LOCAL NOTES.....

LOCAL BUYERS were paying 56½ cents for wheat and 35 cents for cob corn.

THE Chestertown P.-T.-A. will meet Tuesday, December 1st at 8 P. M. Special business.

The KENT NEWS has added another member to its official family in the person of Walter Bennett, Jr., who has entered upon his duties as "printer's devil."

DR. J. H. MASON KNOX, JR., chief of the bureau of child hygiene of the State Department of Health, and Dr. Ralph C. Beachley, deputy State health officer here, conducted a pre-school clinic Wednesday morning at the local health center when scores of children of pre-school age were examined for physical defents.

SUED FOR DIVORCE

Suit for divorce on the ground of desertion has been entered by William H. Jones, of Wilmington, and Chestertown, engineman on the Pennsylvania railroad, running from Clayton to Delmar, Del., against his wife, Mrs. Mamie Jones, of 722 Vandever avenue, Wilmington, before Judge Wickes here Wednesday.

The plaintiff is represented by Joshua Clayton, of Elkton, and the defendant, by Morris Barroll, of this town. Until recently Jones was engineman on the train running from here to Townsend, Del.

THE Men's Club of Emmanuel P. E. Church will be hosts tonight at a supper held in Parish House of the church.

A PLEA FOD HUMANITY

By Mrs. Robert C. Young.

The Red Cross drive is on, we want to see it through,
But whether we are successful, it all depends on you.
Some one will approach you, with a smile and sweetly say Won't you become a member, of the Red Cross today?
It only cost a dollar, a dollar may save a life
What if it should be your child, or may be perhops a wife.
We all know times are hard, and finances very low
But can we take our money with us
when we go?
Suppose no one had given, suppose
no one had gone,
To help our boys in the World's War,
who fought for us and home.
Suppose no one had been there, to help them when they fell Wounded, bleeding and perhaps dying, from the heavy shot and shell.
Oh: twas the Red Cross nurse "God bless her," who stood there
night and day,
Trying to soothe and comfort, in her
sweet and gentle way.
We all can not be nurses, with voices
sweet and tender,
But we can lift a burden, by enrolling as a member.
In my fancy there's a message, and the words are plain to see
"In as much as ye have done to the least of these, ye have done it unto Me."
Will you think this over carefully,
and be with those who say,
Here's my contribution take it, may
it help some soul today.

A CHECK in the office of the commissioners of Kent county shows that there are 3,449 cars in the county assessed for $741,160. Automobiles in the county seat are assessed for $127,050.

GUNNER SHOT IN LUNG

Henry Green, aged 29, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Green, residents of a farm near Centreville, was taken to Emergency Hospital with a gun shot through his right lung Monday morning as a result of first gunning accident of the season.

A colored boy, George Woodland, fired the shot which may cost Green his life whilt both were hunting on a farm near Queenstown Monday morning. Sheriff Anthony said that the shooting was an unavoidable accident and that the Negro would not be arrested.

The colored youth heard the man's cries shortly after he fired the shot, he said, and ran to the man's side. He immediately called for assistance, and helped carry the wounded man to the office of Dr. F. J. Price. Green was then rushed to Emergency Hospital at Easton.

It was said at the hospital that that there was little chance for the man's recovery.

LOWER SHORE BANKS CUT INTEREST RATE

Effective January 1, 1932, banks of the lower Eastern Shore of Maryland will reduce interest rate on time deposits to 3 per cent, following the lead of other and larger banks thruout the country.

The action was taken by the joint meeting in Pocomoke of the Tri-County Bankers' Association of Wicomico, Worcester and Somerset counties and the member banks of Group Six, Maryland Bankers' Association, which comprises those three counties and Dorchester county.

Charles M. Freetnan, cashier of the Salisbury Bank, Eastern Shore Trust Company, was elected president of the two organizations. Dr. John L. Riley, of Snow Hill, was elected president and Lester C. Tingle, assistant cashier of the local trust company bank, was named secretary and treasurer.

The principal speaker at the meeting was State Comptroller William S. Gordy, Jr., who gave a clear analysis of the organization and functions of the National Credit Corporation and an outline of the participation of Maryland banks in the corporation's set-up.

SUSQUEHANNA WINS 25-0

Before an enthusiastic crowd Susquehanna University eleven scored a 25-to-0 victory over Washington College Saturday at Selins Grove, Pa.

The Crusaders tallied in every period with the exception of the last. Honna, carried the ball over for the initial touchdown in the first quarter. Then Susquehanna made a sustained march down the field to score another counter. Wosileski made the tally.

A Washington scoring was frustrated in the second quarter by the referee, and Vanneys broke loose to make the third touchdown. During the second half a fighting Washington eleven held the opponents to a single tally, made when Russell Sprout, halfback, raced around right end for 25 yards and fell over the goal line. Washington put up a good game with a team that had several of its men out because of injuries.

CECIL COUNTY'S TWO LARGEST HOGS BOUGHT

John Anderson, stock buyer of Cecilton, Md., has purchased from Thomas Weaver, of Oakwood, Md., near the new Conowingo bridge, his two big fat hogs. These hogs Mr. Weaver bought from Edward Cullen, of Rising Sun, when very small pigs. They will be nine months old November 25, 1931, and will weigh 1500 pounds. Very little difference in weight, each hog is said to tip the scales at 750 pounds each. These two hogs have been on exhibition at Anderson's Live Stock Bazaar, Cecilton, Md.

REV. JOE H. LYNCH, of First M. P. Church, Lynchburg, closed his visit to Christ M. P. Church in Chestertown Wednesday night, after a most delightful stay of over two weeks. Dr. E. A. Sexsmith is in charge of the meetings. People from various sections of the county and elsewhere have been attending and great good is being accomplished.

Features of Sunday's services were largely attended meetings for women in the Methodist Protestant Church and for men in the Methodist Episcopal Church under the leadership of Rev. J. McLain Brown, of Kennedyville. There have been a number of conversions. The meetings are continuing.

JANVIER and St. Paul's schools tied for attendance records in October each having perfect marks. Swan Creek school made the greatest improvement coming from 26th position to third in one month. Swan Creek's average for October was 99.1.

Janvier is taught by Miss Frances G. Orr, Mrs. Lillian Orr Crouch is the teacher at St. Paul and the Swan Creek teacher is Miss Louise Akers Hersch.

Once again 26 of the 30 Kent schools showed an average of better than 90 per cent and all of the four high schools were over the 90 mark. Galena High, Miss Lelia N. Ware, principal, beat Chestertown High for first place in that group. Galena had an attendance of 95.9 while Prof. Owen C. Blades' pupils had a mark of 95.8.

After an aerial tour over the Atlanta-New Orleans airway, which is to be opened to passenger traffic this winter by American Airways, Inc., Fred Hirons, chief of the airmail service in the southeastern States, left Saturday for Washington for a conference with W. Irving Glover, second assistant postmaster general and national head of airmail activities. During his recent tour, which was made in American Airways mail planes, Mr. Hirons made an inspection of airports and emergency landing fields along the new route. Almost constantly "in the air" on various jaunts to different portions of his Richmond-to-Dallas and Miami, Fla., territory. Mr. Hirons had never been in an airplane until he was appointed to his present post, with headquarters in Atlanta, about 10 months ago. Now he will travel no other way. — Atlanta Constitution, Nov. 6, 1931.
