LOCAL NOTES.....

BETTERTON bathing beach is drawing crowds. No sea nettles.

DID YOU ever see such quantities of eatables!

CHURCH HILL and Rock Hall will cross bats on Washington College diamond Saturday, August 8. Game called 2.45 P. M.

MRS. MARY S. HODGSON has a crocheted campler 100 years old at her home opposite milk station.

ONE of the best crops of wheat in lower Kent was that of Ex-Senator Henry Brown, of Quaker Neck, who obtained an average of 42 bushels per acre from his home farm.

VISITORS to Chestertown are charmed with the crepe myrtle shrubbery that adorns many yards. The blooms this year are unusually numerous and beautiful.

JAMES THOMPSON and wife have contracted with Contractor Harry Tucker, Jr., to build for them a residence on the lot recently purchased of Mr. Ziesal near Chester bridge. Work was started last week. Eli Elliott, James and Taylor Baxter are assisting in its erection.

COUNCIL OF RELIGIOUS EDUCATION TO MEET

Thursday, October 15th, and Friday, October 16th, have been selected as dates for the two regional State conventions of the Maryland-Delaware Council of Religious Education at Council of Religious Education at Hagerstown and Salisbury, respectively.

Each convention will last one day and the same program will be carried out in each city, the speakers being transferred from one place to another.

It is expected that about one thousand persons will attend each convention.

POSTMASTEDS MEET IN ANNAPOLIS, MD.

The National League of District Postmasters, Maryland Branch, held its semi-annual meeting Monday at Carvel Hall, Annapolis. W. C. Dempsey, of Kennelyville, presided.

The invocation was pronounced and the welcome delivered by Joseph M. Armstrong, postmaster at Annapolis. The main address was by Simon E. Sullivan, assistant superintendent of the Postmaster's Department, Washington. He spoke on the postal regulations.

Luncheons was servied at 1.30 P. M. and the delegates later were received by Governor Ritchie at the Executive Mansion.

CORN and lima beans, cantaloupes and watermelons are plentiful.

CHANGE PARCEL POST RATES AUGUST FIRST

Announcement was made this week that on August 1st, there will be a change of the parcel post regulations. The new regulations permit the shipment of parcels of 100 inches length and girth combined to any zone with a maximum weight of 70 pounds. Under the old regulations no package could be mailed larger than 84 inches length and girth combined, with 70 pound limit through the third zone, with a 50 pound limit on all packages going to more distant zones.

The new regulations are put into force to give added service to factories and farmers in the movement of packages weighing over 8 ounces, not embraced in mail of first and second class. The local shippers of flowers, perishable produce, baby chicks, plants, etc., will realize a considerable benefit from the new regulations in that it will reduce the number of packages necessary to handle shipments.

BAR FISH SALES ON BOATS IN BALTIMORE

Mayor Jackson has signed an ordinance prohibiting the selling of fish and of other sea food, except oysters, at retail or wholesale, from boats docked at city wharves or docks.

The ordinance was passed by the City Council before it adjourned for the summer.

Advertise in the KENT NEWS

TO DEPRESS DEPRESSION AND BRING BRIGHTER DAYS TO ALL KENT COUNTY.

BORDLEY & SON'S

Entire $40,000 Stock thrown into a

DRAMATIC TWO WEEKS SALE

The like of which has never been headlined by local papers.

SALE OPENS AT 8 O'CLOCK SATURDAY MORNING WITH A STOREFULL OF BARGAINS THAT WILL STIR A COUNTY FULL OF MEN INTO QUICK, EAGER SPENDING.

Every thinking adult in Kent and Queen Anne Counties knows that universal spending is the only thing that will bring back universal prosperity.

We, as a city and nation, cannot stand idly by and calmly watch things grow worse. SOMETHING MUST BE DONE ABOUT IT and we are accepting our part of the responsibillty.

Men can't continue to go without the apparel they need and in this gigantic sale we have made the items SO low in price that nothing but immediate and frenzied buying can follow.

