TWO NEW LEAGUES

Two new amateur baseball leagues are being formed in Kent county. The Kent County Amateur Baseball League, is being organized by Howard Byrd, manager of the old St. James Club. Thus far the wheel includes Chestertown, Still Pond, Kennedyville and West Kent, the last composed of players from western sections of the county near the Chesapeake Bay front. Two more clubs, it is hoped by the managers of the circuit, will shortly be added so as to make it a six-club loop. The season will open Saturday when Kennedyville and West Kent will play here and Chestertown and Still Pond meet at Still Pond.

Stanley B. Sutton, newly appointed assistant county agricultural agent here, has organized a league comvosed of goys' agricultural clubs. The Chestertown 4-H Clover Calf Club, the Handy Andy Club and the Millington 4-H Club have been organized and are playing a series. It is expected two more clubs will be added.

In plays the villians all look wicked; in real life they are so attractive they fool you.

EXHIBIT FOR NEGRO HEALTH WEEK TAKEN TO HEADQUARTERS.

Marjorie Forte, colored public nurse for Kent county, ingeniously arranged the exhibit showing the work done during National Negro Health Week in a hughe book made of red bristol board on the pages of which were mounted the reports from each colored school together with the work of the pupils and numerous photographs. This volume she delivered in person to the Howard Medical University at Washington, D. C., after taking it to the Health Department in Baltimore. Kent won the award last year and hopes to do the same this year.

Earle Coleman bested the veteran Bill Loller in a pitcher's battle, hotly contested until the final inning.

Brower scored in the second after walking and coming home on an infield error.

MILLINGTON TRIUMPHS

The home club was blanked last Saturday by Millington, 4 to 0, while Vodvarka, newly acquired flinger of the visiting club, pitches an airtight game and further boosted his victory by his stick work.

His long center-field drive, in the sixth, brought in the Wallace brothers who were on base after Coleman had been hit by the pitcher and had scored on an infield error.

FITZGERALD HITS HOMER

Fitzgerald, first baseman of the Rock Hall club, spilled a circuit clout over the center-field fence in the initial frame and the local outfit began its climb to the top of the heap by handing Kennedybille a 6-to-4 defeat.

Carey maintained his pace on the mound and fanned 14 men while allowing three scattered hits.

A three-bagger by J. Williams in the first came to naught when the runner was left on base. With the score tied at 4 to 4, Bargart relieved Sparks on the mound for the visitors in the seventh.

Original Pullman Car

The first pullman car was built by George M. Pullman in 1865 at a cost of $20,000. This was hurriedly completed so that it might form a part of the train that bore the body of Abraham Lincoln from Washington to Chicago, and thence to Springfield.

IN congratulating the winners in the great Camel contest we want at the same time to thank most cordially the approximately million men and women who displayed their friendly interest by sending in an entry.

We wish also to thank the millions of smokers throughout the country for the appreciation they are showing for our new Humidor Pack as is evidenced by the notable increase in the sale of Camel cigarettes.

By means of this dust-proof, germ-proof, moisture-proof Cellophane wrapping the rich aroma and full flavor of choice Turkish and mellow Domestic tobaccos have been air-sealed in Camels for your enjoyment.

If you have not tried Camels in the Humidor Pack all we ask is that you switch over to this brand for one day.

After you have learned how much milder, how much cooler, how much more enjoyable it is to smoke a perfectly conditioned fresh cigarette, go back to the harsh hotness of stale cigarettes if you can.
