LOCAL NOTES.....

THE Wesley Chapel supper cleared $345 instead of $240 as reported last week.

THE next meeting of the Flatland Girls' Club will be held at Sarah Morris' on October 31st at 2 P. M. In another column is announced a Halloween party October 28th, at 7.30 P. M., admission 10 and 15 cents.

THE Christian Endeavor of the St. James Church was led by the president, H. S. Startt, October 18. A very interesting program was rendered. A talk on the topic "How To Answer the Wet Argument" was well discussed by Mr. Cook, a student of Washington College.

PRESIDENT E. Thomas Massey, of the Kent County Farm Bureau, along with Secretary James D. Davis and County Agent J. D. McVean, will attend the quarterly conference of the Eastern Shore group of counties affiliated with the Maryland State Farm Bureau Federation, which will be held at Denton on October 29th. Guy Phillips, president of the Dorchester Farm Bureau, will preside.

WALTER KARFGIN, of Baltimore was elected captain of the 1932 Washington College lacrosse team at a meeting of the lettermen of that sport last week and at the same time William Danneberg, also of Baltimore, was chosen to manage the stick squad.

The Washington lacrosse team last season had no captain, the leader being named prior to each game by Coach Omar D. Crothers. George Ekaitis, new stick mentor, decided not to follow the course of his predecessor and hence the election of Karfgin.

ELECT CLUB MEMBERS

At the suggestion of the Student Council to create better conditions in Middle Hall and promote better fellowship, a meeting of all the non-fraternity upper classmen at the college were called on Friday, October 9th, at 7 P. M. This meeting was called to order by George Ekaitis, Head of Middle Hall. After an explanation of the purpose of this meeting, the election of officers ensued. The following men were elected:

President—Walter Branford.
Vice President—William Wright.
Secretary—Milton Noble.
Treasurer—Mason Trupp.
Ser.-at-Arms—Nelson Richards.
Faculty Adv.—George Ekaitis.

THE annual Golfer's Dinner, staged last Friday evening, was attended by nearly sixty men and women enthusiasts of the game. Simon W. Westcott was toastmaster and speakers on the regular program included President Philip G. Wilmer, Claude E. Truslow, Harry S. Russell and D. W. Ingersoll. W. J. Stenger led the singing.

Following the completion of the regular program many of the club members were called upon for short talks.

At the end of the meeting the men golfers met in the lounge and re-elected Harry S. Russell as captain

HOG CHOLERA is becoming common in Kent County. It therefore is the part of wisdom to report sick hogs promptly. If you feel it is cholera, call your veterinarian and have him protect your hogs with the hog cholera serum. If there is uncertainty about the illness notify the County Agent and he will report to Dr. Hughes, the Federal Veterinarian who will come to your place and diagnose the trouble without expense to the farmer.

County Agent stands ready to aid in securing serum for those who know how to use it. Certainly it is wise economy to save your hogs from this dread disease. In reporting cases promptly you protect yourself and neighbor.

WILMINGTON WELCOMES

A hearty welcome to Wilmington is extended the people of this community by The Wilmingtonians, Inc., an organization of nearly 150 business and professional establishments in that city. "Wilmington always bids you welcome" is the theme of a good-will campaign now being conducted by that group.

"We urge everyone to buy everything possible in their own community," said Arthur N. Kuschan, president of The Wilmingtonians, Inc. "That is exactly what we are trying to impress upon our own people. But for those things that you can secure only in a larger community, we extend you a warm welcome to Wilmington."

"It is one of the chief functions of our organization to make you feel at home here and to satisfy your every wish, whether you come for business, for entertainment or to shop," he added.

Stores and other business houses which are members of The Wilmingtonians, Inc., can be readily identified by the seal of that organization on their doors and windows, it was stated. The group is making a special effort to please people who come to Wilmington from out of town to shop.

HIGH SCHOOL IN FOR SOCCER, AND FIELDBALL

Chestertown High School booters, holders of the Eastern Shore interscholastic soccer title, are preparing for a strenuous season under the direction of Coach Joe Russell. Though with only a handful of veterans remaining from last season, scant hope is held qut that the yearlings may be whipped into championship material:

If Chestertown wins the county title, as it did last year, the encouragement thus given the team will, in Coach Russell's opinion, go a long way toward raising hopes that the title may be retained.

Meanwhile Marie Bryan, formerly of Goucher College, coaching the girls' fieldball squad, is making a bid for county honors.

The completed schedule for soccer and fieldball.

MANY HAPPY FALL WEDDINGS

The marriage of Miss Louise Disborough Simpers to James Wilkinson Chapman, 3rd, will take place Saturday afternoon, November 7th, at 5 o'clock, Methodist Episcopal Church. No cards in county.

