ROCK HALL TAKES LEAD

Before a crowd of 700 excited fans, largest to flock to a Chesapeake Bay League baseball game this season, Tommy Tucker's Rock Hall Club Saturday pushed Church Hill off its lofty perch and took the leadership of the six club wheel as the visitors were let down on the short end of a 9 to 1 score while Carey fanned 22 men and bested the veteran Bill Loller in a pitchers battle. The former Washington College flinger was amply supported at the plate. Baker, second man up in the first inning, spilled a circuit clout over the centerfield fence. Fitzgerald let loose a three bagger and J. Williams followed with a two-base hit as the former Washington College first baseman came home. F. Williams was safe on an infield error and Burges s walked. Legates two-bagger scored Williams and Corneli's sacrifice fly to centerfield brought Burgess home.
