KENT COUNTY CHURCH NOTES

CHRIST FOR ALL—ALL FOR CHRIST

The Word of God

Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path.—Psalm 119: 105.

In the Sermon on the Mount, Jesus taught the absolute sincerity which God demands of those who would worgift to he altar, we must cleanse our gift; to the altar, we mnst cleanse ohr thoughts from all resentment, enmity, or astrangement; we must be reconciled to our brother before we can make the acceptable offering.—Christian Science Sentinel.

HAVE ALL GOOD—The young lions do lack and suffer hunger, but they that seek the Lord shall not want any good things.—Psalm 34:10.

PRAYER—Thou, O God, art the Source of every good gift.

Salem M. E. Church

Services as follows:

Sunday School at 10 Oclock, Weldon Walbert Supt, and is here-by urging all members of the school to be present on the 22nd, feeling that any society will do more and better things when all members take a part. He is aware of the fact that sickness has been a very great barrier to progess this winter, but now that spring is here, and we hope with spring, the absence of sickness, lets get busy says Brother Walbert. Preaching at Eleven we are looking for a big crowd these next three Sundays'. League Services at seven thirty, Wm. F. Leacerton 1st vice pesident will have charge in person, an interesting program will be for your enjoyment, and spiritual uplift. Dont fail to come out. If you were not present last Sunday evening you missed a very interesting service, led by Mrs. Morris Bramble, the evening was very much enjoyed by 56 persons, a record so far, good. Yes, but we are expecting better or larger numbers, fact is you will never know who will be at the meetings unless you are there, we want to see your smiling face at Church next Sunday. Service last Sunday evening was as follows, Music, reading by leader, Songservice, Prayer by Mrs. J. Leaverton, an interesting talk by the leader, Hymns and their Religious values. Song, talk by Mrs. P. Bigelow, The meaning of Jesus. Pantomine O love that will not let me go, sung by Mrs. Wm. F. Leaverton, The Cross, draped in white was supported by Miss Virginia Miller and Gertrude Leaverton while Miss Nellie Lee beautifully depicted love, refusing to let the loved one go. Mr. Dickerson of Washington College then spoke, Song, A beautiful reading by Mrs. Weldon Walbert, The Masters Question. Pantomine, Rock of ages, Miss Gertrude Leaverton, sung by Miss Helen Smith. You will sooner or later be coming to these meetings, why linger, why not start with the 22nd? To our mutual friend F. L. Elliott, President of the League, we are all indebted for such a wonderful interest.

MANY CHANGES AT CONFERENCE

Although at the present indications point to few changes in the pastorates at the next session of the Wilmington M. E. Conference, opening in Asbury Church, Crisfield, Md., on April 8th, now that invitations are being sent and accepted others may follow soon.

The Rev. R. T. Thawley, of Cecilton, Md., is being mentioned as a possible successor to the Rev. J. R. Bicking, who has accepted an invitation to Berlin, Md. Mr. Thawley is also mentioned for New Castle, to succeed the Rev. T.R. Van Dyke is said to be slated for Princess Anne, Md., to succeed the Rev. H. G. Budd, who has announced his intention of retiring at the next conference session.

The Rev. L. E. Wimbrow, assistant pastor of Grace M. E. Church, who recently accepted an invitation to the church at Pocomoke City, may not be sent there and that the Rev. E. H. Dashiell, of Delmar, may be sent to Pocomoke City.

The Rev. John E. Parker, of Felton, is said to be considered for Princess Anne, Md., or New Castle, Del.

It is reported that the Rev. W. G. Harris, of Georgetown, Del., is slated for Cambridge, Md., and that the Rev. O. E. Jones, now pastor of the Cambridge Church, is down for Georgetown.

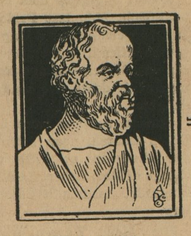

The Rev. W. E. Harrison, Jr., pastor of McCabe Church, unanimiusly invited last week to return for another year, it is stated, may be sen to Asbury Church, Salisbury, Md. and that the pastor of Asbury. Rev. Samuel McWilliams, may be sent to the McCabe Churrh.

The Rev. G. L. Withey, pastor of Union Church, Wilmington, may be transferred to another conference further north, as this climate does not agree with the health of his wife and one child.

TO REMAIN AT CENTREVILLE

At a special meeting of the Vestry of St. Paul's Parish called to meet at the office of the senior warden, Col. W. Hopper Gibson, Tuesday afternoon, the Rev. Alward Chamberlaine was requested to reconsider his resignation and remain rector of the parish. Mr. Chamberlaine stated that he would be very glad to do so, and announced his decision to this effect to the congregation at the special service in St. Paul's Centreville, on Tuesday afternoon.

DRIVE FOR MEMBERS

A State-wide drive for membership has been authorized by George Henderson Department Commander of Maryland. The American Legion, and is actively under way in the vicinity where the various Legion Posts are concentrating in an effort to gain 5,000 additional members by March 31

There are 35,000 eligible veterans in State. Until recently the Fort Cumberland Post, Cumberland, boasted of the largest enrollment in Maryland, but its figures have been surpassed by the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Post of Baltimore, which has conducted an active membership campaign. Another large Post is the Francis Scott Key Post, of Frederick, while the largest on the Eastern Shore is the Dorchester Post, of Cambridge.

Legion officials want it distinctly understood that service abroad is not necessary for Legion membership. There is no distinction whatever between those ex-service men who went to France and those whose orders called for service on this side. Both classes are equally welcome, and they will find that military rank is taboo within the Legion where all service men meet on the same level as loyal Americans.

Men who served in the Navy are equally desirable as members as their brethren of the Army. Comrades from the Marine Corps will find a warm welcome.

George Henderson, State Commander of the Legion, is convinced that there are hundreds of veterans in Maryland who are not fully acquainted with the privileges to which they are entitled.

The State Membership Committee is composed of Harlan Johnson, Chairman, Baltimore; Bushrod R. Watts, First Vice-Chairman, Baltimore Ralph E. Little, Second Vice-Chairman, Baltimore; and Walter L. Brice, Baltimore; Robert H. Archer, Belair; Franklin Ankeny, Cumberland; C. B. Greenwell Jr., Leonardtown; Alex Grier, Salisbury; Lee Gill Chestertown, and Emory R. Cole, Baltimore.

Chestertown M. E. Church

Rev. J. Harry Wright, Minister.

Sunday services will be as follows:

10.00 A. M. Church school, J. S. Kreeger, superintendent. The lesson theme for the senior department will be "Temperance and Self-Control."

11.00 A. M. morning worship service. The vested choir will present special music at this service. The pastor will preach a sermon on the subject "What Men Live By." The subject of this sermon will be "Religion."

6.30 P. M. Fellowship hour for the young people in the social hall. Those who plan to be present are requested to notify Alfred Hodgson, the chairman of arrangements for this meeting.

7.30 P. M. Missionary Anniversary program for the church school. The program will be conducted in the church school room, by Mrs. Walter Bramble, the president of the Missionary Department. A feature of this program will be some stereopticon slides shown by the pastor. The work of our Foreign and Home Missions will be illustrated with these slides.

Wednesday evening at 7.30, prayer and praise service in charge of the pastor.

Thursday evening, 7.30, monthly meeting of Crusader's Group at the church.
