LOCAL MATTERS.

Sale of Valuable Farm Lands.—On next Tuesday will be offered at public sale the five valuable farms, comprising 1336 acres belonging to the estate of the late Thomas Stockton Wickes. In this large lot of land Lewin W. Wickes, trustee, will offer some of the finest real estate in Kent county. All of it is desirably located and in a high state of cultivation.

Capt. Walmsley Arrested.—Officer Mark Hagan, of Baltimore, came to Chestertown and on Monday took Capt. James Walmsley, of Rock Hall, to Baltimore, to face a charge of having been a party to producing an abortion. Capt. Walmsley is well known in the lower section of the county and his friends claim that he will be able to clear himself of any suspicion of the crime charged.

Tank and Pump Purchased.—The board of town commissioners have purchased the engine, tank and pump for Chestertown's sprinkler water supply. The new equipment will be located on Burchinal's wharf, with a pipe extending out to the current so that absolutely pure water may be obtained. Just as soon as possible the new water plant will be at work and the sprinkler in operation.

Real Estate Sales.—Auctioneer John H. Greenwood on Tuesday sold for W. W. Beck, trustee, the 20 acre property belonging to the estate of the late Thos. E. Cooper, at Goose Hill. Mr. Robert N. Boston was the purchaser at $400. Mr. Boston will turn the property into a chicken farm, for which it is admirably adapted. Auctioneer Greenwood on Tuesday sold for M. deK Smith, trustee, a house and lot in Millington to Mr. F. A. Emory, for $405.

The Rigbie to Open.—Hotel Rigbie, at Betterton, will formally open for the present season to-night. Mr. Howard Turner, the proprietor, and Mr. George R. Crew, manager, have made every arrangement to make the opening of 1902 a delightful social affair. A band of music will be on hand and it is proposed that every one present shall enjoy themselves. Those splendid meals, remembered by so many guests at the Rigbie from last year, will be in vogue during the present summer.

Still Pond Farmers' Club.—The Still Pond Farmers' Club held its last meeting before adjourning for the season, at Mr. E. B. Pennington's, on Thursday. At some date during the summer the members of the club will take their annual summer outing. It is expected that they will visit Gettysburg this year. The fruit and wheat outlook was fully discussed at Thursday's meeting, but awaiting the result of the "June drop," which is now on, it was impossible to forecast with any degree of certainty.

Paid out $517,000.—Messrs Bird M. Robinson and Randolph Barton, receivers of the Baltimore Building and Loan Association, on Saturday distributed the dividends to the stockholders of the association. The amount distributed is $517,000, and the number of dividends is between $5,000 and $6,000. The first dividend is 3 1/2 per cent. The dividends to the stockholder in Kent will be received in due time, and while the amount is comparatively small, it is decidedly better than nothing.

Still Pond Hall Sold.—William Medders, of William Medders & Co., of Still Pond, has purchased the Still Pond town hall of the Still Pond Hall Company. Mr. Medders, as stated in the Transcript last week, purchased the entire stock of goods of W. E. Sanders & Co., bankrupts, at Kennedyville. This necessitated additional room, and when this hustling firm wants room or goods they usually get them, and acting along this line, the big hall at Still Pond has been purchased for the big sale of bankrupt stock announced in another column of this issue, and for future use in the constantly growing business of William Medders & Co.

Locusts Abundant.—A box of 17 year locusts has proven an object of considerable interest to visitors to the Transcript office this week. The little sons of Mr. William B. Wilmer caught the insects and presented them to the Transcript editors. Reports from different sections of the county are to the effect that locusts are numerous but in no case so far has any injury either to fruit trees or other crops been mentioned. Street Cleaning Commissioner Iglehart, of Baltimore, says he has eaten locust pie, but he is not enthusiastic over it as a dish. "It was during the last visit of the locusts, 17 years ago, when I was at college at Union University, Schenectady, N. Y.," he said. "I did not know I was eating locusts—in fact, I do not think I should have done so if I'd known it." Some of the other fellows had fixed up a job on me. It wasn't so bad, though. The locusts were fixed up with potatoes and other things, and treated like frogs' legs. That was the first and last time I have eaten locusts, and I shan't do it this year if I know it."

