ELECTION CONTESTS.

Petitions of Contestants Being Considered by the Court—The Cecil Cases.

Chief Judge James A. Pearce arrived in town on Saturday afternoon but did not hear argument in the Kent County election contests. Messrs. M. de K. Smith, R. D. Hynson, L. W. Wickes and W. V. Beck, counsel for the Democratic contestants, filed their petitions and answers. The papers were not to be taken away by Judge Pearce but have since been forwarded to him at Easton. After consultation with Judges Martin and Brown, it is expected that Judge Pearce will announce the decision of the court.

As yet the taking of testimony has not been ordered and no argument has been heard.

THE CECIL CASES.

The work of examining the ballots cast aside at the November election in the several election districts and precincts of Cecil county, was completed before Magistrate Philip M. Groves, on Tuesday. Under the ruling of the court copies were to have been made of all ballots objected to by either the contestants or contestees. This was found to be such tedious work that counsel for either side agreed to ask the court to examine the original objected ballots.

At the last election there were about six thousand ballots cast in the different districts of Cecil county. According to the idea of counsel for the contestants and contestees at least one half, if not more, of the voters made some mistake in marking their tickets. There were 2,957 tickets objected to by either side, notwithstanding the ballot boxes in two of the districts were not opened.

This wholesale objection, however, reached a climax on Tuesday, when the ninth district ballot boxes were opened. It was found that the Judge of Election in that district, had signed his initials with an indelible lead pencil, instead of with ink, according to the law. Counsel for the Democratic contestees as soon as they discovered the alleged error, thereafter objected to every straight Republican ticket. Counsel for Republican contestants, Messrs. Spence, Christie and Terry, are of the opinion that the signature is legal, and therefore they did not object to any ballots on the ground of lead pencil signature.

Altogether the counsel for Republican contestants objected to 1,510 ballots, and the Democratic contestants' counsel objected to 1,447 ballots.

No Loss Of Time.

I have sold Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for years, and would rather be out of coffee and sugar than it. I sold five bottles of it yesterday to threshers that could go no further, and they are at work again this morning.—H. R. Phelps, Plymouth, Oklahoma. As will be seen by the above, the threshers were able to keep on with their work without losing a single day's time. You should keep a bottle of this Remedy in your home. For sale by M. A. Toulson.

SOCIAL PLEASURES.

The C. C. C.'s Elegantly Entertain Their Friends at a Dance on the Banks of the Chesapeake.

The C. C. Club, the social organization of the second district, entertained its friends most delightfully at a dance at the Chesapeake House, Betterton, on Friday evening of last week. Music was furnished by McCauley's orchestra consisting of piano, violin and cornet. At about midnight refreshments were served. By common consent the night was all too short for the revelers and not until great Sol had risen above the Eastern hills did mine hosts and their guests say good bye.

Among those present were: Miss May and Albert Tatman, Middletown, Del.; Misses Julia Deshaene, Winnie Price and Mamie Jones, Cecil county; Miss Mamie Turner, Fort Worth, Texas; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Roseberry and daughter, Baltimore, and Miss Nellie Earickson, Baltimore; Misses Katie and Fannie Woodall, Georgetown; Mrs. Sophia S. Hurt, Jesse Ireland and W. A. Hyland, Jr., Galena; Samuel Hurlock and Stephen Ford, Massey; Misses Eva Comegys and Evelyn Cochran, Millington; Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Deringer, Mrs. Edward Comegys, the Corners; Miss Edson, Edmond Hurt and Herbert Edson, Locust Grove; Mr. and Mrs. John M. Comegys, Mr. and Mrs. Allie Pearce, Misses Susie Sutton and Lula Crow, Walter Crow and William Graves, Blacks; Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wallis, Mrs. William A. Kennedy and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kennedy, Miss Lizzie Pennington, Mr. and Mrs. John Cleandaniel, Philip G. Wilmer, Edward Wallis, Harry Kennedy, Kennedyville; Harry C. Price and wife, Edward W. Hepbron and daughters, Charles H. Price, wife and daughter; Mrs. Lula Hepbron, Mrs. C. H. Schuyler, Miss Grimes, Mr. Davis and sisters, J. B. Parrott, Howard Turner, George and Howard Parrott, Lou Aldrich, Harry Hendrickson, Maxwell Starkey, William and Edward Hepbron, Still Pond and Betterton; Mrs. J. B. Hossinger, Mrs. A. N. Staveley, Mrs. Elworth Howers, Lynch's, Wilbur Elison and William Bell, Chestertown; Miss Bertie Beck and brother, Fairlee; the Misses Strong, Julia and Anna Willson, Page and Elwood Strong, Edesville; Mr. Louis Somers, Loudon Co., Va., Sterling Evans, Queen Annes, and Edward B. Pennington, Talbot county.

MILLINGTON MATTERS.

Mrs. Mary A. Clough, widow of the late Caleb Clough, died at her residence in Sandtown, Friday, May 15th, of consumption, having been an invalid for several years, the dread disease making deeper inroads upon her system until she was compelled to keep her room and bed. Mrs. Clough was before marriage a Miss Case, was born in Delaware, October 15, 1836, and was in her 76th year. With her family, she moved to Millington in 1870, and had made this town her home ever since. Mrs. Clough was a faithful member of the M. E. Church of Millington, but for a long time she had been unable to attend the services on account of her impaired health. She leaves four sons and one daughter: Messrs. Charles Clough, of Church Hill; N. D. Jerry, Comegys and Miss Kate, of Millington. Her funeral took place Sunday afternoon from her late residence conducted by Rev. J. D. Kemp; interment in Millington cemetery.

