THIS CHRISTMAS

The birds take their Christmas in the South with the flowers of Florida and as far away as the valleys of California with the blossoms of orange and apple and peach, fruited deep. But human folks everywhere, big and little, love best a Christmas where every home nest is full to overflowing — and Christmas candle burning and Christmas music sounding and Christmas surprises are whispered and hidden and no end of secrets to be kept until the Christmas dawn. From the little laddie, the very picture of his father, to the last little girlie with her something of the mother in her, there is just one absorbing purpose that—Nobody Shall Be Forgotten This Christmas. It is no small thing to be nestled in a home where everyone comes in through the golden gate to do good to some other one. The thought may count for more than the act.

Man can do everything with himself; but he must not attempt to do too much with others.—William Humboldt.

DEATHS

Augustine Hendrickson died early yesterday morning at the home of his son, Harry, near Still Pond, after a long illness aged 84. He was a former resident of near Millington where for many years he farmed and became one of Kent's foremost citizens. He removed from thence to Smyrna and then returned to his son, Harry's, near Still Pond, where he was shown every consideration and care. The funeral will take place at 1 p. m. Sunday, Rev. Mr. Hopkins officiating. Interment will be in Odd Fellows' Cemetery in Smyrna, B. R. Fellows, undertaker.

Mrs. M. E. Ringgold died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. John M. Toulson, in Salisbury, Wednesday evening, aged 82. The deceased was a half sister to the late Hon. James Alfred Pearce and the widow of Josiah Ringgold, a well-known farmer of Kent. For many years the deceased lived in Chestertown and was prominent in church and social activities of Emmanuel P. E. Church and loved the work of the Dorcus Society.

She leaves the following children: Mrs. John M. Toulson, of Salisbury; Hubert R. Ringgold, of California; Mrs. Cleveland White, Salisbury. The funeral took place at Emmanuel P. E. Church yesterday afternoon, Rev. C. L. Atwater officiating, interment Chester Cemetery, C. L. Dodd, undertaker.

The bearers were A. A. Harris, Dr. F. B. Hines, Simon Westcott, Earle Stafford, Donald Stam, R. H. Collins, Jr.

Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Bottomnely, wife of Frank S. Bottomley, a prominent merchant of Millington, died suddenly last Wednesday night. Mrs. Bottomley was the daughter of the late Samuel L. and Mary E. Blackiston, of Millington, and her first marriage was with the late James M. Mallalieu, who died some years ago. Mrs. Bottomley has been an active member of Asbury M. E. Church, was organist of the church for many years and held a life long connection with all the various organizations of the church and will be very sadly missed by a large circle of friends Funeral arrangements are unknown at this hour. Mrs. Bottomley is survived by her husband and one daughter, Miss Elizabeth Bottomley.

Mrs. Elizabeth Jackson Lowman, age 64, wife of William H. Lowman, of Sudlersville, died at the home of her son, Carroll Jackson, Wednesday following an illness of several months.

The deceased had lived most of her life in Queen Anne's county, where she was very popular.

Mrs. Lowman was twice married. Her first husband was the late William E. Jackson. She later married William H. Lowman, of Templeville, Maryland.

She is survived by her husband and eleven children, six daughters, Mrs. Nelson Davis, of Church Hill, Mrs. Michael Mallory, of Newtown Square, Pa.; Mrs. George Short, of Sudlersville; Mrs. Wilmer Teat, of Millington, and Mrs. James D. Abbott, of New Castle, Del., five sons, Jackson, of Wilmington; Charles Jackson, of Galena, and Carroll, Norman and Frank Jackson, of Sudlersville. She is also survived by 26 grandchildren and one great grandchild.

The funeral servces were held at the home, Friday. Interment was at Church Hill Cemetery. The Rev. C. W. Clark officiated.

THE NEWS was in error last week in stating that the P.-T. A. of Chestertown, had spent $800 under Mrs. Thawley during the past year. That expenditure was for several years.

Wm. W. Baldwin died at his home on Queen street Thursday night after a long illness, aged 78. He leaves a widow and two sons, W. Lester Baldwin, Esq., of Baltimore, and George at home. The funeral will take place at 2 p. m. today, Rev. J. H. Wright officiating, R. Ellis Clark, undertaker, interment Chester Cemetery. The bearers will be L. W. Ford, W. L. Ford, Robert, Walter and Samuel Moffett, Gerald Myers.

Thomas J. Donahoe, a highly respected citizen and at one time a successful farmer but for the past three years retired, died at his home in Massey, Friday evening, December 4th, age 70 years. Mr. Donahoe lived in and around Massey practically all his life and was a son of the late James A. and Margaret Donahoe. He was a true and loyal friend, a devoted husband and father and his many kind acts will long be remembered by his many friends. He is survived by his wife, and four children, Mrs. John A. Williams, of Chester; James P., Mamie C. and Kathryn H., of Massey. His funeral was held Monday morning at St. Dennis Church, Galena, interment in Lamb-son Cemetery. Pall bearers were M. P. Dunn, Samuel Dunn, S. J. Johnson, Michael Grady, A. W. Jones and S. S. Hurlock.

DURING the week the Chestertown banks have been distributing to members of their Christmas Clubs more than $60,000 which represents the savings of the people of the community during the past twelve months. Added to this substantial sum is a total close to $70,000 which has been placed to the credit of depositors carrying savings accounts in the banks.

A very large part of these savings is finding its way into circulation, and is being used by the owners to pay their taxes for the year. The county treasurer's office in the court house is so crowded with taxpayers asking to pay their taxes that County Treasurer H. Stockton Startt has been compelled to provide the office an assistant to Deputy Treasurer J. Frank Wheatley as a means of giving the people prompt service. The office of the Mayor and City Council is also feeling the beneficial effect of the liberation of the large sums of city taxes. Notwithstanding the effects of the drought and stringent financial conditions throughout the year the amount of money paid by the banks through Christmas Clubs and savings interest is very little less than last year.

AN IDEAL XMAS GIFT

A Christmas present, in 52 installments, bringing appreciation at Yuletide and pleasure to the recipient thruout every week of the year would be a subscription to the "KENT NEWS" Kent's "Old Home Weekly."

As to how it serves as a link of communication in providing contact between one's home community and those living elsewhere is best illustrated from letters of appreciation which reach this population at frequent intervals.

To ones' relatives and friends, either in this locality or outside its confines, a more ideal moderately priced, Christmas gift could hardly be found.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of my dear father, Charles L. Robinson, who passed away December 7, 1930.
We often sit and think of you
And of the things you used to do,
And wonder why you had to die
Without a chance to say good bye.
Sadly missed by daughter.
1t YAVIA

In loving memory of our baby Helen Marie, daughter of J. Vincent and Grace R. Mench, who departed this life eight years ago December 8th, 1923.
There's a picture in my heart
Of a loved one gone to rest,
In memory's frame I keep it
Until I clasp her to my breast.
Your memory is still sacred to me,
Though long may be the year,
A murmured prayer, a silent tear,
When ever I think of thee.
