SATURDAY, JUNE 14, 1902.

SENATOR Matthew Stanley Quay, on Wednesday nominated his candidate for the governorship of the grand old State of Republican misrule—Pennsylvania.

THANKS are extended to Mr. Daniel Godwin Anderson for an invitation to the commencement exercises of Washington College, June 18, 1902.

SENATOR DOLLAR-MARK HANNA has discovered political valconoes on the political map. A Mount Pelee is awaiting the proper moment to smother the Hanna camp.

DR. BOSLEY, the professional Baltimore mosquito fighter, declares that city mosquitoes are altogether too much for a $3,000-campaign fund. The anti-mosquito $15,000 bar'l has been reduced to the absurd proportions of a $3,000 key.

WITH ITS ISSUE OF THURSDAY the Centreville Observer completed its thirty-eighth volume. Our esteemed contemporary has grown old so gracefully that none but those who are apprised of the fact would for a moment dream that it was not enjoying the flush of a young journalistic manhood. The Observer is one of the best papers in the State. A notable feature of its anniversary announcement is the statement that commencing with its next issue the paper will come out on Friday morning of each week instead of on Thursday as heretofore. Congratulations are in order for the Observer and its editors, Messrs. William J. Price and J.S.Elliott Pardee.

THE AFFABLE T. BOND BROWN, one of the best posted republicans in the State, was in Chestertown yesterday and gave the TRANSCRIPT editors several pointers to be posted in their political hats for future reference. In discussing national politics Mr. Brown declared that president Roosevelt will be unable to land the next presidential nomination. John R. McLean, he insisted will be the democratic candidate, with Charles L. Fairbank as his republican opponent. The issue is pasted away as tariff and imperialism. Ex-Governor Lloyd Lowndes is to be the next republican Gubernaterial candidate. He was not altogether certain as to whom the democratic standard bearer in the campaign will be.

THE TREND of industrial affairs in the United States is portentious of disaster. On the one side stands the unhealthy amassing of dictatorial wealth,—while in a position of unrelenting hostility is aggressive and, often unreasoning labor. With tens of thousands of striking workmen scattered throughout the great centres of population and thousands of troops under arms, it is impossible to forecast the sequel to present industrial conditions. A dispatch from conservative Pawtucket, on Thursday, gives the situation in that section. It said:

"For the first time in the history of the city bayonets in the hands of soldiers ordered out by the Governor of Rhode Island to suppress riotous disturbances – glistened today in the streets of Pawtucket." The strikers attacked moving street cars and the soldiers fired into the mob.

THE CANDIDACY FOR CONGRESS of Richard D. Hynson, Esq, as urged by the TRANSCRIPT two weeks ago, was most favorably received. A number of prominent gentlemen in different sections of the State have expressed themselves as favorable to the TRANSCRIPT'S claim for Kent's candidate. A gentleman said in Baltimore, that in his opinion, with Mr. Hynson as a congressional condidate the first district will certainly be democratic. Young, popular and conspicuously well-equipped for the important duties of the office, Mr. Hynson would bring together all elements of his party and would appeal with great emphasis to that large element of strength, the independent voters of his district. These elements supported by the inherent merit of Kent's claim for Congressional recognition, should prove strong factors in the next convention. Mr. Hynson's friends are insistent that he shall announce his candidacy for the nomination at the proper time. As yet Mr. Hynson has not expressed himself as favorable to entering the political field as a candidate.

Of what does a bad taste in your mouth remind you? It indicates that your stomach is in bad condition and will remind you that there is nothing so good for such a disorder as Chamberlain's Stomach & Liver Tablets after having once used them. They cleanse and invigorate the stomach and regulate the bowels. For sale at 25 cents per box by M. A. Toulson, druggist, Chestertown, Md.

IN REFERRING to the State political outlook, the Baltimore Sun said yesterday: "The name of Mr. R. D. Hynson, of Kent county, has been mentioned in connection with the Democratic nomination. Mr. Hynson belongs to the younger element of his party and is well-known in all the Eastern Shore counties."

