BEAUTIFUL EXERCISES.

Children's Day Observed With Elaborate and Delightful Programs.

The observance of that, one of the most pleasant of the latter-day features of many churches, Children's Day, is being done with an elaborateness never surpassed in the history of these exercises. Beautiful, smiling childhood, with its witchery of song and speech, is vieing with the charm and beauty of summer blossoms in honoring the day.

IN CHESTERTOWN

The Chestertown M. E. Church was beautifully decorated on Sunday evening last with ferns, palms flowers; the congregation was large and everything conspired to make of the delightful occasion an unqualified success. The heart of every little participant was fairly bubbling over with enthusiasm and love; an atmosphere of christian zeal pervaded like sweet incense the temble of God.

The following program was most admirably rendered:

Anthem by Church choir, Dr. A. S. Hall, director, "Hosanna to the King."
Chorus.....Welcome Children's Day."
Frayer.....Mr. J. T. Anthony.

Chorus.....River of Eden"
Benediction.....

AT GRACE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

Grace Presbyterian church, Kennedyville, Rev. K. M. Bull, pastor, was never more beautiful than in its Children's Day decorations of palms and bright blossoms on Sunday. The flutter of dainty ribbons, the rustle of white dresses, and most fascinating of all, the smiles of happy children gave a crowning glory is the picture presented. The church was filled with the host of parents and friends of the little ones, and in justice to those having the training of the children in charge it must be said that every one was delighted, and that there were no disappointments.

The following was the program:

Song.....Praise the Lord"
Responsive Scripture

The handsome new organ presented by the Ladies Mite Society, was used for the first time.

AT STILL POND.

The consciousness of a splendid success made children and teachers, as well as the pastor and Superintendent of the Still Pond Sunday school, alike happy on Sunday. Miss Link, the popular teacher of the public school at Still Pond had the training of the children in charge, and to her of course is largely due the precision and beauty of the work of the enthusiastic little members of the Sunday school classes. There were no awkward breaks or hitches, but a delightful smoothness and beauty marked every feature of the following program:

Voluntary.....
Singing, "Praise the Lord".....School
Prayer.....by the Pastor
Chorus, "When the Roses Bloom".....School
Exercise, by six boys "We Would Shine for Jesus."
Solo and Chours by Mr. Pippin, "The Sweet Rose of Sharon."

Report of Collection by the Secretary.....
Closing Chorus, "Come Rejoicing".....School

AT ROCK HALL.

The Children's Day evercises in Rock Hall M. E. Church, on Sunday evening, were of a peculiarly joyous nature. The new church was decorated with an elaborateness rarely before attempted, and the program was most admirably carried out. Palms and cut flowers were conspicuous in the decorations, and a graceful arch and the banking of foliage plants gave an added charm to the altar and chancel decorations. The music was a delightful feature of the occasion. Mr. Joseph Downey, the efficient leader, was assisted by the following choir: Misses Mary Hersh, Maud Miller, Julia Middleton, Anna Leary, Clara Downey, Ethel Taylor, Millie Casey, Jessie and Lucretia Arthur, Mrs. Bessie Davis, Mrs. Lizzie Taylor, Mrs. Minnie Durding, William, Marion and Geo. Downey, Jack Joiner, Damon Rollison, Howard Taylor and Arther Anderson. Miss Nannie Taylor was organist.

Supt. J. A. Greenwood made a highly appropriate address. His son, Mr. Arthur Greenwood, assumed the active duties of superintendent on the occasion, and did splendidly.

The envelope collections amounted to $16.61, and the plate collections were $2.07. The school numbers 346 bright boys and girls.

AT WORTON.

Children's Day services were held in Union M. E. Church, Worton, on Sunday evening. The church was beautifully decorated with palms, ferns and summer blossoms. When the program opened the church was so crowded that standing room was impossible inside and many were forced to remain outside. Supt. B. F. Rash and the organist, Miss Florence Jewell, had the training of the children in hand and their success was manifested in the delightful way in which each participant acquitted his or herself. Miss Jewell had the vocal and instrumental music in charge. The music was a pleasing feature of the evening's exercises. The pastor, Rev. Mr. Poole, was well pleased with the collection of $27 00.

WORTON ITEMS.

Mrs. Sallie Ivens was taken very sick on Tuesday morning, but at this writing we are glad to report, is rapidly improving under the care of Dr. J. H. Hessey.

Mrs. Anna E. Crouch is visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. John A. Duyer, near Worton.

Mrs. Geo. N. Cooper spent several days of last week at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Wood, near Still Pond.

Miss Georgia Porter spent last week at the home of her friend, Mrs. John Burris, near Lynchs.

Miss Daisy Crew and friend, Miss Strong, of Baltimore spent Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Harriet Crew, near here.

Miss Lucy Crew has returned from Baltimore after having been absent about six weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. George Stevens, and little daughter, Vera, of Baltimore, spent several days last week at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Loller, at Buck Neck.

Mr. Jacob Kiker visited his parents and other relatives and friends here on Sunday last.

This, Saturday afternoon, the Melitota and Worton base ballists will cross bat on the Worton grounds. Last Saturdas Worton went to Kennedyville and sy rattled and confused did they becom that it was no trouble whatever for th Kennedyville boys to beat them. Boys, this will never do, collect your senes, and do not let every thing that comes along confuse you so that you give up in dispair, but keep right on, still thinking that you can and will win.

Children's Day was observed at the Union M. E. Sunday School last Sunday evening. The church was decorated with evergreens and beautiful cut flowers, and everywhere could be seen evidences of good taste and skill in the neat decorations. Seyeral pretty solos and duets were beautifully rendered, and all who took part in the services deserved that great praise should be given them, both the children and those who had charge of the training of them. When the collection plates were passed around a collection of $29.00 was given.

The Presbyterian Sunday School will hold their Children's Day Sunday evening, June 15. All are cordially invited to attend.

Mr. James W. Iyens is beautifying his residence by a handsome coat of paint.