Mr. John W. Smith, one of the oldest residents of our town, died at the home of his son, Mr. J. L. Smith, Saturday, May 17th. Three years ago Mr. Smith suffered a stroke of paralysis, but recovered sufficiently to go about. Three weeks ago he suffered another stroke, causing his death. Mr. Smith was born September 23th, 1817, near Harrington, Del., where he lived for 48 years. In 1840 he married Miss Mary B. Taylor, of Farmington, Del. In 1862 he enlisted in the 6th Delaware regiment and was elected 2nd Lieutenant. In 1863 he was to service at Havre de Grace, also at Fort Delaware. In 1883 he retired from farm life and moved to Harrington, where he and his wife lived until 1897, when they came to Millington to make their home with their son. Mrs. Smith died in 1899. Mr. Smith was a consistent member of the Baptist church, of Harrington, since his early manhood, and was a deacon for twenty-five years, and took an active interest in all the services of the church until his removal from that place. His life was such as to win respect and love from both old and young, always pleasant and cheerful. Seven children survive him, Messrs. J. L., of Millington; S. J., of Easton; J. H. Merriken, of Hobbs, Md.; Mrs. M. M. Jones, of Philadelphia; Mrs. L. W. Spence, of Dewey, Indian Territory; Mrs. Z. T. Jester, of Philadelphia, and Mrs. John B. Hurlock, near Millington. Funeral services were held at his son's home, where he died, Tuesday morning, May 20th, conducted by the Rev. J. D. Kemp, pastor of the M. E. church, and Rev. Wm. Warner. Interment in Millington cemetery.

Mr. J. Clifton Mallalieu, with the firm of Charles F. Hubbs & Co., New York, and Miss Mary Edna Lloyd of Danville, Pa., were married at that place Tuesday, May 20th. They are now on a tour of three weeks through the South. Mr. Mallalieu is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Mallalieu, of our town.

Miss Eva Harrington, of Sudlersville, spent several days this week with Mrs. Clarence Bradley.

Mr. J. P. Ahern and daughter, Miss Ruby, spent Wednesday in Wilmington.

Mr. J. C. Vansant spent several days in Wilmington this week and on Wednesday had the pleasure of witnessing Buffalo Bill's Wild West Show.

Misses Clara Bryan and Gertrude Turner spent Saturday and Sunday with friends in Philadelphia.

GRAIN MARKET FURNISHED

BY STEVENS BROTHERS,

226 South Charles Street, Baltimore, Md., GRAIN AND FRUIT

Commission Merchants, Members Chamber of Commerce.

THURSDAY'S QUOTATIONS.

Wheat.—The market for southern wheat today was easier, in sympathy with Western. Receipts moderate and demand constant for wheats of desirable quality. Sales today of a cargo of 3,200 bushels by sample at 86½ cents, and of a smaller lot, not so good, at 85 cts. Quote graded No. 2, red at the close nominally at 86½ cents, all day.

Western yesterday afternoon was dull and easy. July 79@79½. Sales 50,000 May, 80½.

Foreign markets were generally lower. Corn.—The arrivals of southern corn today were light and confined exclusively to white, on which variety the market holds up well. Tone steady generally. Sales of white, by sample, at 68 and 68½ cents, up-town. No yellow offered—latter worth about 67@67½ cents AFLOAT.

Demand good for prime corn of both colors. Oats.—Offering of this commodity have been a shade freer and as the consumption of cob corn at this season of the year is rather limited, it takes comparatively few cars now to go 'round. Quote carloads prime yellow on spot at $3.35 per bbl.

Western yesterday afternoon was easier. July, 66½.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

Hargreaves' Big Railroad Shows soon to exhibit here. These artists will appear in acts that have never before been attempted, acts so novel in their conception and so daring in their execution that they thrill the spectators and hold their close and almost breathless attention. Hargreaves' Big Shows now on the sixth annual tour, is replete with features that are certain to astonish and please all who patronize the two performances that will be given each day of its stay in this place. Will exhibit at Chestertown, Wednesday, May 28, two performances, afternoon and evening, 2 and 8 p. m.

Mr. Joseph Guest, of this town, requests us to say that the looked for carload of American Field and Hog Fence arrived yesterday and is now being unloaded.

RUN YOUR OWN LIGHTING PLANT.

Do not lose sight of the fact that we sell a Gas Lamp, not an oil lamp.

The burners are on the same principle as the Welsbach lights on the coal-gas pipes of our cities; in fact, the Nodde lamps are Welsbach lights making their own gas as needed, so that you run your own lighting plant, and are thus independent of excessive corporation bills or trust rates.

This system of lighting is unquestionably the best and most economical now known to the world.

The "gravity" lamps cost one-fourth cent per hour for 100 c. p. of light. The "pressure" lamps one-half cent per hour for 750 c. p. of light. Electric lights the same or higher.

Note this great difference between these systems, and if you are wise you will send for catalogue and run your own lighting plant.
