FROM KENNEDYVILLE.

Profitable Meeting of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Kennedyville, held its regular monthly meeting, on Friday evening of last week, in the M. P. church. The meeting opened with a very profitable song service, Mrs. Annie S. Redmile at the organ, after which Mr. H. L. Davies led in a very earnest prayer, in which he asked that the guiding hand of an unseen Providence might be held out to this little band of earnest women in the future as it had been in the past. Mrs. Annie S. Redmile gave the scripture reading in a very acceptable manner. The president then gave an itemized account of our meals served on election day, which resulted in placing in the hands of our treasurer about twenty dollars, and we hope we were enabled to save some from the temptation to evil which might have been theirs had they gone elsewhere.

Readings were given by Master Hartley Weer and Misses Hettie Jarrell and Grace Sylvester, a duet by Mrs. James Archibald and Mrs. Webster Hill. A most excellent reading by Miss Ellen Copper, "Habits," was next given, in which it was shown how a little habit or sin persisted in would finally end in ruin and destruction; solo by Mrs. Leonard Lane. The pastor of the church, Rev. R. S. Rowe, then gave a very earnest talk in which he deplored the evil that exists in our midst, and spoke of the open manner in which the law in reference to the selling or giving away of liquor on election day seemed to be violated. He regretted very much that the "Law and Order League" did not take stringent measures to bring these apparent violators of the law to justice. He thought it was a shame to the community to allow this thing to go unpunished. He seemed to think the W. C. T. U. might, in a measure, take steps to stop this unlawful traffic in our midst.

Our president explained to him the earnest efforts that had been put forth by our organization in this very direction, and with what utter indifference we were treated, even by those who sit in "high places," and how impossible it is for the women and mothers of this country and this community to accomplish anything in this direction, and the good moral men and fathers sit by in indifference while our boys drift into ruin and year after year. We can only hope, and work and pray, that God will open the blinded eyes of every good man in this blessed country of ours, and awaken him to a sense of his responsibility to his brother and his God, and that he may join us heart and hand in our efforts to drive this great curse from our midst.

FROM CHESTERTOWN.

Dr. Ryder, son of Rev. I. Ryder, has secured a lucrative position in Branford, Florida. Ira is much missed by a large circle of friends.

Miss Ethel Solloway spent Sunday with Miss Birdie Miller, at Still Pond. Rev. I. Ryder is holding protracted services in the village.

Mr. Charles Crittenden, our well-known merchant, is quite sick. We hope he will soon be able to return to his work.

Mrs. W. E. Jarrell and Mrs. Ari spent part of the week with Mr. W. Frank Jarrell, at "Sunny Lawn."

The School Improvement Society, aided by the school board, has put a new floor in the school building. Mr. Howard King did the work.

Mr. Carroll Nickerson has removed from Philadelphia to conduct the store of Mrs. E. A. Crittenden. We are glad to welcome him.

Mrs. Andrew Wilson and daughter, Esther, are visiting Mrs. J. W. Jarman.

A delightful surprise was given Miss Verdie Edwards on Friday evening. Among those present were: Misses Ethel M. Solloway, Gussie Walls, Marie Davis, Annie Foulke, Anna Melyin, Besie Webb, Elsie Woodall, Lena Bishop and Ada Stevens; Messrs. Andrew Woodall, Willie Woodall, Spencer Coleman, Wright Coleman, Willie Foulks, Roy Stafford, Harry Talbot, Clarence Clark, Howard Melvin, Benj. Godwin and Raymond Edwards.

MILLINGTON MATTERS.

The Epworth League Social held at Miss Ollie Vansant's on Thursday evening, was a most charming affair. The beautiful night insured a large attendance and the occasion was one of unusual pleasure. A silver collection was taken up.

Mrs. Sallie Sparks, of Philadelphia, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Julia Mallalieu.

Miss Sue Lambert, of Chestertown, is visiting Miss Ollie Vansant at the Brick Hotel.

Mr. Wood Hackett and his bride, of New York, have spent a few days here the guests of Mr. Hackett's sister, Mrs. J. T. Power.

Mrs. Rouse Stevens is visiting her sister, Miss Lelia Reese, at Rock Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Tonkin and children, are guests of Wilmington friends. Mr. and Mrs. George Mallalieu, of Patterson, New Jersey, are visiting Mr. Mallalieu's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Mallalieu.

WORTON ITEMS.

The gunning season, which has been on for two weeks, has been enjoyed by lovers of sport to a great extent. Rabbits and birds seem quite plentiful, and meats scarce, consequently the sport of gunning becomes more a daily pastime.

Revival services, which have been in progress for three weeks in the Union M. E. Church of this place, closed last week with good success. Mr. Poole has been assisted in this work by Rev. Mr. Campbell, of Dover, who is now helping him at Fairlee.

Mr. John W. Carter is beautifying his house by a new coat of paint. Mr. Jos. Dwyer is doing likewise.

Mr. Ben. Wendling, of Wilmington, visited his grandmother in Worton last week.

Rev. and Mrs. J. B. Merritt are visiting their daughter in Baltimore.

Mr. Ellwood Morris is having a new barn built on his farm tenanted by Mr. Otto Fogwell. Mr. Wm. Copper is doing the work.

Misses Sallie, Mary and Estella Neal are visiting in Baltimore.

Mrs. Sallie Anderson and daughter, Mrs. Edw. Newsome, have returned from a visit to Baltimore friends.

Misses Clara Staats and Nan Matthews spent Sunday at home, near here.

Miss I. C. Cooper spent several days last week with friends in Rock Hall.

Mrs. Frank Clark and children are spending a few days with her mother, Mrs. Wm. Wood, near Still Pond.

Mr. Ste Kiker, who has been employed for some time past in Philadelphia is now at home with his father, in this place.

Mr. Isaac Kiker, of Philadelphia, is visiting his parents in this place. Mr. Kiker, who is the elder Kiker's eldest son is combining business with pleasure, and is purchasing turkeys for the Thanksgiving market.

School Examiner Peterson, visited the school at this place on Wednesday.

MADGE.