OBITUARY.

MRS. AGNES BOYER.

This estimable lady departed this life on Sunday last, after a long illness from Bright's disease. Mrs. Boyer was the devoted wife of Mr. Stephen Boyer, who survives her. For more than half a century they had trodden life's path together, and no man and wife were more devoted to each other. She was born in Cumberland county, Pa., her maiden name being Adams, and was married fifty years the 20th of April. She had been in poor health for the last fifteen years and very feeble for the past two years. She had been a devoted member of the Protestant Episcopal Church some 25 years and was a true Christian woman. She was in the 75th year of her age. She leaves a sadly bereaved husband and many warm friends to mourn her death. The funeral services took place Tuesday afternoon at 1 o'clock, her pastor Rev. W. J. Wilkie, officiating, assisted by Rev. Albert Ware, her former pastor, of Masses, Md., and Rev. F. H. Moore, D. D. of Forest Presbyterian Church. The funeral was a very large one, the interment being in the homestead burying grounds, near Masses, Md. The following were the pall-bearers: Wm. R. Cochran, Joseph Biggs, D. J. Nowland, Samuel B. Ford, Joshua Clayton and Thomas E. Hurn.

MRS. ELIZABETH A. JONES.

Mrs. Elizabeth A. Jones, wife of Mr. Phineas H. Jones, of near Sassafras, died on Saturday evening last just as the sun was setting, a fitting tribute to her useful and consistent christian life, aged nearly 62 years. Mrs. Jones had been in failing health for some time, but was confined to her bed only about ten days; although a sufferer, her last days were apparently without pain, as she just slept herself into her future home. She was an active and consistent member of the M. P. Church, and will be greatly missed from among its members. She leaves a devoted husband and three children, Mrs. Frederick VanSant, of Wilmington, and two sons, Bayard and Edgar, who live at home, to mourn her death. The funeral services were held on Tuesday afternoon at the M. P. church, her pastor, Rev. J. McLean Brown, assisted by the Rev. Mr. Shipman, pastor of the M. E. Church, officiating. The cortege was one of the largest seen in this neighborhood for many years, the church not holding all the friends who assembled to pay their last tribute of respect and love. The following acted as pall-bearers: Harry L. Shepherd, James D. Davis, Louis P. A. well, Robert S. Griffith, W. H. Spiry and Frank Sylvester.—New Era.

DIOCESAN CONVENTION.

Bishop Adams Makes Interesting Report—Next Meeting at Chestertown.

The thirty-fourth annual convention of the Diocese of Eastern assembled in Trinity Protestant Episcopal Church, Elkton, on Tuesday morning, with Bishop William Forbes Adams presiding. The other officers are: Rev. Edward R. Rich, Easton, secretary; Rev. E. B. Adkins, Easton, assistant secretary; Hon. James Alfred Pearce, Chestertown, chancellor of the diocese; Rev. L. B. Baldwin, Easton, registrar of the diocese; William H. Adkins, Easton, treasurer; Henry Holliday, Jr., Easton, treasurer of the Diocesan Clergy Relief Fund.

The session opened with the convention sermon by Rev. C. T. Denoche, of St. Paul's, after which the convention took up its business.

Bishop Adams at the night session delivered his annual address to a large congregation. In reviewing the year he said that parishes had been well supplied and faithfully served. Chesapeake City alone has been vacant. He spoke of the deaths that had occurred in the diocese in the course of the year and paid a high tribute to the memories of Hon. George M. Rasmus, Dr. John C. Earle, W. H. Haddaway and Dr. R. C. Mackall. He said there had been a falling off in the number of candidates for confirmation, but that he was fully aware of the fact that the material is limited, and that a large class one year is apt to be followed by few or none the next year.

Bishop Adams stated in his address that the principal business to transact at this session, besides strictly diocesan affairs, was the apportionment project and just how to meet the demands made upon this diocese by the New York Board of Missions.

