HONORED THEIR HERO.

after year, made an offering in its aid, for love of his good grand-father.

2nd.—THAT HE WAS OF FAITHFUL LOYALTY. This is proved by the fact that he enrolled himself loyally, and fought in the war of the Revolution under General George Washington, and that he commanded the troops which fought and won the battle of Caulk's Field in this county of Kent, Maryland.

3rd.—THAT HIS CITIZENSHIP WAS IRREPROACHABLE. This is proved by the fact that his fellow citizens held him worthy of positions of honor and trust and that he held the office of High Sheriff of Kent County, Md., for three years; and that he was elected to be the people's representative in Congress;—also, in that for seven years he held a U. S. Senatorship for Maryland.

4th.—HIS HEART-FELT CHRISTIANITY: This is shown by the fact that he served as a Vestryman in the parish of I. U., and gave practical assistance in its spiritual welfare. Also, in that he doubtless received in humble worship at the old church of his parish the Holy Sacrament of the Lord's Supper. His choicest society was assuredly among the followers of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

We therefore, in truth, must honor, in terms of highest praise, the memory of this good and loyal man,—this true citizen and christian,—our much esteemed and devoutly venerated General Philip Reed.

The evil which he did, through the natural infirmity is clean forgotten. The good which he did is as green in our memory now as when it was first in growth. May God give us grace to follow so admirable an example.

I have now to thank, with hearty gratitude, all those whose liberality has enabled us to set this memorial stone to the glory of God, and in loving memory of General Philip Reed.

Let us pray that as we now honor our loyal and christian countryman, so "we (and he) and all who have departed in the true faith of God's Holy name, may have our perfect consummation and bliss, both in body and soul, in God's eternal and everlasting glory, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen."

1 Peter, 2:17—HONOR ALL MEN. Servants, wives, husbands, children. LOVE THE BROTHERHOOD.

Eph. 6:10—As we therefore have opportunity, let us do good unto all men, especially unto them which are of the household of faith.

1 Tim. 5:8—If any provide not for his own and specially for those of his own house, he hath denied the faith and is worse than an infidel.

FEAR GOD.

HONOR THE KING.
