LOCAL NOTES.....

WHEAT fields are looking great.

HAVE you purchased your auto license for 1932?

AN appreciated Xmas present would be a subscription to KENT NEWS.

NEARLY all the stores will be open evenings until after Xmas.

WINTER begins officially on December 22.

THE first of the Sunday afternoon teas, which are a part of the winter's program of activities at the Chester River Yacht and Country Club, was held at the club house, near town, last Sunday from three to five in the afternoon. Special music was furnished for the occasion by Mrs. Albert Mitchell and Fred. Fetter.

THE Triangle Club of Christ M. P. Church held one of their most interesting meetings Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Hope B. Hudson on Queen street.

TO BE PAROLED

Gov. Ritchie will grant a number of paroles December 22nd. Among them is that of John Maynard Lee, sentenced by the Circuit Court of Kent county to eighteen months in the House of Correction for larceny. He broke into two stores on the same night and was paroled by the court on one of the charges and sentenced on the other. Something more than seven months of his term remain. A good job has been secured for him and he will live with his father in Baltimore.

I. HOLLINS, owner of Millington Department Store, Millington, Md., is now editing a publication known as Humo-Wit for theatrical and radio purposes. The material, which will appear in the Humo-Wit, is entirely original and is being prepared for use by artists in comedy, vaudeville, and burlesques.

NEW LYCEUM has some plendid attractions for next two weeks.

MUSKRAT hunters are getting their traps in order for the season.

HOG killing has been in full swing in Kent and we will challenge any county to make more delicious sausage than our farmer's wives are now delivering.

FREEDOM is not to be at liberty to do what you want, but to have power to do what you should.

THE item in KENT NEWS last week stating that the Ericsson Truck Line had been sold was premature. H. J. Plant, the owner, says it has not been sold.

THE Men's Club of Christ M. P. Church, held a pleasant meeting at the home of James W. Crouch on Thursday evening. Mrs. Crouch delighted those present with several solos.

AN open forum discussion of the problems of the local club was the feature of the weekly meeting of the Chestertown Rotary Club last Monday evening. The program was in charge of W. B. Usilton, chairman of the Publicity Committee.

At the meeting it was decided to hold the annual Christmas Party of the club on Monday, December 28th. at which time the attendance race between the two teams in the club will be concluded.

ROCK HALL

Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer Atkinson are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son at their Swan Creek home.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Collyer are parents to a little girl.

Orville Davis has completed his three years enlistment in the U. S Coast Artillery, received honorable discharge and arrived home Tuesday of last week.

Charles Kirschneck celebrated his ninety-first birthday on Sunday, 6th. A dinner in his honor was given by his grandson, Frank Jacob and wife. with four generations present at Rock Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. J. Beck have gone to Bustleton, Pa., for the winter with their children.

GALENA NOTES

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Nickerson and family, of Annapolis, were guests on Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Dill and family.

Jed and Robert Welch, of University of Maryland at College Park, are enjoying the vacation with their parents, Capt. and Mrs. John Welch.

Miss Elizabeth Davis and Mr. and Mrs. Overland, of Wilmington, were week-end visitors with Mr. and Mrs. James H. Davis.

Mr. and Mrs. Irving Walters and Elizabeth, of Wilmington, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Carl M. Dill.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Smith and Charles Brown, of Jackson Heights, N. Y., have been spending some days with Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Jarman.

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Johnston entertained Mr. and Mrs. George Carroll and sons on Sunday in honor of Mrs. Carroll's birthday.

George Church and Albert Hoffecker, of Dover, Del., were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Church and family, at Georgetown.

Mrs. Josephine Merchant and family spent Sunday with her mother at Galt.

James Ryan, of Bala, Pa., was the guest over the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Jarman.

Miss Mary Smith, of New York City, visited her mother, Mrs. S. C. Smith, over the week-end.

Mrs. Joseph Dixon returned home on Tuesday after a visit with her daughter, Mr. and Mrs. James Jarrell and family, at Middletown.

Mrs. Eva McCauley and Miss Hel-VanSant and friends, of Baltimore, visited Mr. and Mrs. L. R. BanSant on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Clendaniel and family, of Bel Air, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Emory Camp and family on Sunday.

Galena Hardware Store, of which J. E. Ireland is manager, is giving 50 per cent reduction on all toys.

WORTON

Mrs. Viola Conoway, of Dover, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Clayville, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Burris, Quaker Neck, spent Sunday with their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Hadaway.

Mrs. S. J. Lee and Mrs. C. H. Clayville, spent Tuesday in Wilmington.

Mr. and Mrs. John Spencer are the proud parents of a fine little daughter.

Ernest Taylor and family, of Philadelphia, spent Sunday with his sister, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Joiner.