During the year 17 parishes received help to the extent of $1,701.33, and the principal business to transact at this session, besides strictly diocesan affairs, was the apportionment project and just how to meet the demands made upon this diocese by the New York Board of Missions.

During the year improvements of considerable note have been made by Rev. J. Gibson Gantt on a new church at Ocean City, Md., which will be a beautiful addition to the churches of the diocese. The mortgage of $1,100 on the church has been reduced to $350.

The clerical delegates from Kent were: Dr. Henry B. Martin, of Chestertown; Rev. Chris. T. Denoche, of St. Paul's, and I. U.; Rev. Albert Ware, of Masses, and Rev. Samuel Edson, of Shrewsbury. The lay delegates were: Dr. W. Frank Hines, of Chestertown; E. Thomas Massey, of Masses; Edward W. Hepburn, of Masses; Philip G. Wilmer, Locust Grove; Thomas W. Skirven, Fairlee.

The convention closed on Wednesday evening to meet next year in Chestertown. The following officers of the diocese were elected:

Secretary, the very Rev. Edward R. Rich, Easton; assistant secretary, Rev. G. B. Adkins, Easton; chancellor of the diocese, Hon. James Alfred Pearce, Chestertown; registrar, Rev. L. B. Baldwin, Easton; treasurer, Rev. William H. Adkins, Easton; treasurer of the board of diocesan missions, Henry Holliday, Jr., Easton; treasurer diocesan clergy relief fund, Edgar B. Hurdcastle, Easton; board of missions, Revs. L. B. Baldwin, T. Carter Page, H. C. Parkman, Messrs. M. T. J. E. Hines, Henry Holliday, Jr., standing committee, Rev. James A. Mitchell, Rev. William Schouler, Rev. Alger non Batte, Rev. W. Y. Bevan, Rev. David Howard; trustees of the Episcopal fund, Hon. William R. Martin, W. H. Adkins and J. C. Henry.

Bishop Adams appointed Rev. Giles B. Cooke, of Marlborough, dean of the Northern convocation; Rev. David Howard, of Trappe, dean of the Middle convocation, and Rev. F. B. Adkins, of Easton, dean of the Southern convocation.

W. C. T. U. NOTES.

A county executive meeting of the W. C. T. U. was held at the home of Mrs. S. M. Usilton, on Tuesday, June 3. A special co-operative committee was appointed consisting of Mrs. H. B. Simmons, Miss A. R. Stewart and Miss Mary Burchinal. Miss Anna Leaverton reported greater interest exhibited in the slushwork. Hereafter there will be held two Sunday services instead of one each month. A Rev. C. K. Morris will take charge on the second Sunday of each month, the superintendent, Miss Anna Leaverton, conducting the exercises the other Sunday, as heretofore. Flower Mission Day, June 9, will be made a time of special interest. Mrs. Haslop, State President, will be present. Unions and friends to the cause are invited to be present and contribute flowers. PRESS SUPP.

FROM CHESTERTOWN.

A tenant house on Mr. Alday Clement's farm situated near the residence his residence, was consumed by fire Monday night. The occupants, Joe Pinkney and wife, colored, were temporarily absent.

We are pleased to state that Mrs. W. F. Jarrell has sufficiently recovered to be able to ride out, and that Mr. C. G. Carey has recovered.

Mrs. E. A. Crittenden has returned from Philadelphia with a supply of new goods.

Preparations are being made for Children's Day, which will be observed here Sunday week. From those who have the charge we are well assured of a very creditable entertainment.

The old M. E. Church has been sold to Messrs. Staley & Bowers. The proceeds will go to fixing up the cemetery grounds.

Mrs. Josephine Magee, of Woodbury, N. J., and Mr. Ed. Strahan, of Groton, Conn., have been visiting their mother, Mrs. Solloway. Mr. S. and son have lucrative positions in Groton. We wish them success.

A good rain would be a welcome visitor. OCCASIONAL.

