WORTON ITEMS.

Mrs. George N. Cooper has returned from a pleasant visit to relatives in Philadelphia. Mrs. J. D. Sutton returned from a visit to Philadelphia on last Saturday. She was accompanied home by her daughter, Mrs. Frank Dalton. Mrs. James and daughter, Hilda, of Baltimore, are visiting Mrs. Frank Clark. Miss Marguerite Wallis is on a visit to relatives in and around Crumpton. Miss Bessie Cooper is spending several weeks in Wilmington. Mr. Nelson Taylor, of Baltimore, is visiting at the home of Mr. Samuel T. Newcomb. Miss Mary Wallis, who for two years past has been studying for a trained nurse in a Baltimore hospital for children, is spending the month of August with her parents here. Mr. Frank Bacon is visiting his aunt, Mrs. Annie Bacon, who for some time past has been quite sick, and at this writing is but little improved. Miss Nellie Ivens, of Worton, is visiting Miss Rachel Wood, of near Still Pond. Miss Eunice Cooper is visiting her aunt, Miss I. C. Cooper, near this place. Quite a party of pleasure seekers went down to Mr. Roby Rasin's Green Point farm on last Saturday and spent a pleasant afternoon. Boating, bathing and such sports were enjoyed until we were invited to supper spread beneath the huge trees on the lawn; and a splendid supper it was, too, to which all did justice and no one was left hungry. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Benj. F. Rash and children, Mrs. A. S. Turner and children, Mrs. John Burris and children, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Crew and daughter, Mrs. Richard Moffett, Mrs. J. W. Collier, Misses Dollie, Lucy and Hallie Crew, Mary Russell, Madge Parks, Clara Taylor, Blanche Dyer, Messrs. Clayton Crew, Harry Ivens, Wylie Hudson, Carroll Loller, Richard and Thomas Bryan and Lloyd Gale. The last named young man, waiting at Cat's corner for the crowd to gather, met with quite a painful accident. He had an old 32 cavalry revolver in his carriage and while waiting tried to shoot it. He took both hands to pull the trigger back, and having the revolver pointed downward, before he was aware of it the weapon went off, the cartridge entering the fleshy part of his leg. Dr. Dodd located the ball which was nearly through the leg, and took it out from the other side. We hope he will suffer no further inconvenience. Mr. Eddie Waddell, of Wilmington, is spending his vacation at his uncle's, Mr. William Campbell, in this place. The Union M. E. Sunday school picnic, which was to have been held Wednesday, at Worton Manor Beach, was postponed on account of the rain. A date will be fixed next Sunday. Presbyterian Sunday School expect to take their picnic to that place on Wednesday next.

GALENA NEWS.

Lots of Happenings Told by the Correspondent.

The Galena and Cecilton baseball teams crossed bats on Thursday. Rain stopped the game after the fifth inning. The score was 5 to 2.

The Galena team simply smothered the Locust Grove team on Saturday. The score stood 39 to 13 in favor of Galena. The new post office building of Mr. Boyd is nearing completion. It is on the old Nichols lot near the town hall. The pretty new home of Mr. Henry J. Gray is also being pushed to completion. This will be a great improvement.

Mr. W. E. Knight is building his cannery at Lambson's and getting ready for the season.

Mr. L. C. Hayes has sold 26 of his fine large steers at $50 each. This is big money, but it was fine stock.

Mr. E. M. Bouwill has bought the Jeremiah Peacock farm for $7,500. Mr. Ray Bonwell, it is stated, will come up with us next year.

The remains of Mrs. Ella Miller, who died in Baltimore, were brought on the Kitty Knight on Monday and interred in the M. E. cemetery on Tuesday morning.

Mrs. Williams, wife of Capt. George Williams, died at her home in Fredericktown on Monday morning. The remains were interred in Georgetown cemetery on Wednesday. Undertaker W. T. Hicks, in charge.

Rev. A. P. Prettyman is attending the camp near Zion, Cecil county.

Misses Virna Nickerson and J. C. Briscoe have returned from Baltimore after a pleasant stay of several days.

Mrs. William Steel is entertaining her sister from Wilmington.

