MILLINGTON MATTERS.

The town Election held last Saturday afternoon resulted in the election of Messrs. J. P. Ahern, W. C. Rolph and G. B. Taylor. J. P. Ahern, president of the last board, was unanimously elected for the second term notwithstanding the fact that he publicly positively declined to have his name placed upon the ticket and is still undecided about accepting an account of excessive private business. Our town is being steadily improved. During the past year many brick and cement pavements were put down and the town is said to be as well-paved as any town its size on the peninsula. The supper and festival held by the trustees of Asbury M. E. Church Friday and Saturday nights, was well attended both nights and a very good sum was realized.
