ANOTHER ADDITION.

We have added to our "ANNEX, THE HALL," a real "HOUSE-FURNISHING STORE."

This will permit us to make the largest showing of Fine Furniture on the Eastern Shore. We will offer our public the best values ever presented in Fine Bed-Room Suits, Buffets, Couches, Tables, Chairs, Rockers and everything to be found at a first-class House-Furnishing Establishment. (Write for our new Catalogue.)

We are shipping Stoves from our "Stove Department," all over the Peninsula. The FARMER GIRL is a winner, the Ranges are high-grade, the Hot Air Stoves sell at sight.

The explanation is because our prices are right and our stock is without equal.

BETTERTON ITEMS.

Our farmers are taking advantage of the fine weather hauling their fodder in and stowing it away for winter.

Mr. Camby seems to have taken hold of farming in earnest.

Mr. Mann is visiting Baltimore this week.

Mr. Rhoton Crew made a flying trip to the Monumental City on Tuesday last.

Miss Violet Moore, one of Betterton's popular young ladies, attended the wedding of Mr. Paul Maloney and Miss Elizabeth Siney in Baltimore on Wednesday last.

Captain George Moore spent Sunday with his family on Idlewild Ave.

Rev. J. H. Jones preached in Still Pond M. E. Church on Thursday night.

Mr. G. H. Nock, State Sunday School Organizer did not lecture in the Betterton M. E. Church on Tuesday night last, owing to the inclement weather. During December Rev. Mr. Nock will lecture here. Notice will be given of the exact date later.

The prettiest girl between the Hudson bay and the Gulf of Mexico now blesses the home of Harry Owens.

Howard Owens, a member of the firm of Owens & Co., has received an offer from a Baltimore wholesale house to become one of their traveling salesmen at a salary of $1000 and all expenses. There is always a place for the right man.

SASSAFRAS ITEMS.

Alexander T. Laws visited Chestertown on Monday.

Joseph Boyd, of Galena, was in Sassafra Monday.

Hughie Sayin, of Townsend, visited Sassafra on Monday.

These beautiful Indian summer days have been greatly enjoyed here.

Mrs. William H. Spry and Mrs. S. Morris visited Smyrna on Monday.

The dense fog which has lasted for a week past has seriously interfered with shipping.

Twenty-two turkeys were stolen from the poultry yard of William Beath, of Townsend, recently.

Revival services are being held nightly in the old Brick M. E. Church. All are invited to come.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Spry were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. William Spry, of near Galena, on Saturday evening last.

Mrs. Theresa Shallcross, who has been visiting relatives in Philadelphia for the past two months, returned home Tuesday.

Two gentlemen visited Sassafra on Saturday last from Delaware looking for a valuable dog they had lost. Sassafra is a bad place to have a valuable dog. They are not safe here.

We are pleased to state the improvement of J. Arthur Ford, who has been in a Baltimore hospital for some time under treatment.

Mrs. Stephen H. Ford entertained most royally the Kent Card Club at her beautiful home at Ford's Landing last Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Griffith were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Griffith, of near Cecilton, from Saturday evening until Monday morning.

The last dance of the season at Dewey Park was held on Thursday evening. Messrs. Shallcross and Massey made great preparation for the occasion.

Mrs. John Johnson, Mrs. Rachel Stradley and two children visited their sister, Mrs. Archie Biggs, near Chesapeake City, from Saturday until Sunday evening.—Cecil News.

MILLINGTON MATTERS.

Rev. E. E. White, of Wilmington, who preached for Rev. E. R. Sidell on Tuesday night, spent several days during the week with friends in town.

Rev. Dr. Corkran was announced to preach on Wednesday night last but was unexpectedly called away from the district, and Rev. Dr. Wyatt, of Middletown, filled the pulpit that evening.

The members of the P. E. Chapel cleared between seventy and eighty dollars at their country store and festival held in the hall last Saturday night.

Mrs. M. O. Cacy and daughter, Mrs. W. F. Collins, are visiting friends in Baltimore.

Miss Julia Cacy spent a few days this week in Chestertown.

Miss Annie Gillespie is visiting friends in Wilmington.

Mr. W. F. Collins spent a few days this week in Baltimore.

Mrs. Gertrude Bonnell, of Wilmington, spent Saturday and Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Tolson.

A number of our young people attended the last dance of the season at Dewey Park on Wednesday night, and no doubt had a good time, as they did not return until five o'clock Thursday morning.

Our farmers have nearly all finished husking their corn crop, and are beginning in earnest to get the crop off to market, and cars are eagerly sought for this purpose. The general price being paid by our buyers is 50 cents per bushel.

The sale of Mr. J. R. Stafford, near town, was well attended Thursday, and everything sold well. The horses especially brought good prices. Mr. Stafford is rapidly pushing to completion his beautiful residence on the Boulevard, where he will reside next year.

Mr. F. H. Phillips, of Centerville, is doing quite a great deal of tin roofing in our town. We have no tinsmith and have to go away from home for this kind of work.

A LIBRARY FOR FOUR DOLLARS.

Best Pictures, Best Fiction, Best History for Price of a Century Subscription.

Four dollars is a small sum with which to supply a family for a year with the best pictures and literature. "The high-water mark of color reproduction," as Howard Pyle characterizes the exquisite color reproductions of his paintings in the December Century; history, current topics of vital interest, the best verse and fiction of the day.

The most striking successes of the Century Magazine have been made in the field of history, witness the famous Century War Papers, Nicolay and Hay's life of Lincoln, etc.; and it is to return to the field of historical literature this year. A striking series of illustrated articles on the early campaigns of the Revolution, written by Professor Justin Harvey Smith, of Dartmouth College, will be one of the features, especially covering the picturesque march of Arnold through the Maine woods. Important articles on the "Trusts" will be printed from time to time—not attacking or defending, but simply telling the inside history of the great trusts and how they are conducted.

Richard Whiteing, the author of that popular book "No. 5 John Street," is to write one of the serials for "The Century" in 1903, "The Yellow Van," the story of an American "schoolman" who marries an English duke. Another serial, by the author of "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch," the most popular book of the year, will begin to appear in the December Century. Papers by "Mr. Dooley," giving his unique "Opinions" on literature, new light on the lives of Edgar Allan Poe and Sir Walter Scott; richly illustrated articles on the great exchanges of the world, and the best short stories that can be procured from the leading writers—all these are coming in the Century. Beautiful pictures in color will appear from time to time.

The pictures are richly worth framing and a place in every home. The reading means wide information, culture, and rich intellectual pleasure from month to month. The bound volumes should have permanent place in every library. Big returns, all this, on the small investment of four dollars.