Here are the bargains that would be hard to turn a deaf ear to.
The Sale is store wide. It's reductions are based on STANDARD merchandise brands you know and respect . . goods that are worthy of our label and your wearing.

COMPARE . . EXPLORE . . the following items ARE sensational.

THEY HAVE TO BE TO DO THE JOB THAT WE HAVE SET OUT TO ACCOMPLISH.

No Goods Charged — All Sales Final

Alterations Made at Customers Expense

$12.00 Summer suits now	$8.95
$13 50 Summer suits now	$9.95
$15.00 Summer suits now	$10.95
$18.00 Summer suits now	$12.95
$20.00 Summer suits now	$13.95
$7.50 and $8.50 Flannel trousers now	$5.95
$5.50 and $6.00 Jantzen Bathing suits	$3.95
$1.00 Straw hats now	69c
$1.50 Straw hats now	95c
$2.00 Straw hats now	$1.29
$2,50 Straw hats now	$1.59
$3.00 Straw hats now	$1.95
$3.50 and $4.00 Straw hats now	$2.45
$5.00 Panama hats now	$3.45
$7.00 Panama hats now	$4.95
$5.00 Palmbeach pants	$3.95
$3.75 Linen pants now	$2.95
$2.75 Pre-shrunk duck pants now	$1.95
$3.00 Linen knickers now	$2.35
$4.50 Linen knickers now	$3.45
$1.00 Neckwear now	69c
$1.50 Neckwear now	95c
Any Manhattan Shirt in our store other than plain white or solid colors ,in both neck band or collar attached, that formerly sold np to $3.50 now	$1.85

In Addition To The Above Listed Articles We offer a 10 per cent Cash Discount On Anything In Our Store During This Sale

We are simply meeting conditions rather than dodging them. We feel that the only way out of this depression is to GET PEOPLE TO SPEND MONEY and we have made these bargains so tempting that you won't be able to hold onto your money in this store full of reductions.

Come to-day . . . Make it Early . . . But make it Sure.

BORDLEY & SON

"The Store For The Lad And His Dad"

CHESTERTOWN, MARYLAND

DEATHS

Dr. Errol L. Fox, head of the Chemistry Department at Washington College, who died several weeks ago in Germany, while on a European tour, was buried Tuesday at the Arlington National Cemetery. A military funeral was held at 1.30 P. M. for the deceased who was a veteran of the World War and an official of the Frank M. Jarman Post 36 of the American Legion of Chestertown.

Dr. Fox had completed four years as a member of the Washington College faculty last June. Mrs. Fox who, with Dr. T. H. Fowler, was with the deceased on the European tour, is the Librarian at the college and will return to that post in the Fall.

Claude M. Blackiston, 47, a well-known Kent county farmer, died at his home on the Griffith farm, near Sassafras, Saturday following a lingering illness. He was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. Thomas Blackiston, long prominent in the agricultural and social life of the county.

He is survived by his widow, who before marriage was Miss Pearl Faulkner, of Kent county, and five children.

Funeral services were conducted at the home at 11 A. M. Tuesday by the Rev. J. H. Garner, rector of St. Clement's P. E. Church, Massey, and the Rev. Mr. Nichols, of Sassafras M. P. Church, burial in Chester Cemetery, C. L. Dodd, undertaker.

The pall bearers were Douglas C., Norman E., Paul K., and J. T. Blackiston and Wm. E. Keyser and Milton Faulkner.

Bedford H. Titter died suddenly of heart isease at Grasonville, Queen Anne's county, Sunday evening, aged 60. Mr. Titter for many years lived in Quaker Neck. He was a well known farmer but better remembered as a fish and oyster dealer. He was a kind-hearted and industrious citizen and had many friends.

Mr. Titter observed his sixtieth birthday anniversary last Friday, He is survived by a son, George by a first wife and a widow and three children. Funeral services were held at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. Lee Robinson, where he lived. Services were conducted by the Rev. Dr. E. A. Sexsmith, pastor of Christ M. P. Church, interment in Chester Cemetery, Wm. H. Good, undertaker.

