Edison Urged Confidence In His Last Address

Last June, Thomas A. Edson spoke to the Nation. It was his last public utterance and was marked by his usual brevity. He said:

"My message to you is: Be courageous! I have lived a long time. I have seen history repeat itself again and again. I have seen many depressions in business. Always America has emerged from these stronger and more prosperous.

"Be as brave os your fathers were before you.

"Have faith!

"Go forward!'

The Grand Jury for Kent County is to be congratulated upon their labors. They had some knotty problems to solve, but with the help of State's Attorney expedited the business with secretaries Kreeger and Sutton, did effective work.

KENT countians who have moved here from other States and who, prior to the last election, enrolled on the county poll books without first making their formal "declaration of intent" will be automatically erased from the records and prevented from participating in the election next year, unless they make such "declaration of intent" prior to the second day of next November. This was the official ruling handed down by Attorney General W. Preston Lane, and affects the voting status of several hundred Kent county citizens.

W. B. COPPER, president of the Third National Bank, and Fred. G. Usilton, president of the Kent County Savings Bank, of Chestertown, attended on Tuesday the meeting in Baltimore at which Charles E. Rieman was chosen chairman of the loan committee of the Maryland unit of the National Credit Corporation.

The bankers at the meeting, representing approximately 100 banks in the State, indorsed the plan to mobilize bank resources through the National Credit Corporation as proposed by President Hoover. This corporation is limited to a billion dollars, one-half of which is to be raised at once as needed. This organization has put new confidence in all business and heightened the hopes of a turn for the better.

RESIDENTS of the community interested in organization of a Garden Club in Chestertown met in the office of the Kent County Chamber of Commerce on Monday evening and perfected plans for an organization to be known as Our Garden Club.

The following officers were elected: vice-president, Mrs. I. Price Ewing; secretary, Mrs. E. Clarke Fontaine; treasurer, Miss Miriam Leaverton. The election of a president for the organization will be considered at the next day in November. The object of the new organization is to secure the cooperation of the people of the city and county in developing the cultivation of flower gardens and the beautifying of the city environment. There was an initial membership of some 20 men and women of the community, which will be materially increased through the efforts of a membership committee which was appointed at the meeting.

This club will work in harmony with the girls and boys clubs of the Agricultural Extension Service but as a separate organization.

THE Kent County Musical Society, will show Oct. 28 at 3.15 P. M. at Lyceum Theatre, "The Pilgrims," one of the authentic historical films produced by the Yale University Press in the series of Chronicles of America Photoplays.

This brilliant photoplay classic deals with the movement for religious liberty as typified by the experiences of the Pilgrims who, opposes by Church and Crown, forsook England for a refuge in Holland and, finding conditions there far from satisfactory, at length set sail for America. The voyage of the Mayflower, the arrival in New England waters on November 11th, and the landing at Plymouth Rock on December 21, 1620, are vividly depicted. The hardships and sufferings of that first bitter winter are revealed, the sacrifices and disappointments of the devout band, and the manner in which they won over the Indians by kindness rather than by warfare.

The film expresses the simple but stouthearted faith of the Pilgrims and stimulates a renewed understanding of their part in the making of America.

We have had motion pictures with backgrounds of history, but never before have such perfect recreations of actual events in the story of our nation been made.

DEATHS

Mrs. Emma E. Emory, widow of the late James B. Emory, of Barclay, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Arthur R. Cooper, near St. Paul's Church, on Wednesday, Oct. 21st at 9 A. M., aged 63 years. She leaves the following children: Chas. Emory, of Centreville; Louis Emory, of Roberts; Mrs. Frank Pinder, of Kennedyville; Fred Emory, of Riverside, N. J.; Mrs. Temple Keaton, of Templeville; Mrs. Arthur R. Cooper, near St. Paul's Church; James Emory, Kenneth Square, Pa.; and Mrs. Wm. McLaughlin, Sudlersville, Md. Also five sisters, Mrs. Helen Ross, Mrs. Frank S. Plummer, Mrs. Rosie Ward, Mrs. Alice Cole, Mrs. Mary McDaniel, of Queen Anne s county.

