SEEK 'FIREBUG' AT CRUMPTON

Kent and Queen Anne's County police, together with officials of the State Fire Marshal's office, are looking for an alleged firebug who is believed to have spread coal oil on the first floor of the residence of William R. Bowers, Crumpton and set fire to it after having knocked in a window glass and entered the house Monday night, March 9. Millington fireman were called to the scene the following morning on another alarm and found a chicken house in the rear of the dwelling ablaze and though it burned to the ground, several other chicken houses were saved.

The oil with which the residence was saturated on the first floor burned off and did little damage.

It is believed the outbuiling was fired in the same manner. The owner, who sent in the call for aid, is at a loss to know who the alleged culprit is or what was his motive. An investigation this week has convinced police that the fire was deliberately started.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of dear husband and father, Harry William Burke who fell asleep on March 11th, 1929.

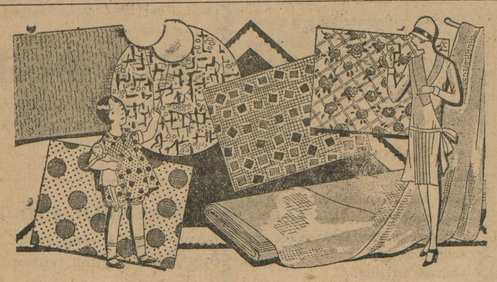

You suffered hours, yes, hours of pain,
To wait for cure but all in vain,
Till God alone knew what was best.
He called you home to give you rest,
We often sit and think of you and speak of how you died.
To think you could not say good-bye
Before you closed your eyes.
By his loving wife and childre
Julia B. Burke.