He also leaves one sister, Mrs. Julia Proudfoot, of Rowlesburg, West Virginia.

The bearers were Thomas W. Perkins, A. L. Sparks, R. A. Shallcross, T. C. Hadaway, Grover Hadaway, J. Thomas Hadaway, Robert E. Lee and Lee Robinson.

Margaret Archibald, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Archibald, near Kennedyville, died July 30, age three months. Rev. Mr. Lane officiated at the grave, interment Sunday afternoon, August 2, at 2 P. M., in Chester Cemetery; B. R. Fellows, undertaker.

Miss Emma Middleton passed away at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Bryan on July 31, age 73 years. Miss Middleton has been in failing health for some time. Her christian spirit and her kind disposition has helped her in her late sickness. Mrs. Bryan's kind attention and continued devotion to her in her illness showed the love between them.

Service was held on Monday afternoon at 2 P. M. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Bryan, Rev. Harry Wright officiating; B. R. Fellows, undertaker. The bearers were Wm. Groves, Theodore Jewell, Wm. Davis, Raymond Lusby, Emory Bonwill, Thomas Bryan.

Dorothy May Chambers died on Thursday morning after being sick only eight days from complication, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Chambers, age 5 years. She leaves besides her parents, three brothers and two sisters. Her mother was Mary Whiteley before marriage. Funeral services were conducted at her home at Roseville, Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock, by the Rev. Barlow, of Church Hill M. E. Church, Barton Bros., undertakers; interment was in Chesterfield Cemetery, Centreville. The pall bearers were Clayton Chambers, Dunbar Chambers, Aubrey Faucett and Max Callahan.

Wm. C. Woods, aged 76, died at Staten Island, N. Y., Thursday. He was a retired army officer and held the rank of Major-General. He was a brother to Charles E. Woods, of Chestertown, who will attend the funeral from the home of his daughter Monday.

Thomas Elburn was operated on Tuesday of last week for cataract of the eye at the Presbyterian Eye, Ear and Throat Hospital in Baltimore. It is expected that Mr. Elburn will be home in a couple of weeks and every hope is entertained that the operation will be successful as the other eye had to be removed some years ago.

Mrs. Wm. B. Wilmer and son will leave tomorrow for a two weeks visit with her mother in Pennsylvania.

Mrs. C. H. Wise, of Norfolk, Va., is the guest of her mother, Mrs. T. B. Elliott.

Live Personal And Kent Society Notes

Thos. W. Eliason and family, of Chestertown, made an auto trip of several days to Cape Cod, Mass., last week. His daughter has been attending camp in New England. He reports the weather very pleasant the whole week while we were having extreme heat night and day.

Mrs. Fred Burt and children, of Mannington, W. Va., are spending sometime with the former's parents, Ex-Senator and Mrs. Henry Brown, on Lankford Bay.

Mrs. Catherine Gilpin Johnson, of Johns Hopkins Hospital, Baltimore, who has been spending several days in Kent, has returned to Baltimore.

Mrs. Allan B. Harris and son, of Garden City, N. Y., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Allan A. Harris, Chestertown.

Mrs. W. W. Chapman and daughter, Mrs. Rigby Valliant and Miss Louise Simpers returned Monday from a month's stay in Maine. They made the trip of nearly 400 miles by auto in one day. They report cooling breezes on the Maine lake and a delightful visit.

Miss Naudine Walters of Salisbury, grand niece of Miss Nellie Walters, has been the guest of Miss Elizabeth Fontaine at the home of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. E. Clarke Fontaine.

Allan B. Harris, of Garden City, New York, visited his parents in Chestertown this week, coming by airplane to Easton.

Hunter Davis, wife and son, of Cumberland, are guests of Miss Lilly Fowler on High street.

