ROTARY DINNER A HUGE SUCCESS

The largest and most successful Inter-City Rotary Dinner ever held in this section took place last Monday night at Tolchester Beach Hotel. 175 ladies and gentlemen were present. Elkton, Denton, Centreville and Chestertown Rotary Clubs were largely represented, but the Baltimore and Washington Clubs also sent several Rotarians.

This year's affair was sponsored by the Chestertown Club and was under the direction of Clinton C. Jones, chairman of the Chestertown Rotary Club program committee and was put over in a splendid manner. Every feature, from the inspiring singing, under the direction of Postmaster Harry Kimmey, of Westminster Club. to the surpassing meal served under the personal supervision of John J. Federer, manager of Hotel Tolchester, could not be improved. It was a 100 per cent. affair from beginning to end.

Just note what the menu was: Fruit cocktail, olives, cold slaw, pickles, pan fish, parsley butter, soft shell crabs natural, fried Eastern Shore young chicken, French fried potatoes, garden peas, lettuce and tomato salad, home made rolls and muffins, coffee, ice cream and cake. And the service was ideal.

President W. Robert Huey, of the Chestertown Club, was the master of ceremonies and made a short address after which he presented the newly-elected Governor of the 34th District Dr. Paul E. Titsworth, who as usual made a most fitting response. The Doctor left here Wednesday for Vienna, Austria, to attend the big Rotary International Conventtin.

George W. Whitwell, past president of the Washington, D. C., Rotary Club, made the chief address of the evtning and pleased his audience very much. He was accompanied here by his wife and two others from Washington.

The instrumental music was under the direction of Dr. Fred. G. Livingood.

Mrs. Harry Kimmey, of Westminster, was the piano accompanist for the singing.

The club presidents in attendance were:

Elkton—Harry Pippin.
Denton—Ben Johnson.
Centreville—Norman Walters.
Chestertown—W. R. Huey.

The club secretaries present were:

Elkton—Lynn Gillespie.
Denton—Gale Cooper.
Centreville—Milton Slemmer.
Chestertown—Sidney Turner.

A beautiful souvenir was given each lady present.

During the evening Dr. Titsworth made the announcement that the committee had decided to hold the 34th District Conference on August 3 and 4 on the steamer Gen. Cadwalader, on the Chesapeake Bay.

JAMES W. Chapman, Jr., of Chestertown and Baltimore, who was elected president of the Maryland Bar Association last June after serving twenty-two consecutive years as secretary of the group, is expected to be reelected secretary at the thirty-sixth annual meeting of the association in Atlantic City, June 25 to 27.

Mr. Chapman has been chosen for secretary by the nominating committee and such action is considered virtual election. He has been a member of the association since 1900 and was first chosen secretary in 1908.

Senator S. Scott Beck, a member of the Kent county bar, is slated to be one of the vice-presidents of the Maryland association by the nominations made by the committee in charge.

Alwyn M. Culp, who has been at Church Home and Infirmary for three weeks, is critically ill. He is one of Kent's best citizens.

HENRY J. HOPKINS, Baltimore architect, has made plans for the Kent Mutual Insurance Company for the remodelling of the building formerly the old Chestertown Bank of Maryland.

TAX RATE DECLARED

The County Commissioners met in special session yesterday and struck the tax rate for this year at $1.67 on the $100. This rate will be good news to the public as it has required careful management to keep the rate down. The rate last year was $1.63.

$200.00 PRIZE IN BOAT RACES

In addition to the sailing and speed boat races to be held at the annual regatta of the Chester River Yacht and Country Club on August 21st and 22nd, arrangements have been completed for a special race in which only oyster and fish boats will be eligible. J. J. Raskob, an ardent yachtsman has made this big event possible by offering $200.00 in gold to be distributed to the winners as prizes.

This special race for motor work boats may be considered a tribute to the men who follow the water and who add so much enjoyment to yachting on the waters of the Chesapeake Mr. Raskob on the Chesapeake is recognized as a sportsman and enthusiastic yachtsman. Last year he won the Open Sailing Championship of Cresapeake Bay.