THE TRANSCRIPT'S REFERENCE last week to the vicious system of using the levy list each year for the concealment of the county's real financial condition, has been endorsed by prominent Republicans and Democrats alike. A prominent Republican who is also a large tax-payer, declares the system an outrage upon the people. It is a fact, that on Friday of last week, three days after striking the levy for the year's expenses, interest-bearing certificates were issued aggregating over $3,000. Instead of striking a levy which would meet the county's requirments and save into the pockets of the people the hundreds of dollars now needlessly paid in interest on certificates of indebtedness, a rate has been declared totally inadequate to the county's needs. And why?—Simply to perpetuate a system of political jugglery at the people's expense. Unwilling to face the reprimand of an outraged people for official extravagance, a SHAM RATE has been struck, with the sequel of a SHAM levy to be given to the people as showing the county's financial condition It matters not what party or what party leaders may be guilty of introducing or perpetuating the system, it is a flagrant wrong which the tax-payers should demand be righted at once. There can be no satisfactory reason why official extravagance should be made still more burthensome by the addition of unnecessary interest charges.

The Difference.

Tennyson could take a worthless sheet of paper, write a poem on it and make it worth $65,000—that's genius.

Vanderbilt can write a few words on a sheet of paper and make it worth $5,000,000—that's capital.

The United States can take an ounce and a quarter of gold and stamp upon it an "Eagle Bird" and make it worth $20—that's money.

A mechanic can take material worth $5 and make it into watch springs worth $5,000—that's skill.

A merchant can take an article worth 75 cents and sell it for $1—that's business.

A lady can purchase a 75-cent hat, but she prefers one worth $27—that's foolishness.

A digger works ten hours a day and handles several tons of earth for $3—that's labor.

The writer of this could draw a check for $80,000,000, but it would not be worth a d——that's tough.

FROM CHESTERVILLE.

Members of the church contemplate holding a festival here on the 21st inst

Our school house has recently been nicely painted by Mr. Howard King. A goodly part of the expense was raised by the Improvement Society of the school.

We are pleased that Mr. E. S. Bratton has moved to his home again at Spry's gate, from which place he moved at the first of the year to a farm near Sudlersville. He was at the time he left us the efficient superintendent of our Sabbath school,

We hear many regrets that Miss Lottie M. Ryder, daughter of our worthy pastor, will leave for her home in Florida, from which State she came here some fourteen months ago. May her home in the Land of Flowers be a happy one.

Mrs. M. A. Burris and Mrs. M. J. Cosden are at home with their daughters respectively, Mrs. E. A. Crittenden and Mrs. J. W. Stephenson.

Our store house property presents a neat appearance from Mr. H. King's paint brush.

Miss Dobson is visiting her brother here, Mr. W. R. Dobson.

Mrs.-Alfred King, who has at various times lived in our community, and is widely known, is here with her son, Walter.

Mr. Bedford Roe, who has filled important official positions in this county, passed through here last Tuesday on his way to Mrs. Robt. Wallis', his daughter. His home is near Hazletville, Del.

Mr. C. G. Carey continues to improve.

"I meet with many adventures and temptations as a drummer," wrote a young man, "but am keeping in view my employer's interests, and trying to do what is right." With such a motto there can be no such word as fail.

Mrs. J. W. Jarman has been shipping large quantities of asparagus. Prices we hear have been very good.

OCCASIONAL.

In many instances attacks of cholera morbus terminate fatally before medicine can be procured or a physician summoned. The safe way is to keep at hand a reliable medicine for use in such cases. For this purpose there is nothing so sure as Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. W. E. Bosworth, of LaFayette, Ala, says: "In June 1900, I had a serious attack of cholera morbus and one dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Choler and Diarrhoea Remedy gave me relief in fifteen minutes." Every field on "The Kilpatrick Farm" and on "The Home Farm," is watered by this stream, and three fields on Farm No.1 are likewise so watered. This sale will afford a most excellent opportunity for anyone desiring land on which to raise stock to secure a desirable place for such purpose, the land of each farm being especially well adapted to the growth of all grasses and grazing. Each of the farms is well wooded with fine Chestnut and Oak timber, ample for the purposes of the farm. In a few years much of the chesnut will be of a size sufficient to place upon the market, thus adding a valuable asset to each farm.