Robert Jacobs, of Baltimore, was a welcome visitor at the NEWS office Wednesday. Mr. Jacobs is a guest of his sister, Mrs. Biddle at Rock Hall. He is well-known here as a former employee of the Transcript when Casper G. Woodall was editor. Mr. Jacobs has been delt with kindly by time and is in business for himself in the city.

Miss Marietta Loud has returned to Chestertown after completing the summer course at Johns Hopkins University in Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Hollins, of Baltimore and Millington, Md., announce the engagement of their daughter, Myrtle, to Harry Adelberg, of Baltimore. They will be at home at their Baltimore residence, 4503 Liberty Heights Avenue, on Sunday August 16th from 8 to 10 P. M.

Miss Carrie Schreiber is the guest of relatives in St. Michaels, Md.

Miss Mary Scott, of Baltimore, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. Webster McIntire.

Dr. E. Clarke Fontaine has completed his teaching duties at the Johns Hopkins University Summer School and is at his home on Front street here. He will spend several days fishing near his old home at Pocomoke City.

Mr. and Mrs. Irving Sparks and little daughter returned Tuesday to their home in Baltimore after spending a week as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Sparks here.

Miss Anna Lewis will spend two weeks the guest of relatives in Washington.

Mrs. May Mills Beck has returned to her home here after completing summer school at Hopkins.

Mrs. Herman Blackway and daughter, Fern, visited Lieut. Blackway at Camp Ritchie over the week-end.

Mrs. W. R. Strong and daughter, Shirley, have returned to Chestertown, after a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Carey Williams in Baltimore.

Fred Fetter, of Elkton, was the week-end guest of friends in Chestertown.

Prof. Louis J. Thibodeau, of Waterbury, Conn., is the guest of his daughter, Miss Betty Thibodeau, here.

Lieut. Commordore Norman R. Hitchcock flew part of the way from Annapolis to join Mrs. Hitchcock and their daughter who are spending the summer at the Skytop Club at Skytop, Pa., for the week-end. When the Barrett Airport located near the Skytop estate is opened later this month, passengers from all over the country may make use of the daily air service to Skytop and other Pocono Points. S. J. and Stewart S. Cort, of 811 B street, Sparrows Point, Md., are also guests at the Club. Week-end arrivals from Maryland included Mr. and Mrs. F. Thompsen and Frank Barger, of McDonogh, Md.. and Miss Margaret Jefferson, of Chestertown, Maryland.

Announcement is made of the marriage on June 1st. 1931, of Frances Sarah, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jarrett Price, of Eastern Neck Island and Howard Erdman Middleton, by the Rev. Geo. A. Morris at his home in Centreville. The bride was gowned in white silk chiffon with white accessories. The young people are residing near Rock Hall with the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Middleton.

Wm. H. Carroll and son, Henry, of Green Spring Valley, spent the week-end with Mrs. Olivia Fowler near Kennedyville.

Mayor Charles N. Satterfield, wife and Miss Maud Miller are touring in the North. They will go as far as Niagara Falls.

Mrs. Dukes and daughter have been in Baltimore attending the funeral of Mrs. Dukes' brother.

Dr. E. A. Sexsmith and wife in company with friends, will leave Washington early Monday for an auto trip to Canton, Ohio, and Missouri. During his absence his pulpit will be supplied in part by Dr. Price, of the Methodist Protestant Recorder and by Rev. Dr. Stone.

Sterling Townshend, of Charlotte Hall, is visiting his mother, Mrs. S. P. Townshend, Chestertown.

Mrs. Sidney Manning, of Baltimore is spending the week in Chestertown.

Mrs. W. S. Gardner, of Baltimore, is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. E. Loud, near Worton.

John E. Barnes and family and Miss Alice Smith are enjoying the week at Ocean City.

Samuel H. McKnett and wife and Miss Barton, of Philadelphia, are guests at the Price Cottage in Betterton.

Raymond Lusby went to Easton Hospital this week for treament of a carbuncle on his neck.

Miss Margaret Jefferson, of Chestertown, has been visiting friends at Camp Red Wing, near Binghampton, New York.