There will be four moneys in each class—$50.00 for first place, $25.00 for second, $15.00 for third and $10.00 for fourth. This race will be run on Saturday afternoon, August 22nd.

There will also be a Motor Boat Handicap Race from Love Point to Chestertown in which all work boats are eligible. This race starts at Love Point Friday afternoon, August 21.

In addition to these two events which are of particular interest to the watermen, Chester River Regatta will stage the Official Gold Cup Championship of Chesapeake Bay and the Star Championship Friday morning—Friday afternoon, race to Anchorage for both sail and motor boats. Friday evening, reception and dance at the club house with big fire-work display from a barge in the river in front of the club house.

On Saturday, August 22nd, the Sailing Canoe Championship will be held at Chestertown followed by an Outboard Marathion at 12.00 noon, with Speed Boat races in the afternoon.

THE Chestertown High School banquet is to be held Thursday evening at 7.30 in the High School Auditorium. Walter C. Lourie, a member of the faculty of Beacom's College, is to be the speaker of the evening. H. Stockton Startt is to be toastmaster. There is to be a dance immediately after the banquet.

THE Ford Auto Co., represented by the Eliason Motors Co., gave a demonstration this week of many of their business cars such as police patrols, ambulance, trucks, etc. The Ford Caravan has been making a tour of the Del-Mar-Va peninsula showing the products of the Ford plants. They were all marvelous cars.

A SUGGESTION that six Kent county banks reduce the interest rate on savings deposits is being considered by the various boards of directors following a conference of officers of the county banking houses. The rate now ranges from four to four and one-half per cent. Many bankers in other places have already taken action reducing same.

CHESTER River Yacht Club have awarded the contract for the new pier at the Country Club on Chester River below Chestertown.

Washington College Ends Its 149th Year

Following the June Fete dance, and alumni meeting Saturday evening came the Baccalaureate exercise Sunday. Dr. Paul E. Titsworth delivered a learned address on "Add To Your Virtue, Knowledge." The college male double quartette furnished good music.

The afternoon program by the Christian Association of the college was an enjoyable affair. The College Orchestra rendered a program of refined and classical selections followed by the address by Dr. Oscar Olson, of Mt. Vernon Place M. E. Church, Baltimore. His theme was "Youth" and no man is better fitted to handle this subject than Dr. Olson. It was a grand address.

Monday morning the formal commencement exercises were held in William Smith Hall before a large audience. The difference in education between one who has not had the advantage of years in college and one who has it, is much less today than when Washington College was founded nearly 150 years ago, Louis Wiley, business manager of the New York Times, told the graduating class, faculty and several hundred listeners.

"This may seem a strange message for a graduating class. It may seem to belittle the value of what you have won by your labors," the New York newspaperman said, "but it is in reality a challenge to you of the privileged class who go out from Washington College today to accept the responsibilities of leadership which the world has a right to ask of college men and women. A century ago a generation ago, the gap between the man or woman who had finished the prescribed courses and won an academic degree and the less fortunate ones was marked. The graduates were few, the number of illiterates large.

"One cannot read the history of a half century or more ago without being impressed by a certain arrogance of intellectual leadership in public affairs. Those who had the advantage of higher education felt themselves to be an aristrocracy in the world of the mind. Today the level of education of our people as a whole has risen. The college man and woman who accepts leadership must prove his right in competition more severe. The test of your leadership will be the measures by which you apply the advantage of your education in keeping up with the progress of mankind, in understanding and interpreting the questions of the day in the light of truth."

Due to a change in the usual procedure of the exercises, the valedictory and salutatory orations were dispensed with and Kenneth Douty, of Baltimore, selected by the faculty delivered the address on behalf of the senior class, President Paul E. Titsworth announced the following honor students and prize winners to whom awards were made from the platform: Highest average for the four-year college course, Edith S.
