The Kent News

SATURDAY, APRIL 18, 1931

With the passing of Chicago's "Big Bill," the title to the "Greatest Show on Earth" reverts to Barnum and Bailey's.

Senator Watson, of Indiana, Republican leader in the Senate, is not worried about the big deficit facing the Treasury. He says that Secretary Mellon can take care of it with short term notes, which recalls the case of the inpecunious woman who exclaimed to a friend: "I am so happy; I have borrowed enough money to pay all of my debts!"

Secretary of Agriculture Hyde officially notifies President Hoover that the year-long drought in the Southern States is broken, and the supposition is that Chairman Fess of the Republican National Committee will list the recent rainfall as one of the major "achievements of the Hoover Administration."

FARMERS ARE BUSY

Kent farmers are busy at the present time. The clear weather has stirred them in getting their tomato ground plowed. Last week the weather was favorable for outdoor work. Early potatoes are about to be planted. Pruning, spraying, hauling manure and lime, fencing and cleaning up the fields and along the roadsides have been pushed as rapidly as possible.

Burning brush is seen all over the county. In traveling along the roads one hardly loses sight of the smoke from one pile of brush when he sees another. It is very creditable to see so many farmers cleaning up their fields along the roadsides. Unsightly hedges, wild honeysuckles and other fast growing plants help to mar the landscape in many places.

Much timber is also being cut. Fruit trees are in bloom, and apple and pear trees are putting on leaves. Strawberries will soon be in bloom, and the verdant green of spring is everywhere visible.

Robins, bluebirds and many other song birds are seen mating and busy building their nests. Kent will soon be at the height of its beauty, with a background of busy farmers in the fields.

FREIGHT LINE TO LOVE POINT

The Pennsylvania Railroad Company has brought to Baltimore the freighter 151, which has been fitted for service between Baltimore and Love Point, where connection will be made with the railroad. The object is to give a nightly freight service, with the view of accommodating truckers by having their products delivered there early in the morning for market and for express by rail to interior points. The freighter's name has been changed to Bucyrus. She is 323 tons net and 97 feet long.

Asparagus growers will make their first shipments from the county next week if favorable weather conditions continue. Roger Williams, near Galena, owner of an 80-acre tillage, said to be the largest on the Eastern Shore, will have a large force of Bohemians who will handle the entire crop during the season. It is said that growers in the upper section of this county and nearby Delaware have completed hauling and packing arrangements this year whereby the profits from the crop will be substantially increased this year. Weather conditions and the drought practically ruined last year's crop. The crop now maturing promises an abuandant harvest.

HOSPITAL TO GRADUATE SIX NURSES SOON

Emergency Hospital Training School will graduate six within a month. The exercises will be at the Armory on May 12th at 8 o'clock in the evening. Dr. Harry Stein, of the University Hospital, Baltimore. will be the speaker.

The graduates are Miss Grace Ann Wright, of Chestertown; Miss Margaret Louise Tarr, of Centreville; Miss Ethel Kathereen Sheridan, of Trappe; Miss Mildred Elizabeth Diamond, of Easton; Miss Gertrude Marie Muller, of Easton; Miss Mary Ethel Arrington, of Centreville.

After the presentation of diplomas by Dr. McConnell, president of the Hospital, there will be a dance. These graduation exercises have been increasing in interest for several years the attendance being so large that quarters outside of the Hospital has been necessary to accommodate those who attend.

TONGERS' SEASON CLOSED WEDNESDAY

The season for oyster tongers closed Wednesday, April 15. Those having oysters on hand will be allowed ten days to dispose of them according to law. The season this year has been poor though the oysters have been excellent in quality and flavor but the price has not always held up. Most of the tonging bars in these waters are reported as being in good condition.

WHEN WASHINGTON WAS IN KENT COUNTY

By special invitation, the Old Kent Chapter, D. A. R. met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Page Gale on April 11th.

An interesting meeting was held with an unusually good representation of members present. The Regent, Mrs. Charles Skirven, Vice-Regent, Mrs. Wm G. Smyth, and Mrs. Wm. T. Brown having attended the State Conference in Baltimore, brought home to the chapter pleasing reports.

During refreshments the Daughters were served coffee from a very beautiful silver coffee pot, which was buried, for safe keeping, in the fire place during war of 1912. when the British came up to Rock Hall.

After one of the visits made by George Washington to Washington College, he had to wait at Rock Hall for a packet, and while waiting used a handsome table on which to write a letter. This table is another heir-loom treasured by Mr. and Mrs. Gale.

Woment students of Washington College have formed an honor society to which admission will be gained by virtue of high academic standing in studies and other college activities. Organizers are Misses Louise Crouse, Church Hill, Md.; Louise Bowen, Denton; Edith Rees, Chestertown; Louisa Mandrill, Carmichael; Elizabeth Mace, Cambridge; Elizabeth Hustek, Henderson; Katherine LeKites, Chincoteague, Va.; Mildred Covey, Chestertown; Marian Graham, Marion, Md., and Charlotte Holloway, Perryman, Md.
