Hill - Billie Boys And Girls Are Coming

Troupe of Blue Ridge Ramblers will give Novelty Program of Folk Music at the New Lyceum Theatre, Chestertown, Monday and Tuesday, May 25 and 26.

A distinct novelty in the way of stage attraction is promised patrons of the New Lyceum Theatre. This is the appearance of the famous Blue Ridge Ramblers.

Dramatizing the lives and habits of the primitive mountain folk of the Blue Ridge has long been a favorite subject with American novelists, but rarely is the public given an opportunity to see them in person and observe their unique customs at close range.

The Blue Ridge Ramblers consists of 10 young Boys and Girls, who have won wide recognition by reason of their programs broadcasted, from important stations from all parts of the country, especially in the rendition of old mountaineer melodies which have never been written in manuscripts, but handed down from generation to generation. This part of their program should be of special interest to those appreciating new and unusual entertainment.

Features in the program are Fred Roe, National Old-Time Fiddlin' Champion; Jack Reedy, King of the Straight Banjo, with Russell Jones, the Steel Guitar Wizzard—in old and new numbers and Lonnie Austin, the boy that plays 'em all—with Henry Roe and "Happy" Atkins, the Guitar Players—Extraordinary. Also featuring "Dad" Williams, Champion Novelty Fiddler of the country, with Harry Brown, the Mandolin King.

It is a happy combination of old and new mountain music. In addition to their radio engagements, the Blue Ridge Ramblers have played successful Vaudeville engagements at leading theatres, both east and west.

A DENOMINATIONAL rally for young people of Kent and Queen Anne's counties was held Monday night in Christ M. P. Church here. The program was under the direction of Dr. C. E. Forlines, of the Westminster Theological Seminary faculty, assisted by the Rev. Dr. E. A. Sexsmith, pastor of Christ Church. The rally is a part of an educational program of the Maryland Conference of the M. P. Church conducted by its department of religious education. Rev. Mr. Stone was also present.