Mrs. Henrietta Rasin spent several days this week with Mr. and Mrs. James Matthews.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Taylor, Mrs. Charles Joiner and Miss Ann Taylor spent Saturday in Wilmington.

Mrs. Julian Crew and little son, Julian Lee, spent several days last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Lee.

Live Personal And Kent Society Notes

As we go to press Mrs. John H. Simpers, aged 85, is extremely ill. She has been ill for some time.

* * *

James W. Chapman, Jr., of Baltimore, was in Chestertown Saturday in company with Mrs. Chapman. Mr. C. is nursing a broken finger received in shutting his automobile door. They report Mrs. Vannort as now enjoying fairly good health.

* * *

Judge Lewin W. Wickes is very much better and able to be up and about the house.

* * *

Mrs. J. D. Bacchus, of Chestertown, is visiting her daughter and son in New York. Mr. Bacchus will join his wife next week to spend Xmas in New York with the children.

* * *

Mrs. Isaac H. Dixon has issued announcements of the marriage of her daughter, Miss Deborah Dixon, and Edward R. Fenimore, which took place quietly November 28 in the Little Church Around the Corner, New York, and in the presence of members of the immediate families.

* * *

Frank B. Hines, Jr., and Albert Nicholson, both students at the University of Maryland, are spending Xmas with their parents at Chestertown.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Mitchell have returned to their old home in St. Louis after a pleasant sojourn in Chestertown. They have left a large circle of friends here who very much regret their departure.

* * *

Taylor Baxter has been spending several days in Baltimore this week visiting his sister.

* * *

Wm. J. Maslin and family removed into their new residence on Wilkins Avenue last week and are now at home to their friends. He has placed one of his regular men on the farm from which he moved and he will manage both farms from the new place. Mr. Maslin is one of Kent's most industrious and successful farmers and the NEWS joins in congratulating him.

* * *

Mrs. Charles B. Drayton, of Washington, D. C., is visiting Miss Addie Glascock.

* * *

L. H. P. Vansant has been quite sick for several weeks at his home on Kent Circle.

* * *

Capt. S. J. Coleman, who is spending the winter with his daughter in Baltimore, visited his children in Chestertown this week.

* * *

Mrs. Wright, of Preston, is spending sometime with her son and wife, Rev. E. N. Wright and Mrs. Wright.

* * *

Benj. Cranor, of Linwood, Pa., is indisposed due to severe burns of the hands sustained when his automobile caught fire in the garage Monday afternoon.

* * *

Lloyd Connelly, of Baltimore, was the week-end guest of relatives in town.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. W. Russell Wheatley and daughter, of New York, visited the former's mother, Mrs. Fannie Wheatley, here last week-end.

* * *

Miss Mary Simpers, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. H. G. Simpers, who underwent an operation for appendicitis in a Baltimore hospital last Saturday, is improving.

* * *

Mrs. Sarah E. Gardner celebrated her 80th birthday Wednesday, Dec. 16th, at her home 228 Cannon St. She has 8 children, 27 grandchildren and 20 great-grandchildren all living.

STILL POND

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Robinson and son, Wesley, spent last week-end in Baltimore.

At the devotional service of the Epworth League on last Sunday evening. Miss Virginia Jones gave a very interesting report from the Youth Conference which she attended at Worton.

The Intermediate Department c the Sunday school held their monthly meeting on Monday evening with Avis and Louise Clark.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Thompson are the proud parents of a little daughter while Mr. and Mrs. Bennie Nicholson have a son.

The devotional service of the Epworth League will be lead tomorrow evening by Miss Esther Robinson.

Service at Still Pond M. E. Church, J. C. B. Hopkins, minister. 9.30 a. m. Sunday school, A. J. Hackett, superintendent; 10.45 a. m. morning worship, Christmas message and special music; 7.30 p. m. Epworth League service, Miss Esther Robinson, leader.

Betterton M. E. Church, J. C. B. Hopkins, minister. 2.00 p. m. Sunday school session and Christmas program, Mrs. Archie Crew, superintendent; 3 p. m. worship, Christmas message and special program; 7.30 p. m. Christmas program in charge of Mrs. Walter Crew.

Women lie about their age and men lie about their income.

Announcement has been made of the approaching wedding of Miss Helen E. Shirley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William L. Shriley, of Rock Hall, and Stanley B. Sutton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Linwood A. Sutton, of near Chestertown.

The wedding will take place on Saturday, December 26th, at St. James M. P. Church at 11 A. M., Rev. J. Lee Marker to officiate.

