Established 1877.

J. E. HENDRICKSON & CO.,

There have been times when the wild beasts have been more merciful than human beings, and spared the woman cast to them in the arena. It is astonishing how little sympathy women have for women. In the home the mistress sees the maid with the signs of suffering she recognizes so well, but she does not lighten the sick girl's load by a touch of her finger. In the store the forewoman sees the pallor and exhaustion which mark womanly weakness, but allows nothing for them. It is work or quit.

Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription makes weak women strong and sick women well, by curing the womanly diseases which undermine the health and sap the strength. "Favorite Prescription" establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration, and cures female weakness.

"When I first commenced using Dr. Pierce's medicine," writes Mrs. George A. Strong, of Gansevoort, Saratoga Co., N. Y. "I was suffering from female weakness, a disagreeable drain, bearing-down pains, weak and tired feeling all the time. I dragged around in that way for two years, then I began taking your medicine. After taking the first bottle I began to feel better. I took four bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, two of 'Golden Medical Discovery,' one vial of the 'Pleasant Pellets,' also used one bottle of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. Now I feel like a new person. I can't thank you enough for your kind advice and the good your medicine has done me."

"Favorite Prescription" makes weak women strong, sick women well. Accept no substitute for the medicine which works wonders for weak women.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are the most desirable laxative for delicate women.

Guessing Matches That Find Favor With Enterprising Hostesses.

Something new in entertainments is always welcomed by the hostess who is planning to keep "open house." The two plans here given have been tried with success, and they are adapted to groups of persons of various ages. The musical entertainment does not require musicians to play it, as the knowledge of music needed is such as almost every person possesses.

Here are a few sample questions which will serve to show the general character of the first contest:

What miss is alone? Amiss.

What miss was at fault? Remiss.

What miss met with disaster? Misfortune.

What miss went astray? Mislead.

What miss sent a letter? Missive.

What miss had little faith? Mistrust.

A melancholy miss. Misanthrope.

Other words may be used in this same manner. Those ending in "Kate," as indicate, delicate, masticate, are readily made out; and there are still other endings equally good.

The second entertainment might be termed a musical comedy. The hostess requests each guest to carry or wear some article, which shall represent a musical term. Some of the guests at an entertainment of this kind wore or carried the following:

HOW JIM SIMPSON PAID OFF THE DEBT.

This anecdote, told by the late Zebulon B. Vance, at one time governor of North Carolina and afterward United States senator, has just reached the North.

He was seated in his office one day when an old negro, one of his "charity" clients, came in. Taking off his hat the old man scraped his feet and bowing very obsequiously said:

"Good mornin', Marse Zeb; how is you an' de Mistis dis mornin'?"

"Quite well, thank you, Romulus. How are you this mornin'?"

"So's to be about, thank de Lord, but I still got a little misery."

"Well, Romulus, you are always complaining, but what can I do for you this mornin'?"

"Dat's jest what I came to see you 'bout sah. You know dat trifling nigger Jim Simpson doan you?"

"Oh, yes; certainly I know Jim. But what's he done to you?"

"Dat's jest hit, Marse Zeb; dat's jest hit; he ain't done nothin', dat's de trouble; dat nigger been owin' me ten dollars for nigh onto five or six year, an' he ain't never pay me nair cent, not nair cent, sah."

"Well, have you ever asked him for it, Romulus?"

"Ax him for it? Cose I axed him for it, and dat's how come I come to you."

"Well, when was the last time you asked him for it?"

"Yistiddy, sah; jest as the sun was goin' down."

"Well, you say he didn't pay you?"

"No, sah; 'deed he didn't. An dat's jest 'tactly how come I come to see you."

"Well, as he didn't pay you, what did he say; what excuse did he give?"

"Marse Zeb, dat nigger count, tiffin nigger say he done been owin' me dat money so long, sah, dat de intrust done eat it all up, an' he didn't owe me nair cent sah, not a nair cent."—New York Times.

A VALUABLE MEDICINE.

For Coughs and Colds in Children.

"I have not the slightest hesitancy in recommending Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to all who are suffering from coughs or colds," says Chas. M. Cramer, Esq., a well known watch maker, of Colombo, Ceylon. "Has been some two years since the City Dispensary first called my attention to this valuable medicine and I have repeatedly used it and it has always been beneficial. It has cured me quickly of all chest colds. It is especially effective for children and seldom takes more than one bottle to cure them of hoarseness. I have persuaded many to try this valuable medicine, and they are all as well pleased as myself over the results." For sale by M. A. Toulson, druggist, Chestertown Md.

WORTH $300,000,000.

The President of a certain big Oil Company is said to be worth $300,000,000. A tidy bit of money and no mistake. And yet he isn't happy. In an address to the class he spoke of trials and troubles of the rich and the loads they have to carry. A young lady whispered to a friend that he might wear a Benson's Porous Plaster on his back or, better still, divide the money among the members of the class. I don't know why her idea about the plaster makes me want to laugh, but it does. All the same I have seen plenty of people laugh after putting Benson's Plasters on their backs or chests, or on any other spot where there was weight, heaviness, weakness or pain. It may be the sharp stabs of neuralgia, the aches and wrenches of rheumatism; it may be colds in muscles or bones; it may be those kidney or lumbago thrusts that make you yell as at a dog bite; or it may be a strain or cramp, anything that wants quieting and comforting. Don't bother with salves, liniments, lotions, etc., or with any of the stupid and useless old style plasters. Clap on a Benson's. It relieves at once and cures quickly. It stops the pain and makes you laugh for the very ease and good feeling of it. But watch out against imitations and substitutes. All druggists, or we will prepay postage on any number ordered in the United States on receipt of 25c. each.
