TEARFUL OR CHEERFUL?

Whether a woman is tearful or cheerful depends not on what she has materially, but what she is physically. Many an indulgent husband is driven almost to despair by the tearful outburst of a wife who has "everything" she wants. He wants to know what's the matter. But the wife
can't tell.
She only knows that she is depressed and despondent.
Such a condition is usually related to some form of womanly disease. The mental depression has its corresponding womanly weakness.

Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription changes tearful women to cheerful women by curing the diseases which cause physical weakness and depression of spirits.
It establishes regularity, dries unhealthy drains, heals inflammation and ulceration, and cures female weakness.

Mrs. Alice Adams, of Laboratory, Washington, Co., Pa., says: "With many thanks I write to let you know how I am. I can say by God's help and your help I am well. I have taken six bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and two of his 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and I can do all my work. I can't praise your medicine too highly. I will recommend your medicine as long as I live. If any one doubts this give them my address."

"Favorite Prescription" makes weak women strong and sick women well.
Accept no substitute for the medicine which works wonders for weak women.

Keep the bowels healthy by the timely use of Doctor Pierce's Pleasant Pellets.

WORTH OF ADVICE TO MEN AND WOMEN.

[From New York Times.]

When a woman begins to flatter you, run.

Don't let your mirror do all the reflecting.

Women used to believe that hearts always were trumps. It's diamonds now, clubs later, and finally spades.

Never let art delude you into believing that Cupid represents the naked truth.

No dressmaker has ever succeeded in making velvet fit vulgarity.

Some women think more of their hats than of their husbands, and the hats are not always to blame for it, either.

Girls, remember that a promise to die for you is no good unless accompanied by a life insurance policy.

Where the saloon is the poor man's club, it is the poor woman's hell.

If you look attractive at breakfast you will be more likely to have your husband's company at dinner.

Woman has more faith than man, and the Lord knows she needs it.

What excuse can any woman offer for making her hat an advertisement of the murder of beauty, innocence and song?

First love feeds on ice cream soda, and,
like it, it is too delicious to last long.

How many old maids, think you, would seek a divorce from celibacy?

Beauty does not disdain to borrow the homely woman's hair.

Many a weak woman has strength to support a staggering husband.

There was a man who married an engineer, clipped her wings and then swore at her because she did not fly to do his bidding.

Did you ever make the mistake of roasting your wife instead of the butcher when the meat was tough?

Wise folks pay more attention to burying their own past than to digging up those of others.

A family Bible is a more harmonious present for your young wife than is your mother's cookbook.

Woman forgives and forgets; man never forgets that he has forgiven.

OBSERVATION.

The sublimity of a great silence is taught by God.

Our hearts and minds are never so strong as when justice is behind us.

Some believe what they see. These are they who have very weak vision.

Who is afraid of an honest criticism is a shirk, and never would have done good work.

Those who know must say least, until there is a special call to testify.

There are few perfumes equal to the odor of good soap and water.

In life beware of the stepping stones;
some of them are very slippery.

It is not their vices, but their follies, that brand men fools.

Never make a "poor mouth" if you want a rich man's favor. Look prosperous or plucky.

Little men are usually quick to wrath, as a little vessel boils water quickly.

Unless every word is dripping honey the fool-wife thinks her husband loves her no more.

A tear is often higher praise to an actor than a cyclone of hand clapping.

Opportunity has tutored many a thief.

Unless you have suffered agony you cannot properly appreciate joy.

Restrain your instantaneous forgiving tendency or your boys will never see wrong in its true colors.

A Rural Opinion.

"Trouble 'bout these here poets," said the Georgia farmer, "they none of 'em make good field hands."

"Ever tried 'em?"

"Of course. They're dead set agin' plowin', for fear they'll hurt a wild flower, an' they won't beat an' swear at a mule for fear he's got a son."

"That's strange!"

"No, it ain't. 'Twixt you 'an me an'
the gate-post, it's downright inherited laziness."

THEN HE REMEMBERED IT.

"I suppose, Deacon, that you feel a little pang of regret over the news that the Moulin Rouge is no more?"

"Who, me? why should I regret it?"

"What! Of course you were there?"

"Where?"

"At the Moulin Rouge."

"Never heard of it."

"What! Never heard of the Moulin Rouge?"

"Hush-h! What do you want to keep a-yelling that for?"

"Bay, you needn't be afraid. I just saw your wife go out of the side door."

"Oh, did she? Poor old Moulin! it's got to go, eh? Do I remember it? I was there every evening during our stay in Paris."

THE MAN WHO DID.

All doctors in my town failed to relieve me of rheumatism. I have used about half a bottle of Nelsol and feel so much improved, that while I may not need it, I enclose P. O. order for $1 for one more bottle of the remedy that has been such a God-send to me. I cheerfully recommend Nelsol to anyone suffering with rheumatism.

WORTH $300,000,000.

The President of a certain big Oil Company is said to be worth $300,000,000. A tidy bit of money and no mistake. And yet he isn't happy. In an address to a Bible class he spoke of trials and troubles of the rich and the loads they have to carry. A young lady whispered to a friend that he might wear a Benson's Porous Plaster on his back or, better still, divide the money among the members of the class. I don't know why her ideas about the plaster makes me want to laugh, but it does. All the same I have seen plenty of people laugh after putting Benson's Plasters on their backs or chests, or on any other spot where there was weight, heaviness, weakness or pain.
It may be the sharp stabs of neuralgia, the aches and wrenches of rheumatism; it may be colds in muscles or bones; it may be those kidney or lumbago thrusts that make you yell as at a dog bite; or it may be a strain or cramp, anything that wants quieting and comforting. Don't bother with salves, liniments, lotions, etc., or with any of the stupid and useless old style plasters.
Clap on a Benson's. It relieves at once and cures quickly. It stops the pain and makes you laugh for the very ease and good feeling of it. But watch out against imitations and substitutes. All druggists, or we will prepay postage on any number ordered in the United States on receipt of 25c. each.
