drove me on to Chestertown. All during our trip he had a bottle of liquor and I had a number of drinks. He urged me a number of times to take a drink and said I would feel different about it if I would do so and when I arrived in Chestertown I was in a state of intoxication and did not realize that I was being married. Due to the state of intoxication and to the fear of the threats which he made against me there was nothing for me to do but to go on with the ceremony. All during our trip he advised me that if I would not marry him no one else would and that I would not get back home alive. That said marriage was entered into through deceit, fraud and threats on the part of the said Harry L. Anthony, 3rd, in making and compelling the said Plaintiff, Alma Mae Hiering Anthony, to drink until she became so intoxicated.
5. That said marriage was never ratified and consumated. The said Harry L. Anthony, 3rd, left me at my house immediately upon arriving there. I have seen him three times since. I have never shared the board and bed of the said Harry L. Anthony, 3rd. That there has never been cohabitation between them, either prior to or subsequent to said marriage. That said marriage has never been in any way consumated.
6. Your Orator is advised that it is in the power of this Honorable Court upon her Petition and evidence supporting the same to set aside and annul said marriage.
It is thereupon, this 27th day of November 1931, ordered by the Circuit Court for Kent County, in Equity, that the Plaintiff, by causing a copy of this order to be insrted in some newspaper published in said Kent County, once in each of four successive weeks before the 28th day of December next, give notice to the said Harry L. Anthony, 3rd, nonresident defendant, warning him to appear in this Court in person, or by Solicitor, on or before the 11th day of January next, to show cause, if any he has, why a Decree ought not to be passed as prayed.