Funeral services at Busic's Church on Saturday, October 24, 1931, at 1.30 o'clock. Interment Templeville Cemetery.

Thos. A. Parsons died at Laurel. Md., Wednesday, aged 86. He was the son of the late Thos. C. and Elizabeth P. Parsons and was a retired stone mason making his home in Lynch. He leaves a brother, John B. Parsons, of Baltimore, and two sisters, Mrs. Joshua Bennett, of Milford, Miss Mary E. Parsons, of Baltimore. The funeral was held at Christ M. P. Church at noon yesterday, Dr. E. A. Sexsmith officiating, interment in Chester Cemetery. The bearers were Jos. Culley, Harry Cacy, W. U. Lusby, Geo. A. Bacon, Joshua Bennett, Wm. A. Wheatley; Chas. L. Dodd, undertaker.

Funeral services for Miss Verina Corberly, aunt of Mrs. John J. Raskob, of Pioneer Point Farms, near Centreville, who died in New York last Friday, were held at St. Peter's Catholic Church, near Queenstown, with requiem mass celebrated by the Rev. Eugene J. Kramer, pastor of the church. Burial was in the family burying ground adjoining the church.

Miss Corberly for a number of years resided with her half brother, the late W. O. Green, at Bloomingdale Farm, in Queen Anne s county. She moved from Queen Anne's county a number of years ago. She formerly taught school at Massey, Kent county, Md.

Mrs. Katie Briers, widow of the late John E. Briers passed away on Thursday morning at the home of her son, Walter L. Briers, Rock Hall, after a lingering illness in her 76th year. For many years she lived in Baltimore where she was a member of Scott Street Baptist Church. She was an active member for a number of years. She is survived by one son, Walter Briers.

Funeral services will be held at her late home Saturday afternoon at 3 P. M., Rev. Grant officiating, interment Wesley Chapel; B. R. Fellows undertaker.

The funeral of Mrs. Julia von Wyszecki, of Baltimore, took place last Monday. Interment was in Druid Ridge Cemetery. Mrs. Wyszecki died after a short illness.

Mrs. Wyszecki was born in Still Pond and spent the early part of her life there. She was the daughter of the late James and Mary Cornelia Leary, of Still Pond.

She is survived by her husband, Alfonso von Wyszecki, Assistant Solicitor of Baltimore, and one daughter, Mrs. John B. Gontrum.

TALKS TO ROTARY CLUB

Dr. Charles L. Atwater, of Emmanuel P. E. Church, Chestertown, was the speaker on Monday night last at the regular meeting of the Chestertown Rotary Club. His subject was the celebration last week at Kent Island of the 300th anniversary of the Protestant Episcopal Church. He gave a most interesting and historical review of the 300th anniversary and gave some high spots that impressed him. One of the most notable facts concerning this 300th anniversary was that the first twelve Lay Delegates were represented either by direct or collateral descendants, still living and taking an active part in the parishes their ancestors represented. For instance, Col. Richard Lloyd represented by Wm. G Smyth; Mr. James Dunn by R. H. Rogers; John Page by S. Scott Beck, Jr.; Mr. Richard Miller by C. H. Skirven; Mr. Samuel Wickes by Owen Selby; Mr. T. W. Tilden by Simon W. Westcott; Mr. St. Leger Everett by Philip G. Wilmer; Mr. James Wroth by Eben F. Perkins; Mr. John Kennard by Raymond Wilkins; Mr. Geo. Moffett by S. C. Emory; Mr. William Keating by R. H. Collins, Sr.; Mr. John Brown by Ernest Brown; Mr. Sturgess by H. T. Hartman; Mr. John Scott by Wilbur Ross Hubbard; Mr. John Bolton by Chas. C. Schreiber; Mr. Christopher Hall by B. R. Sutton; Mr. Downs by Rolph Townshend.

Thus the majority of the present assembly is composed of men descended from members of the original convention, and these men are still living in the same locality, and vestrymen or members of the same parishes and churches their forbears then attended.
