That the Del-Mar-Va Peninsula will not admit that it is being "depressed by depression," will be broadcast to the nation next Sunday in the National Balloon Races, to be held at Akron, Ohio, where the Del-Mar-Va Peninsula will be represented by an entry.

The primary purpose of the Del-Mar-Va Peninsula being represented in this event is to call attention to the fact that the Peninsula is one agricultural section which has withstood the recent unfavorable conditions in a sound manner and that it is facing the future most optimistically.

The Association will extend a general invitation for those in all sections to visit Del-Mar-Va for the purpose of observing and ascertaining first hand that the Peninsula has withstood every hardship in such a manner that it stands out far above the majority of agricultural sections.

The Del-Mar-Va balloon will carry painted on each side the name "Del-Mar-Va., The Peninsula of Plenty," the original slogan of the Del-Mar-Va Association when it was organized six years ago. Literature will be distributed by the pilots while the balloon is enroute. This will include an invitation to visit and investigate Del-Mar-Va.

The entry of the Del-Mar-Va balloon has been made possible by the contributions of approximately twenty business leaders throughout the Peninsula who have accepted a pro rate share in the expenses entailed.

VOTERS AND TAX PAYERS OF CHESTERTOWN, MARYLAND

Extract from Auditors Report of the books and records of Commissioners of Chestertown made under order of Mayor E. Scott Thompson and Commissioner Henry Gill first audit for more than twenty years. Covering year prior to present boards administration.

To The Commissioner of Chestertown,
Chestertown, Maryland,
Gentlemen:

As per your resolution of June 2, 1930, appointing the undersigned to audit the books and make recommendations, we wish to submit the following statement;

We have taken the year starting April 25, 1929, and closing April 25, 1930, beginning with shortage of $176.88.

We have checked all receipts and disbursements showing balance in hand at close of business April 25th, 1930 of $1,457.17.

We find the administration of the affairs of the Town by the Commissioners have been very badly managed.

In defiance of the law which prohibits the Commissioners from borrowing money, in 1928, $6,000.00, in 1929, $3,000, $2,500, $1,500 was borrowed on notes with no record of the loans and no official action on the minutes for the borrowing of the money.

In most instances no official action on minutes of record were taken on important matters such as:

Gasoline tank permits given without charge,

Pipe line permits given without charge,

Sewer on Lynchburg Street,

Additional Street Lights,

Reduction of assessments for taxes to citizens,

Ordinances published,

Rebates on cement sidewalks given to citizens,

Bonus salary paid clerk to amount of $150.00,

Extra money paid stenogropher for assistance to Clerk, $75.00,

Christmas presents given the employees,

Taxpayer's money spent for flowers,

And many other careless and irregular actions.

There is no record of the bonded indebtedness of the town showing maturities of the bonds;

We respectfully make the following recommendotions;

That new system of bookkeeping be installed,

That the town be operated on the budget system,

That committee be appointed at once to prepare and submit new charter to your Board for action at next Legislature which meets this coming January at Annapolis.

Respectfully submitted,
THOMAS W. PERKINS,
J. RAYMOND SIMPERS.

Under Commissioners Thompson and Gill's orders the auditors opened new system of books, put the town finances on a budget system and paid off $4,000 of the towns old indebtedness during the year 1930.

For economy and better service we ask the support of every tax payer and voter of Chestertown, on July 20, 1931.

Respectfully.
HENRY GILL,
CHARLES A. BACON,
E. SCOTT THOMPSON,
R. HYNSON ROGERS.

DEATHS

Miss Mary Janvier died at her late residence "Knox's Folley," Turner's Creek, in this county, in the 65th year of her age on July 12th last. She was the daughter of the late William Janvier, a member of the Constitutional Convention of 1867 from Kent County, and Mary E. Wethered. Her ancestors before her lived in her Turner's Creek home continuously since 1673. Miss Janvier was a devoted Christian and the welfare of Shrewsbury Parish was her chief concern. Her fore-father Edward Blay, whose estate included a large section of Northern Kent, donated the land upon which Shrewsbury Church stands.

She was buried in the family lot on July 15th, the Rev. Vernon W. Lane officiating. The entire vestry acted as pallbearers: William Crow. Bruce Dukes, Edmund S. Hurtt Edmund Pennington, John Sutton, B. Raymond Sutton, George Sutton.

The honorary pallbearers were: John Wethered Barroll, Esq., P. M. Brooks, Frank Janvier, Edw. Hughlett, Judge Lewin W. Wickes.

Mrs. Hope H. Barroll and Dr. John L. Wethered are her nearest living relatives.

Ellis Clark had charge of the funeral arrangefents.

Funeral services were held at Golt M. P. Church at 2 P. M. Wednesday, Rev. Garner officiating; John A. Tobin, undertaker. The bearers were the brothers of J., O. U. A. M.

John A. Rodenheiser, aged 82 years, of 718 New Castle avenue, died at his home Friday night, following an illness of two weeks from complications due to age. Mr. Rodenheiser, was born and reared at Still Pond, Md. but had lived in Wilmington for 65 years. Before retiring from work fourteen years ago, he was a moulder by trade Lobdell Car Wheel Company for over forty years. He was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. William James Rodenheiser. "BOULEVARD X" SIGNS TO GO

No more will the wonder motorist ponder over the right of way at boulevard highway crossings in Maryland. The State Roads Commission has decided to settle the question for them.

Using figures secured in traffic checks as the basis on wihch the boulevard rights will be determined. the commission has started to remove the "Boulevard X" signs and replace them with the regular Boulevard "Stop" markers.

Roads with the greater volume of traffic will have the right of way over those of lesser travel and the stop signs will be placed against the motorists on the less travelled branch.

Traffic Cop—Hey, you can't turn this corner.

Sweetie—Make all those other cars get out of my way and I'll show you.

MAKE CHECK ON BAY SPAN NEED

Concentrating on the Havre de Grace bridge, inspectors of the State Roads Commission Monday began the second period of a traffic count to help determine the practicability of a bridge or tunnel across the Chesapeake Bay.

The count will continue for a week and the sequel of a twelve-day check made by inspectors in the latter part of June.

The survey is being supervised by two firms which made a similar count for the Chesapeake Bay Bridge Company, said Howard Bruce, chairman of the Bay Crossing Commission.

As in the previous check, inspectors will count all vehicles crossing the bay by ferries. In making the count of vehicles traveling the land route around the northern end of the bay, however, the checkers will be stationed at the Havre de Grace bridge rather than on the DuPont highway and other roads leading to the Eastern Shore from the north.

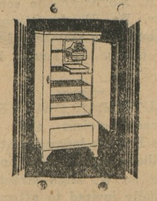

The bridge is the chief link in the land route between Baltimore and the Easttrn Shore and provides a simpler and more direct means of counting vehicles making the trip, it was said.

A large force of men will be stationed at the bridge to question motorists as to their destinations and there should be little delay, Mr. Bruce added.
