IN MEMORIUM

In loving remembrance of our dear mother and grandmother, Mrs. Mary R. King, who departed this life six months ago February 16, 1931.

A happy home was once enjoyed,
How sweet the memory still,
But death has left a loneliness
This world can never fill.
No one knows the silent heartaches,
Only those who have lost can tell
Of the grief that is borne in silence
For the one who is loved so well.
Although she could not speak to us
Or could not say goodbye;
We know her thoughts were with us all
When she was called to die.
The hands that did so much for us,
How helplessly they lay,
God knew they worked continuously,
But they are gone today.
Rest on, dear mother, thy labor is o'er,
Thy willing hands will never toil no more,
A faithful mother, both true and kind,
A better woman you will never find
For all of us she did her best,
God grant her one sweet eternal rest.

Gone but not forgotten by her loving daughter and grandchildren,
Mrs. John C. Dixon and Children,
1t Massey, Md.
