It's Impure Blood.

"What is it?" asks the mother as she notices the smooth skin of her child marked by a red or pimply eruption. It is impure blood, and the child needs not once to begin the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, the best and surest remedy for impurity of the blood. It entirely eradicates the poisons which corrupt the blood and cause disease. It cures scrofula, boils, pimples, eczema, salt-rheum and other eruptive diseases which are the direct result of impure blood. It enriches as well as purifies the blood.

"Dr. Pierce's medicine has not only benefited me greatly, but it has done wonders for my two sons," writes Mrs. M. Hartwick, of Demeter, Oswego Co., N. Y. "Both had scrofula. I have lost two daughters in less than five years with consumption and scrofula. My eldest son was taken two or three years ago with hemorrhage from the lungs. It troubled him for over a year. He took Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and has not had a hemorrhage in over a year. My younger son had scrofulous sores on his neck; had two lanced, but has not had any since he commenced to take your medicine."

Accept no substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery." There is nothing "just as good" for diseases of the stomach, blood and lungs.

CONFIDENCES.

"If you wish to know why I want to marry you," he said, "that is, aside from my love, but just from a plain, practical, everyday standpoint, I will tell you. I want to marry you in the first place because, having always had what you wanted, never having known what it was to be poor, I know you will not be extravagant. For I know that it always works this way. The poor girl plunges and the rich girl retrenches. Then I want to marry you because you never lose your temper and will always be willing to let me do what I want, within reason, of course. I want to marry you because you have no fads and prefer to stay at home and make it what it should be rather than take a pernicious interest in outside things. I want to marry you because you will, I know, let me select the places we can spend our vacation in and because you will be nice to all my friends, no matter who they are, and care for them for my sake. These are only a few of the many reasons why I want to marry you. And now, dearest, what do you want to marry me for?"
"For this," she replied, earnestly. "I want to marry you, if only to show you that you are mistaken in everything you want to marry me for."—From Life.

MARRIED IN LIONS' DEN.

Ceremony at Elks' Carnival, Reading, Performed by Rev. Mr. Brownback.

Reading, Pa., June 18.—In the presence of 5000 people, Captain Delaney, an African explorer, and Malka Williams of this city, were married in a den of lions on the midway of the Elks' Carnival, at Carsonio Park, this evening, by Rev George W. Brownback.

Several hours before the ceremony Mr. Brownback was on exhibition in the Elks' country store, wearing a high silk hat and in full ecclesiastical attire. The barker drew attention to him by crying: "Come up and see the man who is going into the lions' den! Get a lock of his hair as a souvenir! Come up, girls and try your luck with him!" He refused to enter the den but addressed the couple through the bars.

THEY CRUSH THE POWERS

This is written in mid-October. The long, oppressive summer is quite gone. Fading leaf, withering trees and the rustling corn in the fields are signs of the season. Fog, frost, rain, snow—they are coming. You remember last winter; of 1900 and 1901. The weather was cruel. Ah! the thousands it killed, and the hundreds of thousands it maimed and crippled. Oh, the rough grasp it laid on men at work, women at home, and children in cribs and cradles. Coughs that began before Thanksgiving Day are racking and tearing them still; yes, and growing worse as they dig deeper into the poor, tired throat and lungs. Many were cured by using Benson's Porous Plasters. For the soothing and healing power of these Plasters is wonderful. They conquer the complaints

THAT ARE KILLING THE PEOPLE.

No other plaster, no other medicine or application, can compare with them. Coughs, colds, bronchitis, rheumatism, lumbago, kidney and liver troubles, asthma, influenza,—they all go down before Benson's Plasters like a snow image in the sun. You can't throw money away on a Benson's Plaster. Everybody is going to use them this season. But make certain you get the genuine. All druggists, or we will prepay postage on any number ordered in the United States on receipt of 25c. each.
