WASHINGTON COLLEGE NOTES.

The board walks of the college are showing the effects of wear and tear and should be replaced by new ones. Brick pavements would be better, but whatever kind is put down, a good suggestion would appear to be to move the main walk just a little further inside the campus and allow it to extend between the two rows of trees that stretch from the top of the hill to the foot of the college green. In a few years these trees would shade the walk and thus make a most delightful promenade. Some such walk would not be out of place on the Normal Hall campus. There is a similar avenue of trees over there, and a promenade would be enjoyed by ladies just as much as by the young men. It is to be hoped some improvements may follow these hints. The repair committee have the thanks of the students for restoring the usefulness of the college pump. Somebody had deprived it of its handle, consequently it was impossible to enjoy its refreshing draughts. It is now in working order and no better water can be found than that in this 80-foot well. Our popular base ball catcher, Marine, will probably spend the summer in Lonaconing, Md. Rev. Dunbar Gould of the class of '92, who is stationed at that place, still holds on to his fondness for the national sport and is aiding the young bloods of that burg to get together a winning ball team. Mr. Marine will materially strengthen the club, as a better amateur it would be hard to secure. A Delaware exchange contains the following with regard to a former ever-to-be-remembered ball player of the college: "We are in receipt of a copy of the San Francisco Examiner of May 23, which shows that 'Davy' Zearfoss' Frisco club are third in the race for the pennant in the Pacific National League. Zearfoss is captain of the team and in a game with a score of 2 to 1, Zearfoss making 2 runs, 2 hits and accepting fifteen chances back of the bat without an error. Miss Maude Gibson, daughter of Prof.

J. W. Gibson, of Sudlersville Academy, and for a short time a student at the college, has been appointed bookkeeper in the Ridgely (Caroline county) Savings Bank. Mr. John I. Coulbourne of the class of '97 entertained his old college friend Virgil Ward '96 at a stag supper at Snow Hill, Md., last week. College friendships are hard to forget. Misses Gourley, Strong, Pennington and Wooten were entertained by the Misses Jefferson at their home in Queen Anne's last Saturday and Sunday. Mr. E. F. Webb, class of '97, was a delegate from Vienna Parish to the annual convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church of the Diocese of Eastern, held in Chestertown Tuesday and Wednesday of this week. Prof. and Mrs. Clarke entertained Mr. E. W. McMaster, Mrs. Clarke's uncle, during the Episcopal Church convention. Mr. McMaster was a lay delegate from Pocomoke Parish. Dr. and Mrs. Micon entertained Rev. Mr. Gant, of Berlin, Md., Mr. J. Wilson Sutton, class of 1900 and Rev. Geo. C. Graham, '97, during the Episcopal convention. Messrs. Wilbur and Harry Gill, two of last years students paid the college a visit last Saturday, remaining until Monday morning. Mrs. W. J. McFeely received word on Wednesday that her brother, Mr. Albert W. Marker, had died rather suddenly. Mr. Marker was afflicted with stomach trouble, and had undergone an operation from which he did not recover, but died about two days afterward. He was about 60 years of age, and was employed as a clerk in a railroad office in New York. He leaves a widow. Mrs. McFeely will attend the funeral ceremonies to-day. The sympathy of the college is extended to her. As will be seen by reference to another column of this issue of the TRANSCRIPT, Mr. Harry R. Coppage, a former student of Washington College has gotten himself into trouble with the Southern Amateur Athletic Association. He entered the relay races at Tome on the occasion of the inaugural, and ran for a Baltimore Business College.

The Chestertown Public School defeated the Galena base ball team on the College campus last Monday by the score of 5 to 3. These figures indicate some good playing, and the work of the midget battery, Latham and Westcott was exceptionally good against the apparent superiority in weight and size of the Galena boys. This is the second victory of the Chestertown boys over the up-county team. The Up-town base ball team defeated the Down-town team in a game this week by a score 6 to 4.