Miss Coverdale, of Wilmington, is the guest of Miss Ruth.

Mr. Roy Prettyman succeeded in capturing a 10-pound groundhog on Tuesday.

The team of Mr. Price, of near Sassfras, was run into while standing in the road in Galena. The carriage was overturned and one wheel was torn off. Miss Lena Shallcross narrowly escaped being seriously injured.

Mr. William T. Wood has been appointed bailiff for Galena.

Miss Lillie Doley and brother, of Baltimore, who have been the guests of Miss Katie Oan, have returned home.

Miss Mary Steel is visiting friends in Wilmington.

Mr. William Steel has contracted to erect a windmill for Mr. Alday Clements, also one for A. S. Wallis, near Kennedyville.

EXCURSION TO ATLANTIC CITY Via the Queen Anne's Railroad—Fare Only $2.00 Round Trip.

The Queen Anne Railroad Company will run a special low rate excursion to Atlantic City on Wednesday, August 6th, 1902, via the Queen Anne Railroad to Lewes, the steamer Queen Caroline to Cape May and by rail to Atlantic City. This excursion offers many advantages. In the first place the round trip will only cost $2. A trolley ride will be given through the city of Cape May and six hours will be had at Atlantic City—time enough to see all of the sights. Don't forget to go on the excursion. Train leaves Centerville at 5:15 A. M., reaching Atlantic City at 11:15. Returning, will leave Atlantic City at 5:15 P. M. For time of leaving stations along the Queen Anne's Railroad and other particulars apply to ticket agents.

Subscription to the Transcript $1.00 per annum.

CHURCH NOTES.

Preaching services at the M. E. Church South, Chesterville, Sunday morning, at 11 o'clock. Subject, Death-Bed Repentance. Sunday school at 10 A. M.

Preaching at Millington in the afternoon at 3 P. M. All are invited to attend.

The following officers were elected at the annual convention of the County Christian Endeavor Societies, held last week: President, Joseph N. Wheatley; vice-president, Miss Sadie Morris; Secretary, Miss Bessie Nicholson; treasurer, Miss Lizzie Hepburn. The convention next year will be held at St. James.

Grace and Worton Presbyterian Churches have granted their pastor Rev. K. M. Bull, a months vacation beginning next Monday. He will preach tomorrow as usual.

The M. E. and M. P. congregations will hold a union communion service at Christ M. P. Church tomorrow evening at 6:30.

Fairlee W. C. T. U., will meet at Mrs. Minnie Bramble's residence this evening at 8 o'clock. All friends of the cause invited.

Presiding Elder Corkran will preach at the Chestertown M. E. Church, Sunday evening, August 10th. Quarterly conference will be held Friday evening, August 8th.

A special feature of the evening services at Christ M. P. Church last Sunday evening was the singing. Miss Bertha Stone, of Baltimore, and Mr. Thomas W. Parkie sang.

Work will be begun on the repairs and improvements to the interior of the Chestertown M. E. Church, this week. A steel ceiling will be put in, walls re-frescoed and other improvements made.

The annual conference session is the one focal point of general interest in the Methodist churches. Call it whatever we may, the fact remains that pre-arrangements of church affairs take place, and in many cases considerable shrewdness of a political character mark the transactions at and prior to the regular sessions. Under the heading, Conference Slatemaking, the following item is going the rounds of the rural press:

"The terms of Revs. Wilbur F. Corkran, D. D., and T. E. Martindale, D. D., presiding elders of Eastern and Salisbury districts of the Wilmington M. E. Conference, respectively, expire with this year. Although the session of conference is eight months off, speculation is being indulged in as to their probable successors. The Wilmington Evening says: 'Slatemakers are surveying the field, and suggest the Rev. Vaughn S. Collins, pastor of Ashbury Church, Smyrna, for the Eastern district presiding eldership, and Rev. Stephen M. Morgan, pastor of the Avenue Church, Milford, for the Salisbury district presiding eldership. The possibility of Dr. Corkran exchanging with Rev. C. S. Baker, D. D., presiding elder of the Dover district, is also being discussed. The next session of the conference will be held in Eastern in March.'