In many instances attacks of cholera morbus terminate fatally before medicine can be procured or a physician summoned. The safe way is to keep at hand a reliable medicine for use in such cases. For this purpose there is nothing so sure as Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. W. E. Bosworth, of Lafayette, Ala., says: "In June 1900, I had a serious attack of cholera morbus and one dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy gave me relief in fifteen minutes." For sale by M. A. Toulson, druggist, Chestertown, Md.

Valuable Real Estate,

of which the late John Z. Clark died seized and possessed:

FARM NO. 1

"The MILLER FARM"

and lies about 1 mile from the village of Lynch's on the north side of the public road leading from Lynch's to I. U. Church, and contains about

183 ACRES

1 Road and 10 Perches

of land, more or less.

The soil is a rich medium loam, in good condition, yields well, and is especially adapted to the growth of peaches and fruits of all kinds. The farm is well fenced. The improvements consist of a good

THREE STORY Frame Dwelling

in excellent condition, a ten-horse Stable and barn capable of holding 1,000 to 1200 bushels of wheat and 1500 bushels of corn. The Barn and Stable are also in excellent condition, and in good repair. The tenant is Mr. William T. Clark, and he will take pleasure in showing this farm is sold subject to the right of way as laid down and described below for Farm No. 2.

FARM NO. 2

consists of all that farm called or known by the name of

"The TRULOCK"

—OR—

"Kilpatrick Farm."

It lies back of farm No. 1, and of land, more or less. The soil is from a light to medium sandy loam, of good natural quality, and is easily improved. The land will grow good crops of grain of all kinds, and is especially adapted to the growth of all kinds of fruit. The tenant is in fair condition, ample for the purposes of the farm. The Barn and Stable are in excellent condition, and the farm under good fencing. There are about ## 1000 Pear Trees.

HOUSE

Attention is called to the fact that the right-of-way which was advertised as belonging to this farm and affording an entrance by Mottet's Mill, is at present in a dangerous condition, the right-of-way, therefore, to be sold with this farm will run as follows: At the point of entrance as now used from the "Kilpatrick Farm," and running thence to the west side of the fence which runs from the side of the fence to a point back of the barn on said "Farm No. 1," thence at right angles in a westerly direction on the north side of the fence as now laid down to the line of the Jeremiah Miller Farm, and thence along the line of the said Jeremiah Miller's farm in a southerly direction on the east side of said fence to the public road leading from Lynch's to I. U., the said right-of-way to be 22 feet wide throughout its length and to be purchased or purchasers of the "Kilpatrick Farm" and any tenant or tenants thereof, whenever any of the fields on "Farm No. 1" or "The Miller Farm" are in pasture, shall always close the gates between said fields on Farm No. 1, crossing said right-of-way. It is intended by George Faulkner, who will take pleasure in showing it to any one who desires to inspect.

more or less, and is the same farm whereof John Z. Clark lived at the time of his death. The land is a medium loam, in a high state of cultivation and yields fine crops. It lies on the west side of the public road leading from Lynch's to Coleman's about 11 acres lying on the east side of said public road, of which 11 acres, 5 are arable, and the balance is well set in Chestnut and Oak. The farm has a large and commodious, in excellent condition. The stable is ample for the purposes of the farm. The barn is large and ample and each of these buildings is in excellent condition. The farm is well fenced, in a high state of cultivation, and is tenanted by Mr. Henry Clark.

These farms all adjoin one another. There is a fine stream of water, with hard bottom, running through them affording abundance of water for stock. Every field on "The Kilpatrick Farm" and on "The Home Farm," is watered by this stream, and three fields on Farm No. 1 are likewise so watered. This sale will afford a most excellent opportunity for anyone desiring land on which to raise stock to secure a desirable place for such purpose, the land of each farm being especially well adapted to the growth of all grasses and grazing. Each of the farms is well wooded with fine Chestnut and Oak timber, ample for the purposes of the farm. In a few years much of the chestnut will be of a size sufficient to place upon the market, thus adding a valuable asset to each farm.

Each of these farms lies conveniently to Villages, Churches, Schools, Post Office, mile from Railroad. This land affords a most desirable opportunity for one desiring a home or a safe and profitable investment. It is seldom that such fine estates have been placed on the market in Kent.
