DEATHS

Mrs. Emma L. Cranor, daughter of the late L. L. and Martha E. Rollison, of Kent county, and wife of E. P. Cranor, of Chestertown, died at her home on Maple avenue Wednesday morning from complications resulting from a recent automobile accident.

Mrs. Cranor was injured some weeks ago when an automobile in which she was riding with Edward H. Dittman, local barber, turned over while they were enroute to Wilmington to visit Mr. Dittman's wife. Following the accident Mrs. Cranor was carried to a Wilmington hospital but was brought to Chestertown later the same day in the Kent county ambulance. She has been ill at her home here since that time.

Mrs. Cranor, with her husband, had conducted a boarding house in Chestertown for the past 25 years. She is survived by her husband, and four daughters and one son, all by a former marriage. The daughters are: Mrs. Roxie Washburn, of Philadelphia; Mrs. Elizabeth Lamb, of Westville, N. J.; Mrs. Lola Dunlap, of Philadelphia, and Mrs. Edgar L. Pyle, of Chestertown. The son is George Sheats, of Bear, Del.

She also leaves three sisters; Mrs. Venie Skaggs, of Ohio; Mrs. George Carter, of Chestertown; Mrs. Elizabeth Cox, of Barclay, and one brother, L. L. Rollison, of Wilmington.

Funeral services will be held from her late home at 2 P. M. on Saturday and will be conducted by the Rev. Dr. E. A. Sexsmith. R. Ellis Clark, undertaker in charge. Interment will be made in Chester Cemetery, Chestertown.

Mrs. Mary B. Simmons, widow of the late Dr. G. W. Simmons, died Tuesday morning at her home in Denton, Md., after a lingering illness, aged 86 years. She is survived by four children, viz: Miss Ida Simmons, of Denton; Mrs. W. E. Laughlin, of Belle Center, Ohio; Mrs. W. S. Anderson, of Columbia, Ohio. and Dr. H. Benge Simmons, of Chestertown.

The deceased was born and reared in Cecil county, Md. The first 20 years of her married life were spent in Newark, Del., where her husband was located for the practice of his profession, removing about 25 years ago to Denton. Prior to his removal to Denton, Dr. Simmons, Sr., was located temporarily in Chestertown and practiced medicine in conjunction with his son, Dr. H. Benge Simmons. During her residence in this community Mrs. Simmons endeared herself to all with whom she came into contact by reason of her charming personality and the manifestation in her daily life of every womanly virtue and beautiful Christian character.

Funeral services were held from her late home in Denton, Md., Friday morning at 11.00 o'clock; interment in the M. E. Church Cemetery, at Newark, Del., at 2.30 P. M. Standard time. J. Virgil Moore, of Denton, undertaker in charge.

Mrs. Annie E. Merritt, 80, widow of the James A. Merritt, of Baltimore, died at the home of her sister, Mrs. Mary E. DeFord, near Rock Hall, Wednesday.

She is survived by Mrs. DeFord, her sister; two nieces, Mrs. Geo. C. Perkins, of California, and Mrs. Maude Price, of near Rock Hall, and one nephew, George C. DeFord, of near Rock Hall.

Funeral services were held from the home of her sister at 2 P. M., on Friday. The Rev. J. W. Baxley will officiate and Charles L. Dodd will be the undertaker in charge. Interment will be made at Centreville, Md.

The bearers were W. Reybold Wilson, B. Neal Willson, John Dowling, R. Sterling Jones, Herman Meredith and Harry Wagoner.

Mrs. Katie B. Aaronson, widow of the late J. E. Aaronson, died at the Emergency Hospital, Thursday, May 7th, and was buried in the Odd Fellows Cemetery, Milford, Del., on Saturday at 12 o'clock, John D. Williams, Easton, undertaker.

Mrs. Aaronson was born in Baltimore 75 years ago but had spent the greater part of her life in Talbot and Kent counties. She is survived by eight nieces and nephews.

William Rutter, of North East, died Tuesday afternoon at his home in that town from heart trouble. Mr. Rutter was about 55 years of age, owner of some valuable farms in Elk Neck, a former town commissioner, and director of the North East National Bank.

At the last election he was defeated for the House of Delegates on the Republican ticket. A wife survives him.
