

The Chestertown Transcript.

VOL. XLIII—NO. 17.

CHESTERTOWN, MARYLAND, SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 26, 1903.

$1.00 PER ANNUM

BUTTER.
Owing to the demand for my make of BUTTER I take this method of informing the public that I have arranged with Mr. F. D. Leary, Queen street, to keep it on sale. J. P. NICHOLSON, 819 St.

The Second National Bank of Chestertown, Md.

Comparative statement of Deposits made to the Comptroller of the Currency in the April call of each year.

Deposits.
APRIL 5, 1890.....	$170,245.02
APRIL 20, 1900.....	$215,016.45
APRIL 24, 1901.....	$294,021.74
APRIL 30, 1902.....	$310,414.23
APRIL 9, 1903.....	$468,269.37

An increase of $157,845 in one year.

Our increase in business is due very largely to the fact that everybody is treated alike.

We do not pay 3 per cent. to certain depositors and 4 per cent. to certain others—BUT 4 PER CENT. TO ALL SAVINGS DEPOSITORS.

Let us have your business.

W. B. COPPER, Cashier;
E. F. PERKINS, Teller;
H. T. DEAYER, Book-keeper;
Miss PALMER CARROLL,
Asst. Book-keeper.

Galena Bank
—OF—
Farmers' Trust, Banking & Deposit Company,
GALENA, MD.

INTEREST ALLOWED ON SAVINGS DEPOSITS.
Subject to Check.

Interest Allowed on Savings Deposits.

SPECIAL RATES ON TIME DEPOSITS.

JOHN W. WOODLAND, President, Baltimore, Md.
WM. D. ALLEN, Secretary-Treasurer, Baltimore, Md.
RICHARD S. WALLIS, Cashier, Galena, Md.

BETTERTON CASINO.

Saturday Night Dances will be continued until Saturday, October 3d, inclusive.

Admission, Everybody, 25c.

DO YOU FOX HUNT?

Now is the time to have your Horses Trained.
Green Horses thoroughly fitted, mouthed and schooled.

Colts Broken to Saddle & Harness.
TERMS REASONABLE, SATISFACTION GUARANTEED.

For further particulars apply to BAYSIDE FARM, Betterton, Md.

SPECIAL ENGAGEMENT OF THE ORIGINAL

BARLOW & WILSON'S
GREATER NEW YORK.

Minstrels,

STAM'S OPERA HOUSE,
Friday Evening, October 2d.

50 PEOPLE ON THE STAGE AT ONE TIME.
50 Funny, Famous Features.

Dances, Vocalists, Comedians, Mirth, Music, Melody in a programme Refined and Amusing.

Elegant Spectacular First Part.

Hailed with delight in all the principal cities from Maine to California.

An orchestra of 20 pieces.
The company travels in Two Special Cars, and carry their own scenery.

GRAND STREET PARADE Between 12 and 1.
Reserved Seats on sale at Stam's Drug Store seats can be secured by mail.

Mortgagee's Sale of VALUABLE

Personal Property

THE undersigned, as assignee, by virtue of the power and authority contained in a mortgage from Stephen Boyer, Jr., to the Citizens National Bank of Chestertown, Delaware, dated the second day of April, in the year 1903, and duly recorded among the Land Records of Kent county, Maryland, in Liber J. T. D., No. 8, folios 28, etc., and assigned by said bank to Jesse L. Shepherd, and re-assigned by said Shepherd to the undersigned, as will more fully appear on reference to the said assignment recorded at the foot of said mortgage, will offer at public sale, on Wednesday, Sept. 30, 1903,

on the farm near Sassafras, in Kent county, where the said Stephen Boyer, Jr., now resides, the following personal property, viz:

9 Head Horses
AND MARES,

1 TWO-YEAR-OLD COLT, 4 SUCKLING COLTS.

These horses are all good workers and drivers and of excellent breeding, three of them being of the Gilt-Edge strain.