A bevy of young ladies from Chesing the week at Atlantic City. In tertown offices and vicinity are enjoythe party are Misses Charlotte Elliott, from State's Attorney's Office; Miss Elizabeth Carter from Clerk of Court Office; Miss Miriam Smith, of Register of Wills Office; Miss Edna Smith, from Truslow's; Miss Harriet Skirven, from Stam's Drug Co.; Miss Rachel Willis, C. and P. operator.

Mrs. H. S. Barnett, of Baltimore, has been spending the week at her son's, Bernon, and wife. Capt. and Mrs. Clarence Fox visited Mr. Barnett en route to visit in Cambridge.

Mrs. Charles Cole, of Middletown, Del., has been spending the last few days with her brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. John Blackiston, of near McGinnis' Corner.

Mr. and Mrs. Lindale Lodge, of Dover, Del., and Mrs. Theo. Paulas, of Washington, D. C., spent the week-end with Mrs. Lodge's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Blackiston.

Supt. Paul Adams, of Chestertown Gas Co., visited relatives in Atlantic City this week.

W. Russell Wheatley, wife and daughter, of New York, are guests of his mother on Water street.

Morris Hoffman and son, of Washington, D. C., were guests this week of Mrs. J. H. Simpers. Mr. Hoffman is Presilent of The Firemen's Insurance Company of Washington, D. C., and one of the Capital's prosperous and progressive citizens.

Mrs. Frank B. Hines and Mrs. Catherine Beck Jones were guests of the former's husband, Major Frank B. Hines at Camp Ritchie this week.

Miss Harriet L. Rogers, of Chestertown, spent the past week with Miss Skinner, in New York.

Mrs. Wm. W. Chapman and daughter, Thedosia, and Miss Louise Simpers, have returned to their Chestertown homes after a month spent on the Coast of Maine.

Miss Elizabeth Pennington is spending this month with home folks at Kennedyville. She will return to Illinois next month.

Dr. Ralph McFeely, wife and two children, of Bogota, N. J., and Mrs. McFeely's two sisters visited friends in town last week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Beck, of near Quaker Neck Wharf, Kent County, entertained a number of friends and relatives the past week-end. Amang those present were Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bryan, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bradley, Miss Isabel Beck, and Mr. Chas. Cohn, all of Baltimore.

$1 DAY IN WILMINGTON

More than one hundred of Wilmington's leading retail establishments will participate in the Official Fall Dollar Day, to be held in that city, Wednesday, August 12th, 1931, under the auspices of the Mercantile Section of the Chamber of Commerce it was announced today by that organization.

This event is the 36th semi-annual Dollar Day to be sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce in Wilmington. The Mercantile Section of the Chamber of Commerce and its committees have been working for months preparing to make this Dollar Day the greatest ever conducted in the city.

Special effort has been made to encourage shoppers to visit Wilmington, August 12th, and share in the great "bargain festival."

Emphasis is being laid by the Mercantile Section on the fact that only the stores displaying uniform window cards and price tickets of a distinctive color and bearing the official emblem of the Chamber of Commerce are officially participating in the event. Other stores, however, are unofficially observing the day.

It is pointed out that bargains will not be limited to dollar items. Others of higher price, due to the value or nature of the merchandise as represented in every line of the retail business, are proportionately reduced in price on Dollar Day.

Rock Hall Firemen's

CARNIVAL

The Carnival Committee have decided to extend the CARNIVAL to include MONDAY, AUGUST 10th.

The Automobile will be given away on that date.

Free Parking Space for Customers

Our customers may have two hours' free parking at the Downtown Garage, 208 Water Street, near Calvert.

Katz CLOTHES

OFF 1/3 OFF

Unrestricted choice of our entire stock of ready-for-service clothes (evening wear and topcoats excepted) at one-third off.

NO CHARGE FOR ALTERATIONS

211-213 East Baltimore Street, Baltimore

©Maryland State Archives, msa_sc6000_27_1-0173