DEATHS

After a lingering illness Charles Rhoton Crew, aged 56, died at his late home in Betterton on Monday morning, June 15th. Until recently he was employed at Edgewood Arsenal for about 11 years and where three years ago he was presented with a congressional medal for saving the life of an army officer from drowning. He leaves a widow, one sister and two brothers.

The funeral in charge of the Odd Fellows, was held on Wednesday at 2 P. M. from the Betterton M. E. Church of which he was a member. Rev. J. C. B. Hopkins officiating, assisted by Dr. Walter Stone; B. R. Fellows, undertaker.

Mrs. Jane Cleaver Webb, widow of the late James S. Webb, died at the home of her brother, William B. Cleaver, near Kennedyville, on Tuesday, June 16, of paralysis, age 64 years. Mrs. Webb was stricken in Kennedyville M. P. Church at the close of evening services on Sunday, June 7th. The deceased was a woman of unusual character, highly respected and loved by all who knew her. She is survived by her brother, a foster daughter, Mrs. R. G. Warren, of Baltimore, and several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services were held from the home of her brother on Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. J. McLain Brown officiating. The bearers were Linwood Redmile, Wallace Atwell, William Webb, Harry Redmile, Robert Wallis and Howard Clendaniel; B. R. Fellows, undertaker.

William T. Downey died suddenly Wednesday evening, June 10th, 1931, while sitting in a chair at his home in Denbeigh, near Rock Hall, talking with his wife and daughter as announced in KENT NEWS last week. The deceased was 77 years old and had been a lifelong resident of Rock Hall where he was a member of the M. E. Church and the Knights of Pythias.

His widow was formerly Miss Ella Ayres and his daughter is Mrs. Bessie Davis, of Bustleton, Pa. Two sons also survive, Frank Downey, of Baltimore, and Stanley Downey, of Norfolk, Va. Surviving also are two brothers, John W., and Marion Downey, and a half-sister, Mrs. John R. Dowling, Sr., all of Rock Hall.

Funeral services were conducted by the Rev. W. S. Grant, his pastor, in Rock Hall M. E. Church at 11 A. M., Sunday, June 14th, where the body was rurrounded by an edifice filled with friends and many beautiful floral offerings. Interment was made in Wesley Chapel Cemetery. The bearers were young relatives: Weldon and Alvin Davis, Spencer Smith, Harry Shultise, Willis Laing and Lloyd Rollison. Thomas H. Casey, assisted by B. R. Fellows, was the undertaker.

June 15, 1931, died in Baltimore, Nannie Wilson, daughter of the late Francis Adolphus Wallis and Mary G. Wallis, of Kent County. Mass was said for the repose of her soul at St. John's Church, Rock Hall, Wednesday.
