Mr. J. Thomas McIntyre will have, when finished, one of the prettiest residences in Kent county.

Mrs. Sophia Hurtt is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. Frank Woodside, of New York.

Mr. Stafford, blacksmith at Mr. W. A. Hyland's large foundry, was painfully hurt last week while shoeing a wild, unruly horse.

Mr. W. A. Hyland, who sells the Deer and Black Hawk corn planters, has sold out and finds it impossible to get more, the demand in other States being so great that the house can not manufacture them fast enough.

The ladies of the M. E. Church surprised their pastor, Mr. Shipman, and family, last Monday night by giving a donation at the parsonage. The crowd began to gather at eight o'clock and at ten the house was packed to its utmost capacity. Members of the Locust Grove and Sassafras M. E. Church were also present. Music was furnished by Miss Edna, charming daughter of the pastor. Young and old indulged in games which made it an evening long to be remembered. The preacher said he enjoyed it beyond mention and thanked one and all for their generosity. At 9.30 a duet was sung by Miss Edna Shipman and her brother, Willard, the former singing soprano and the latter, baritone. At ten p. m. those present were led in prayer by the pastor after which was sung "Blest be the tie that binds."

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Davis and son, Mr. and Mrs. Sheppard, Mrs. Townsend and Miss Alice, of Sassafras; Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Hill and daughter, Miss Hettie; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Dukes, Miss Lillian Powell, Mr. Wm. H. Kelley, Sam'l Comley and Mr. Truitt, of Locust Grove; Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Dempsey, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Hayes, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hicks, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Messrs. Raymond Sparks, Wm. Tarbutton, Robt. Shalcross, L. J. Hayes, Harry Vansant, Wm. Folks, Dan Steel and Arthur Hyland. At 10.30 the crowd left for their respective homes wishing the pastor a prosperous year.

No Loss Of Time.

I have sold Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for years, and would rather be out of coffee and sugar than it. I sold five bottles of it yesterday to threshers that could go no further, and they are at work again this morning.—H. R. Phelps, Plymouth, Oklahoma. As will be seen by the above, the threshers were able to keep on with their work without losing a single day's time. You should keep a bottle of this Remedy in your home. For sale by M. A. Toulson.

MASSEY ITEMS.

One of the most pleasant social dances of the season was given by the young men of Massey and Millington to their lady friends in the town hall, Millington, last Tuesday evening. The hall was tastefully trimmed for the occasion with flags and bunting, and an orchestra of three pieces furnished superb dance music during the evening. At midnight coffee and sandwiches were served, after which dancing was resumed and continued until the wee sma' hours.