Miss Shriley is a graduate of Rock Hall High School and the State Normal School and is now teaching school at Hanesville. Mr. Sutton is assistant County Agent for Kent county and has been one of the outstanding promoters of boys club work in Kent county. He has received nation-wide prominence in boys' cattle judging and was a member of a national cattle judging team which competed in England. They are one of the most popular young couples in the county. They will live at Fairlee. No cards in the county.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. William Pepper Constable, of Baltimore and Elkton. have announced the engagement of their daughter. Miss Alice Groome Constable, to Richard William Dickinson Jewett, son of Mrs. Richard Dickinson Jewett and the late Mr. Jewett of Washington and Upper Nyack, N. Y. Miss Constable made her debut two seasons ago at the first Monday German. She attended Bryn Mawr School and the Bennett School in Millbrook, New York. Mr. Jewett was graduated from Cornell University in 1924. No date has been set for the wedding.

* * *

Mrs. Robert Moffett, who has been at Johns Hopkins Hospital for several days, has returned home and is very much better.

* * *

Wm. F. Russell's condition steadily improves under careful nursing. He is looking forward to Christmas menu.

* * *

Robert G. Nichalson, who has been housed with a cold this week, is some what better.

* * *

Wm. A. Wheatley, Jr., the Penna. R. R. agent at Federalsburg, lost $22.75 at a fire in that town Tuesday. He had the money in his hand when the alarm sounded and it disappeared in the excitement.

* * *

Mrs. Charles Baxter was carried to Easton Hospital last week suffering from gall stones.

* * *

Miss Isabel Crow is able to be out.

James H. Sides is very much improved and was able to mingle with friends down town this week.

* * *

J. Cordray Loud, Jr., was carrie to Easton Hospital Wednesday suffering from a broken arm near the shoulder. Mr. Loud in returning to his home on High street fell and struck his arm against an iron rain spout causing the injury.

* * *

Josh Meekins is in Chester, Pa., hospital where he will undergo a serious operation. His wife is with him.

KENNEDYVILLE

Mrs. Mary Green, of Church Hill, spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Archibald.

Mason Willis and friend, Miss Chew, of Philadelphia, spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Willis.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Myers spent Wednesday in Wilmington.

Mrs. Harry Hill entertained the Sewing Club on Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Ireland moved to their new home in Quaker Neck on Thursday.

The Mite Society was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Groves on Thursday evening.

The Ladies' Aid Society met at the parsonage on Friday evening.

The Christmas entertainment of the M. P. Church will be held in the church Tuesday evening, December 29th.

Howard Johnston, of Baltimore, is home for the holidays.

Service in the M. P. Church as usual next Sunday.

Service in the Grace Presbyterian Church next Sunday evening at 7.30.

Mrs. William Webb and Mrs. Mary Spry visited Wilmington on Saturday.

ANNUAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS

The annual meeting of stockholders of the Kent-Queen Anne's National Farm Loan Association of Chestertown, Kent County, Maryland, will be held at the law office of Herbert E. Perkins, Chestertown, Kent County, Maryland, on Thursday, the 7th day of January, 1932, at 11.00 o'clock A. M. for the purpose of electing five directors and for the purpose of transacting such other business as may properly come before the said meeting.

THOMAS D. BOWERS,

12dec-tf Sec.-Treas., Chestertown, Md

BULL FOR SALE

High Class Registered Guernsey Bull from Kennett Square, Pa. Stock. C. C. Brown, Route No. 3. 31oct-tf

MILLINGTON NOTES

Old Kris will be here next Tuesday on the 5.15 train.

Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at 1 o'clock at Asbury M. E. Church for Augustine Hendrickson, formerly of this vicinity, conducted by Rev. Hopkins, of Still Pond; interment was made in Smyrna, Del.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred T. Lee were Sunday visitors of friends in Chestertown.

At Trinity M. E. Church, South, on Sunday, December 20th. Epworth League services at 7.15 o'clock. An appropriate Christmas program will be given Miss Mary Durham is the leader. All are welcome.

The regular business meeting of the Epworth League of Trinity M. E. Church was held at the home of Louis Hollett on Friday evening, Dec. 11. The young folks enjoyed a Christmas party which followed the business session. Santa was present and each received a Christmas gift.

Mrs. Mary E. Catts returned home on Thursday from a visit of four weeks with friends in Frederica, Smyrna and Clayton, Del.

Joseph Hyde, of Philadelphia and Queen Anne's County, entertained a group of friends on Saturday night, December 12, at a roast pig and saur kraut supper at his home near Millington. About twenty-five were present and all enjoyed a royal good time.

Mrs. Paul Jones, of Still Pond, returned home after two weeks spent with her mother, Mrs. Eva Marvel.

The Queen Esther Circle of the Woman's Home Missionary Society of Asbury M. E. Church met on Tuesday at the home of Mrs. R. H. Nelson. A good attendance was had.

Wm. H. Whitehurst returned to Baltimore after two weeks spent with Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Stevens.