The wedding of Miss Lucy E. Starkey and Wm. F. Stoops, Jr., took place Saturday evening at Centreville M. E. parsonage, Rev. Mr. Dawson officiating. The attractive bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Starkey, of near Sudlersville, and is employed at the Chestertown Telephone Exchange. The groom is a son of W. F. Stoops and wife, of Cliff City, and has been a salesman of the Eliason Motor Co., for several years. They are making their home for the present at Cliff City.

Announcement was made this week by Mr. and Mrs. James H. McGinnis, Dover, of the engagement of their daughter, Anna Louise, and Austin Crothers Price, son of Mr. and Mrs. Custis C. Price, of Warwick, Md. No date has been set for the wedding.

Mitchell-Wright

The marriage of Miss Grace Anne Wright, of Chestertown, Md., and J. Walter Mitchell, of Ridgely, Md., two young people prominent in the social life of Queen Anne's, Talbot and Caroline counties, which took place July 4, has just been made public. The Rev. R. L. Tawes, of the M.E.Church of Ridgely, Md., with Mrs. Tawes, accompanied the couple to Somerset county, between Allen and Princess Anne, where the ceremony was performed. Mrs. Mitchell, who was a pupil nurse in the Emergency Hospital at Easton, Md., returned that same day to her duties and Mr. Mitchell returned to his home in Ridgely.

The marriage is the culmination of a romance that had its beginning in the Easton Hospital where Mr. Mitchell was a patient during a long and serious illness.

Mrs. Mitchell, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wright, of Chestertown, is a graduate of the High school here and also of the Training School for Nurses of the Emergency Hospital, Easton, having recently passed her State Board examinations.

Mr. Mitchell is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Andrew Mitchell, of Ridgely, and as proprietor of Mitchell's Confectionery store and news stand is one of the most prominent young business men of the community. He is a graduate of the Maryland Institute of Art in Baltimore. The couple will reside in Ridgely.

Harris-Roberts

A wedding of interest to Maryland, Delaware and Virginia society, was solemnized in Asbury M. E. Church, Salisbury, Saturday evening at 6.00 o'clock, when Miss Margaret Roberts, recent graduate of Arlington Hall College, Washington, D. C., and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Roberts, of Salisbury, became the bride of Robert Harris, of Chestertown, Easton and Salisbury, before a fashionable assemblage. Rev. Dr. Samuel McWilliams, pastor of Asbury Church, officiated. The groom is the son of Robert Harris, of the C. and P. Telephone Co., and spent his boyhood days in Chestertown.

Following a reception at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harris departed on their honeymoon, and will establish themselves in their home in Salisbury.

IN MEMORIUM

In memory of my dear father, Jacob Chamberlain, who reparted this life October 28, 1930.
No one knows how much I miss you,
No one knows the bitter pain,
I have suffered since I lost you,
Life has never been the same,
In my heart your memory lingers,
Sweetly, tender, fond and true,
There is no day dear father,
That I do not think of you.
BY HIS DAUGHTER.

KEATON PROBES GYMNASTIC PROWESS IN "SIDEWALKS OF NEW YORK"

Buster Keaton holds the athletic record of the studios as the result of his latest picture, "Sidewalks of New York," which will show at the New Lyceum Theatre on Friday and Saturday, October 30 and 31. In it he performs more athletic feats than ever were filmed in a single picture before.

He "works out" on every possible piece of gymnasium apparatus, from parallel bars to the "leather horse;" he wrestles, does jiu-pitsu, boxes ten rounds, and even does a track workout.

Keaton, a vaudeville acrobat before he became a film star, is naturally adept at all forms of gymnastics. He was taught most of his tricks by his father and mother, with whom he toured the country as a child as a member of the famous "Three Keatons" vaudeville act.

"CASH IN" YOUR BLACK WALNUTS

State Forester F. W. Besley, calls attention to a cash crop Black Walnuts that can be garnered by those who are in position to do so. He has prepared a leaflet which informs you about gathering, removing the husks, storing the nuts, cracking and removing kernals. The County Agent has a supply of the leaflets, also information relative to marketing outlets.

FRESHMEN BEAT SOPHS

The Frosh were victorious over the Sophs in the annual tug-of-war between the two Washington College classes at Brooks' Mill stream Monday.

The mud battle, which followed, was a rather tame affair as compared to the orgies of recent years. The Frosh, having heard "Mud Battle' apparently took the meaning literally and covered the Sophs well.

Practically the entire Washington student body and hundreds of other spectators lined vantage points to witness the first of three contests between the classes. A football game and a poster fight will follow later in the year.
