RURAL CARRIERS MEET

The Tri-County Rural Carriers Association comprising Kent, Caroline and Queen Anne's counties, held their annual meeting and election of officers at Smith Hall, Washington College, Chestertown.

Walter E. Woodford of the Centreville Post Office Department delivered an address. Following the meeting the association banqueted at the Green Lantern Inn, on Chester River.

The officers chosen were—

President—Stewart N. Price, of Chestertown.

Secretary and Treasurer—J. Carroll Catlin, of Church Hill.

Delegates to State Convention—W. Levi Clough, William E. Roe, Jr., and J. Paul Brown, of Centreville; Clyde Embert, of Queenstown, and J. Carroll Catlin, of Church Hill, and W. C. Stevens, of Queen Anne's.

NEIGHBORS and friends of young James T. Anthony, 3rd, of near Chestertown, should feel mighty proud of the Carnegie medal and award, bestowed upon him for life-saving.

It was a well-deserved tribute for a splendid and courageous action.

Dr. H. P. Copeland has returned from an auto trip to Pittsburg, Niagara and other points of interest.

HOW TEACHERS SPEND SUMMER

By RUTH FOX

The seventh grade of the Chestertown Elementary School came to the High School Monday. Mr. Blades spoke to them about the various courses. They were all very much excited — my sister is still talking about it. Mr. Louis C. Robinson acted as "chaperon."

The Tenth Grade History Club held its last meeting of the year. The program was most entertaining. Those who helped to make it so were:

Galen Clark — Helping the Disabled.

Margaret Cosden—James Peal.

Ruth Fox—"Father William," and "The Walrus and the Carpenter."

Miriam Ford — Influences of History In Later Life.

Ruth Fox—What The History Club Has Meant To The Tenth Grade.

Most of the tennis champions have been decided upon. The Seniors are represented by James Coleman and Anna Harris. The Juniors have not been eliminated, but those contending are Reginald Cooper, William Ford, Willa Newnam, Carolyn Jewell and Gertrude Leaverton. The Sophomore winners are Dobert Wright and Elizabeth Fontaine. While the little Freshmen, next year's Sophisticated Sophomore's are represented by Ned Hepburn and Margaret Bell.

I went around to each member of the faculty asking where they wert going during the coming warm interlude. Here is what they told me:

Mrs. Greene: To Massachusetts and then home again to "keep house."

Miss Riches: Working in the Hopkins' Library and then to Oregon in my car.

Mr. Stenger: I'm going to stay right around Chestertown and play a lot of golf.

Mr. Poole: My address will be Philadelphia, Baltimore and Williamsport.

Miss Bryan: I'm hoping to fly to New York and sail home.

Mr. Willis: I'm going tour in my car right into California.

Miss Kersey—You'll see me sporting around home.

Miss Peacock: First it's Hopkins' and then North Jersey.

Miss Fitz: Summer schooling at Temple University.

Miss Mamie: I'll be at Hopkins.

Mrs. Groce: The summer school at the University of Pennsylvania.

Miss Gessford: I want to go to New York, Florida, and the Severn River, but most of all I'm going to loaf.

Mr. Blades: I'll be at Hopkins.

The Literary Society held a meeting Friday afternoon. Here is the program:

Singing the school song.
Chemical Magic—William Baker.
Leaving High School — William Commella.
Girls' Athletics—Pricilla Grainger.
Boys' Athletics—Jimmy Kreeger.
The Reflector—William Baker.
Vale, An Overture — composed by Ivon Culver.
Baseball—Mr. Stenger.
Tennis—Harriett L. Rogers.
The History Club—Ruth Fox.
The Dramatic Club—Miss Bryan.
Vocational Guidance—Mr. Blades.
Singing the new school song—Words by Miss Riches; music by Ivon Culver.

This is Isaac Covey's full name: Benjamin Issac William Henry FountainMathew Covey, Jr.

Since the year books have arrived the Seniors are using up bottles of ink for the purpose of autograping everybody else's Dragon.

Miss Fitez reports that sixty-eleven different representatives from sixty-eleven business schools have have called and talked to the Seniors in the Commercial section.

7-6 is the score by which C. H. S. defeated Mar Della Springs on Monday. We're Eastern Shore champions in baseball new!

The color of the Dragon covers were supposed to have been Blue and and Gold. When they came they were a cross between salmon pink and scarlet. Remarks are floating around the school to this effect. Don't you think the color of the year book is new and novel looking?

It seems hardly possible that when next year comes so many familiar faces will be gone. That is Seniors will be missed there is no doubt. What will we do without William Beker's dependibility or Betty Anthony's originality? And all of the others too—there is not one in the class of '31 who has not contributed something worthwhile to C. H. S. It is a fine class that is bidding "Adieu" this spring.

The incomes of doctors average $5,000 a year and of surgeons $9,000.

Ohio Rotary Hoe
New Idea Tomato Transplanter

What a Rotary Hoe can do for YOU:

Perhaps the greatest use of the Rotary Hoe is in the breaking of surface crusts and the killing of weed seedlings before and after the crop is planted.

With a Rotary Hoe you can give your crops an early start and keep weeds from gaining a foothold.

And you can do it much faster and far better than can ever be done by shovel cultivation.

The numerous pulverizing teeth or fingers penetrate to a uniform depth and thoroughly stir the surface soil.

A Rotary Hoe can be used without damage to the crop until the plants reach a height of 8 or 10 inches, and even higher under favorable conditions.

New Idea Tomato Transplanter

Increase yield and quality, gives roots plenty of room to grow, saves time and labor.

The New Idea way of planting so closely approaches natural conditions, few plants are lost, growth begins immediately and crops mature several days earlier than those set by other methods.