BETTERTON

The monthly meeting of the Ladies Aid Society was held at the home of Mrs. Larry Hackett on Friday of last week.

Miss Anna Crew has been very sick for several days from an infection.

Ladies of the M. E. Church held a successful bake in Turner's garage, Chestertown, last Saturday.

Mrs. William Wheeler and daughter, Miss Catherine, and Miss Elizabeth Brice have been spending a few days in Baltimore.

Mrs. William Crew has returned from Philadelphia where she spent several days with her daughter, Mrs. Norman Thompson.

Miss Ruth Brice has been visiting Miss Katherine Baker.

Mrs. A. P. Emerson, Mrs. Carlton Moore and sons, Emerson and Arthur and Mrs. James Curry motored to Baltimore on Tuesday.

Prof. Irvin Smith, wife and children, of Denton, were recent guests of Mrs. Smith's sister, Mrs. William E. Owens.

A very helpful series of revival meetings were held at the Methodist Church last week. Several visiting clergymen assisted the pastor, Rev. Hopkins, at each service.

DEATHS

William A. Burke, 72, who for many years was identified with many of Chestertown's civic and fraternal organizations, was found dead in his bed at his home here Sunday from heart trouble.

He was a charter member of the Chestertown Volunteer Fire Company by which he was recently honored with a life membership. He was a member of the Patriotic Order of Sons of America, the Owls, Jr. Order United American Mechanics and was on the official board of Christ Methodist Protestant Church.

He is survived by a son William E. Burke, Jr., of Philadelphia, and a daughter, Miss Elizabeth Burke, of Chestertown. Geo. Burke, of Chestertown, a brother. Funeral services were held in Christ M. P. Church at 2 P. M. Tuesday, the Rev. Dr. E. A. Sexsmith conducting the services, burial in Chester Cemetery, W. T. Hicks, undertaker.

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon in Christ M. P. Church at 2 P. M. Rev. Dr. E. A. Sexsmith conducted the services and burial was made in Chester Cemetery. The bearers were Charles Elburn, Charles S. Smith, Wm. F. Malin, R. E. Collins, Herman Blackway and W. L. Fowler.

Harold B. Matthews, aged 40 years, of 407 North Franklin street, Wilmington, died Monday morning. He was the son of Mrs. Annie E. and the late Stewart R. Matthews. The funeral took place from the home at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning with interment in Chester Cemetery, Chestertown.

The deceased was born and raised in Chestertown and was a veteran of the World War, during which he was wounded severely. The Frank M. Jarman Post 36, American Legion, participated in the services here.

James Ross died at his home in Fredericktown Monday after a long illness, aged 72. He was a widely known waterman and a boat builder of unusual reputation. He leaves a widow and six sons. The funeral took place Wednesday with interment at Galena, Father Walsh officiating. The bearers were Capt. Norman Riggin, Capt. John Welch, Wm. Hall, Wm. Hamilton, Mr. Grey and Mr. Cohee.

SCHOOLS and College will have two weeks holiday.

Everywhere is life, the true question is not what we gain, but what we do.—Carlyle.

Now it's the MITE before Christmas.....

One dollar does wonders in Men's Gifts.

This advertisement hopes that there are 1000 curious women in Kent Co., who will read this and come to see if its really true that fine gifts for men can be purchased for one dollar.

YOU BET THEY CAN....this year the dollar bill is a mighty stocking feller.

It buys gifts for men that will amaze you. It will allow you to spread sunshine down chimneys that you had nearly decided to pass up.

COME TO BORDLEY'S GIFT DISPLAY TODAY and see these really fine presents for one dollar.

HOSIERY
NECKWEAR
MUFFLERS
BELTSOTS
SHIRTS
HANDKERCHIEFS
JEWELRY
POCKET BOOKS

BORDLEY & SON

"The Store for the Lad & his Dad"

Chestertown, Maryland.

Make Your Gift ELECTRICAL

What is Christmas without a Santa? NOTHING.
What is Christmas without Electricity? NOTHING.
Make Your Gifts Electrical.
TREE LIGHT—Large Assortment of MAZDA BULBS

Percolators, Toasters, Heating Pads, Waffle Irons, Curling Irons, Floor, Bridge and Table Lamps.

Largest Assortment in town. Display room 2nd Floor.

Oh, Boy, Give the Mother or Wife a G. E. Washing Machine, or Better, Hotpoint Range.
Time Payments.

If It's Electrical, Buy Where You Get Service.

****

Owen C. Smith & Son
Phone 189 Electric Shop Chestertown, Md.

SPECIAL

Furniture and Toy Sale going good so will continue sale until Xmas. Many great bargains yet.

Come in and see them.

W. P. Newnam

Chestertown, Maryland.

©Maryland State Archives, msa_sc6000_27_1-0015