7 Head Holstein Cows
young, and some coming into profit.

2 Farm Wagons, 2 Hay Riggers, Deering Binder good as new; 1 Brill, 1 Roller, 1 Randall Harrow, 1 Mower, Sulky Cultivator, Plows, Harrows, Wagon and Carriage Harness, one Dearborn, 1 York Carriage, nearly new, and many other articles too numerous to mention.

TERMS OF SALE:—All sums of twenty dollars and under, cash; over that amount a credit of ten months will be given on note of purchaser with approved security; interest added. No goods to be removed until terms of sale are complied with, and all accounts must be closed on day of sale.

JOSEPH BIGGS, President of the Citizens National Bank of Middletown, Del., assignee of mortgage, J. Ford Calk, Auctioneer, Jesse L. Shepherd, Clerk.

An Inspection
—OF OUR—
Fall and Winter Offerings

will positively demonstrate that we have the most attractive line of MILLINERY in pattern hats, ready-to-wear Hats, Ladies and Children's trimmed and untrimmed Hats, Plumes, Tips, Fancy ribbon, velvet, velvet ribbons, aigrettes and millinery novelties. These are carefully selected from the best wholesale houses which give us a complete assortment of all the latest ideas.

THE MISSES REED,
High Street, Chestertown, Md.

Subscription, to the Transcript $1.00 per annum.

WESTCOTT & DODD are paying 24 cents for EGGS this week.

MULE FOR EXCHANGE FOR COLT.

I have a Good WORKING MULE to trade for two-year-old or yearling Colt. W. IRVING WALKER.

CHEAP WORK HORSES.
Several for sale at $40 to $50. APPLY AT THIS OFFICE.

FOR SALE.
I have 450 lbs of Good Country LARD for sale in 50 lb. cans. GEORGE BECK, Lankford, Md.

FESTIVAL AND SUPPER.
The annual SUPPER and FESTIVAL of St. John's Catholic Church, Rock Hill, will be held SATURDAY SEPT. 26th. All the delicacies of the season will be served. COMMITTEE.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC.
I have placed my business in the hands of competent and experienced parties during my illness, and prompt attention and careful management will be given to all orders. J. E. FERGUSON, Undertaker.

FOR SALE.
Two hundred bushels of AUSTRALIAN SEED WHEAT. Yielded this year 25 bushels to the acre. JAS. BELL, Chestertown R. R. No. 2.

DEWEY PARK.
Next Dance will be

Wednesday, October 28th.
SHALLCROSS & MASSEY.

Stam's Opera House, OCTOBER 6,

Beecher's Uncle Tom's Cabin

Singers, Dancers, Cake Walkers, Specialty Artists.
Superb Band and Orchestra and Female Drum Corps.

GRAND STREET PARADE AT NOON.
Seats on Sale at Stam's Drug Store. Prices—25, 35, 50 Cents.

SUPERVISORS' NOTICE

QUALIFICATION OF REGISTERS AND APPOINTMENT OF OFFICERS OF ELECTION.

The Supervisors of Election for Kent county met at their office in the Court House on Tuesday Sept. 22, 1903, and qualified the following persons to be officers of Election and registers of voters of Kent County.

Judges Qualified.
First District—Second Precinct. Jacob Shallcross, D.

Register of Voters Qualified.
First District—First Precinct. Frederick C. Numbers, R.

Clerk of Election Qualified.
Second District—Second Precinct. Leonard A. Pennington, R.

Frederick Numbers was substituted for James C. Moore, resigned.

Leonard Pennington was substituted for Leonard Price, who failed to qualify.

The Board of Supervisors will meet at their office on Monday next.

September 28th, 1903, at 11 o'clock to deliver the Registration Books, and Supplies, and the Registers of Voters are requested to be present promptly at the above hour to receive them.

J. RAYMOND BOWERS, D. J. McCULLY, JOHN C. DAVIS, Supervisors of Election for Kent county. JOSEPH MASSEY, Clerk.

Washington College,
CHESTERTOWN, MD.

The Oldest College in Maryland.
Beautiful and Healthful Situation, Careful Supervision of Students.

VERY LOW RATES
Classical, Scientific and Modern Language Courses.
Sub-Freshman Classes for Preparation for College. