LOCAL NOTES.....

Sheriff Vickers has planted flowers about the jail yard and along the back fence of court yard. Good.

I. Hollins advertises some beautiful dresses at low prices at his store in Millington.

Edw. V. Stockham, of Havre de Grace, has contracted for 100 acres of tomatoes in Turner's Creek Neck at 20 cents per basket.

The Dover Laundry wagon makes regular trips to Chestertown. This is house-cleaning time. They are anxious to assist you by cleaning your blankets, quilts, rugs and curtains. Phone Voshell House and the driver will call.

Two new bungalows are in course of erection on Tolchester Estates for Mr. Isaac's sons in Baltimore. A number of others are in contemplation. A. V. Clanton, 412 W. Mulberry street, Baltimore, is architect.

Residents on Washington Avenue, Chestertown, are improving properties. Bonwill Dukes is enlarging his house and other changes. W. R. Moody and Dr. J. S. W. Jones are planting ornamental hedges. Dr. Dana's new residence is showing progress.

The court house green has been put in splendid condition by a half dozen prisoners in Chestertown jail under the eye of Mrs. Susie Joiner, the janitress, and Sheriff Vickers. The prisoners enjoyed their liberty and spent a pleasant day doing good work. Keep it up.

"Who stole the pig" was a question in the mouths of Howard Pennington and friends last Saturday. Howard bought a lively pig home from a party in Queen Anne's, but when he awoke Saturday morning it could not be found. Some of his friends had played a joke on him by removing it.

The installation of a new six-inch water main on Cross street from High street to Maple avenue, will begin within the next ten days according to an announcement made by Charles S. Smith, superintendent of the Chestertown Water Department. The new pipe, the latest in cast iron water mains, will replace a three-inch main which has served the street for approximately forty-five years.

The Chestertown Volunteer Fire Company was called Friday night to Worton Station where an electric wire had ignited a tree and adjacent property was in danger. The firemen soon removed the trouble.

Wm. M. Culp's show window is admired. Earl Cooper deserves credit for the change.

A. L. Sterling has added a large plate glass to the interior of his drug store and changed counters so that the store looks larger.

Every night for almost seven weeks the automobile belonging to Harold Tappin, member of the Essex Hunt Club of Far Hills, N. J., was parked at the curb in front of the Wickes house on High street thruout the hours of darkness. Tuesday night Mr. Tappin retired to arise early for the return to his New Jersey home after the extended visit here. And that night, the final one for the auto to be parked here, someone stole the wheel, tire and tube from the rear of the machine.

Barnard Willson, Rock Hall insurance agent, is suffering from shock and minor cuts and bruises and William Caleman has injuries of the chest following a collision between a touring car driven by Willson, and a truck driven by Coleman between Fairlee and Rock Hall. The head-on impact almost wrecked the truck and badly damaged the car. Both received treatment at the office of Dr. Frank W. Smith at Fairlee. Willson said lights from the truck blinded him and that he lost control of his car.

Cars driven by Messrs. Hessey and Money collided on State road near town Saturday night. Both cars were damaged but no one was hurt.

Following the yearly Federal inspecion of the Medical Detachment First Maryland Infantry, here Tuesday night it is expected that a satisfactory rating will be given the local unit. The Federal inspection was made by Captain Herman L. Meyers, of the regular army. He was assisted by Col. John D. Markey, of the Maryland National Guard.

The local unit had a full attendance at the inspection. It is under the command of Major Frank B. Hines who is assisted by Sergeants Herman Blackway, Harvey Blyman and William Goodman.

R. Clarke Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Davis, of Chestertown, has been appointed an auxiliary clerk in the postoffice by Postmaster Wm. G. Smyth as the result of a recent civil service examination held here when 17 applicants took the test. By an act of the last Congress the hours of regular clerks and carriers were shortened in such manner as to require practically the entire time of an auxiliary clerk.

Leona Adams, colored, was arrested Thursday night at a Chestertown dance charged with stabbing Wm. Stewart.

FORD CAR RUNS OFF

L. A. Ward, of Rock Hall, sells fish from a Ford truck in Chestertown. Wednesday morning he stopped his car nearly opposite the Kent News office and was trying to make a sale when he noticed his car moving off down the street.

Taken by surprise it was a second or two before Mr. Ward could start in pursuit but once under way he gained steadily on the wandering machine. But just as he was about to leap to the running board to stop the runaway it halted as abruptly as it had started. The end of its flight, however, was not voluntary. It had crashed into the side of an automobile belonging to R. Clark Lavis and parked in front of the postoffice where Mr. Davis is an employee. The damage to both cars was slight.

HATCH FISH OUT BY MILLIONS

One million and a half yellow perch are ready at the State hatchery at Millington to be planted in streams of Maryland, according to experts there and by May 15, there will be three million shad hatching from eggs which have been set out in boxes at the hatchery.

One hundred boxes are ready in operation. Many of the yellow perch will be planted in the Sassafras river in the vicinity of Georgetown, Md. The hatchery was started four years ago with one million shad. This year at least five million shad will be produced.

Regular monthly meeting of the Del-Mar-Va Chiropractors Association was held in Laurel, Del. After dinner, with Dr. J. A. Wilker, of Laurel, as host, the meeting was called to order by the president, Dr. J. C. Wood, of Salisbury.

Annual election of officers was then held and the following were elected: Dr. Floyd Brougher, of Dover, president; Dr. J. A. Wilker, of Laurel, vice president; Dr. Robert Weygand, of Cambridge, secretary, and Dr. Thoedore Tobin, of Easton, treasurer.

Miss Virgie Matthews, Mr. John Matthews, Mrs. Jessie Blakeney, Mr. and Mrs. William Blakeney, Mrs. Mrs. William Reed, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Reed, Clarence Newsome, Mrs. Harry Fowler, Mrs. L. H. P. Vansant, Mrs. Frank Lamb, Miss Lena Vansant, and Miss Mayme Thompson attended the funeral of the former's brother, Stewart Matthews, which was held in Wilmington on Saturday morning last.

MINSTRELS NEXT WEEK

One hundred fifty girls and men will take part in the second annual minstrel show to be staged by the active membership of the local volunteer fire company in the Lyceum Theatre, April 20 and 21, including a score of talented Washington College singers and dancers, elementary school children and the male minstrel talent of Kent County.

Rehearsals are under direction of Miss Vivian O'Hallaran. An orchestra from the firemen's band, led by Director Arthur C. Bacon, will furnish music and W. Frazier Russell, Jr., local lawyer, will be the interlocutor.

Among the principal players already selected as a part of the cast will be the following: Misses Margaret Rasin, Helen Ragen, Charlotte Holloway, Louise Simpers, Alexine Robinson, Kathryn Collins, Dorothy Johnson, Marian Emmard, Lucy Bell, Ellen Flick, Elizabeth Cooper, Helen Smith, Henrietta Newnam, Katherine Baker, Geraldine Harwood, Margaret Ann Brown, Miriam Smith, Kathryn Anthony and Mabel Babcock and Robert Furman, David B. Ford, Robt. Fleetwood, Russell Orme, DeWitt Clarke, Charles Harris, Albert Giritis, Alfred Hodgson, Raymond Harris and James Nickerson.

Features of the first part will include an apache dance by D. B. Ford, Jr., and Miss Dorothy Johnson, a wedding number in which Miss Geraldine Harwood will appear as the bride and Charles Harris as the groom, and a quartet of male students from Washington College.

Taking part in the comedy sketches will be William G. Smyth, W. L. Fowler, Joe Lewis, Vernon Kirby, Charles Kirby, James Kirby, W. L. Flowers, Richard Collins and others.

The blackface end men parts will be handled by Freddie Fetter, Norman Sutton, Herbert Ward and Harry S. Russell. Soloists in the minstrel part will include Vernon Corey, Jack Stenger, E. Ellis Clark and Charles Harris. One of the numbers in the minstrel part will be a dance by a pony chorus.

The casting of the production of the revue has largely been under the supervision of Mrs. D. B. Ford, who with Mrs. W. E. Griffith, will act as accompanist for the production. The band will give a street concert each night prior to the performance.

Nearly 600 women are performing police duty in the United States.
