BE CAREFUL

During the height of the motoring season the thought of how we may prevent accidents not only to ourselves but to others is a most vital one and uppermost in our thoughts when we travel the broad highways.

"Not what I do," says a careful driver, "but what is or may be done to me is my worry." Every one who drives a car is familiar with the speed demon who races by and weaves in and out of traffic to head the parade, the one who is waiting at the cross-roads, stopped by a red light when you draw up there.

Selfishness—that inhuman consideration for the other person, is the prime factor in the mounting number of motor accidents today, rather than the facts of ignorance or mere carelessness. And there is no way of punishing such an offender until some one gets hurt, it seems. One wonders what these selfish people do with all the time and energy they conserve in this manner.

PROTECT THE KIDDIES

The law says: "No teacher in any public school in this State shall receive into such school as a pupil any person who has not been successfully vaccinated . . . any teacher neglecting or refusing to comply with the provisions of this section shall on conviction thereof be fined ten dollars for each and every offense."

How about YOUR CHILD?

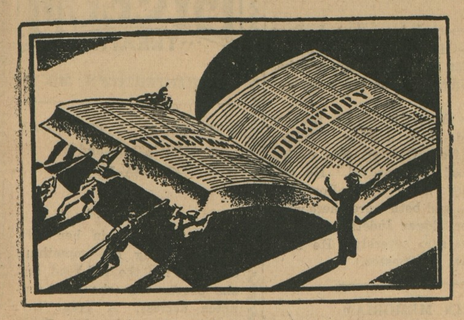

70TH ANNIVERSARY KENNEDYVILLE M. P. CHURCH

By MRS. ROBERT C. YOUNG

Seventy years ago, work was begun
On this old brick Church in the heat of the sun.
If her walls could speak, they would say it with grace,
Many have found "God" in this dear old place.
Some are still living, and remember it well
As the call to come worship, was heard by the bell.
Others sleep in the Church yard, behind the old Church
Waiting the summons until "God" comes to earth.

Now this SEVENTIETH ANNIVERSARY is the 6th of September
Please bear it in mind, don't fail to remember,
We have planned all our meetings, with service each night,
Oh Come worship with us, and show by your life
You are following the footsteps that others have trod,
Who once worshiped with us, but are now home with "God."
We all have our trials, and troubles to bear,
But they will all be removed in that City up there.

So come out and help us, we trust that you will
For a welcome awaits you in old Kennedy—Ville,
And let us all try and be workers today,
Until "God" calls us all to that Land far away.

KENNEDYVILLE M. P. CHURCH

The history of the Kennedyville Church is a very interesting one. It was known as Waters Chapel, named after Rev. Frances Waters, D. D., who was received into the Maryland Conference in 1838. He served the Conference as its President in 1842-46-62-66.

He was also the President of Washington College, Chestertown, Md.

The church was built under contract by John T. Dodd and son, and was begun in 1860.

In the minutes of old Kent Circuit there is this notation.

"At a Quarterly Conference of Kent Circuit held at the St. James Church, Worton, on May [illegible], 1860 the following resolution was offered by Rev. John R. Nichols."

"That as a Quarterly Conference we heartily approved of the movement to build a brick church at Kennedyville for the use of the Methodist Protestant Church, and pledge ourselves to use our means and influence to accomplish that object, and would urge the building committee to proceed as fast as practicable with the building."

The following persons were present at this Quarterly Conference: Rev. Frances Waters, D. D., Rev. James E. Maloy, George Vickers, A. W. Shuster, David Arthur, Charles Jesop, William Camp, Rev. John R. Nichols, David Jones, John Downey, William Legg.

The preaching appointments at this time were: Chestertown, St. James, Wesley Chapel, Morgan Neck, Broad Neck and Welches.

The Second Quarterly Conference met at Waters Chapel, Kennedyville, Md., August 19th, 1861, and Joshua Vansant was the acting Steward from this crurch.

The debt was liquidated under the ministry of Rev. Robert S. Rowe. The Quarterly Conference minutes of Kent Circuit February 11th, 1866, records, "On motion ordered that the report submitted by Bro. R. S. Rowe in regard to the liquidation of the Water's Chapel debt including a receipt in full from the contractors, Bro. Jno. T. Dodd and Son be adopted and a vote of thanks be tendered Bro. Rowe for the very efficient manner in which he has completed the business and brought it to so happy a conclusion."
