Fantastic stories have been written of magic mirrors in which the future was revealed. If such a thing were possible many a bright-faced bride would shrink from the revelation of herself, stripped of all her loveliness. If there is one thing which would make a woman shrink from marriage it is to see the rapid physical deterioration which comes to so many wives. The cause is generally due to womanly diseases.

Lost health and lost comeliness are restored by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It cures irregularity and dries weakening drains. It heals inflammation and ulceration, and cures female weakness.

If you are led to the purchase of "Favorite Prescription" because of its remarkable cures of other women, do not accept a substitute which has none of these cures to its credit.

Free. Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, paper covers, is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Or for cloth-bound volume send 31 stamps.

When the people get to fly in the air, I s'pose they'll say,
As we long have been a-sayin', that the horse has had his day;
And I s'pose that some old feller jist about like me'll stand
Where it's safe and watch the horse haulin'
stuff across the land,
And he'll maybe think as I do, while the clouds above him flit,
"Oh, they say the horse is done for,
But
he ain't went yit."

GOOD AND BAD DAYS IN SEPTEMBER.
(From the New York Times.) September of this year is a month which, according to Good Luck, the astrological monthly, is fraught with more than the usual number of unlucky and "uncertain" days. It diagnoses the 30 days of the present month as follows:

1st. Good for business and journeys.
2d. An uncertain day.
3rd. Good for business generally.
4th. Favorable for speculation.
5th. An unlucky day.
6th. Favorable for those who have property to sell.
7th. A doubtful day.
8th. Good for journeys.
9th. No important work should be begun today.
10th. Propitious for courtship and marriages.
11th. An uncertain day.
12th. Good for business.
13th. An unlucky day.
14th. Good for love affairs and social intercourse.
15th. Favorable for journeys.
16th. An uncertain day.
17th. A good day on which to ask favors.
18th. Favorable for business and journeys.
19th. An unlucky day.
20th. An uncertain day.
21st. Another uncertain day.
22d. Favorable for business, but only during the very early hours.
23d. A bad day on which to have dealings with women.
24th. An unlucky day.
25th. Good for courtship and marriages.
26th. A very unfortunate day.
27th. Better keep quiet today.
28th. A good day on which to visit friends.
29th. Good for love affairs.
30th. Fortunate for those in love and for those seeking employment.

ALL AT ONCE.
A well-known Philadelphia divine tells this story concerning a little five-year-old in that city. His mother expected the minister to dinner and thought it might not be out of place to coach the little fellow some, as he was inclined to be wayward.
"Now, Johnny," she said, "when the minister comes to dinner and asks you how old you are, you must say—five years old. Then when he asks who you love, you must say everybody. Then when he asks you where bad boys go when they die, you tell him, they go to hell."

The minister as usual patted the little boy on the head and asked: "How old are you, my boy?" The little fellow scratched his head a moment to think what his mother had told him to say and then he blurted out: "Five years old; I love everybody; go to hell!" Of course the mother explained that no rudeness was meant.—Selected.

HE AIN'T WENT YIT.

Every little while they tell us that the horse has got to go; First the trolley was invented, 'cause the horses went so slow, And they told us that we'd better not keep raisin' colts no more; When the street cars got to moting that the horses pulled before I thought it was all over for Old Fan and Doll and Kit; S'posed the horse was up and done for,
But
he ain't
went yit.

When the bike craze first got started people told us right away, As you probably remember, that the horse had saw his day; People put away their buggies and went kitin' 'round on wheels; There were lots and lots of horses didn't even earn their meals.
I used to stand and watch 'em, with their bloomers as they'd flit, And I thought the horse was goin', But
he ain't
went yit.

Then they got the horseless carriage, and they said the horse was done, And the story's been repeated twenty times by Edison; Every time he gets another of his batteries to go, He comes whooping out to tell us that the horse don't stand a show, And you'd think to see these chauffeurs, as they go a-chauffin', it Was good-by to Mr. Dobbin.
But
he ain't
went yit.

When the 'people git to flyin' in the air, I
s'pose they'll say,
As we long have been a-sayin', that the horse
has had his day;
And I s'pose that some old feller jist about
like me'll stand
Where it's safe and watch the horse haulin'
stuff across the land,
And he'll maybe think as I do, while the
clouds above him flit,
"Oh, they say the horse is done for,
he ain't
went yit."

THE TOUCH DOES IT

Benson's Plasters are like your other friends—they hate to see you in pain or in weakness and are dog-tired hearing you complain about it. They want to cure you and send you along to your business—whole and happy. They can do it and will do it.
Try them on. What for? Why for any cough or cold you may be troubled with, or any bothering pain or ache, or worry with kidneys or liver. Possibly some old clutch of muscular rheumatism renders an arm or a leg worth only half price just now. For anything that makes the machine work slow and stiff, with pain maybe in the motion of it, clasp Benson's Porous Plasters squarely on the bad spot. They are the get-out-to-morrow plasters—not the sort that go to sleep on your skin like a cat on a cushion. There is comfort and speedy relief in the touch of them. No other external remedy, no matter how made or how called, is worthy to live in the same street with Benson's Plasters. Pains and ailments melt away under them as a sheet of ice does under the Spring sun. You cannot foretell the weather but you can always foretell the effect of Benson's Plasters; it is as sure as the effect of a hot breakfast in a hungry man's stomach. But look out for substitutes. Get the genuine. All druggists, or we will prepay postage on any number ordered in the United States on receipt of 25c. each.
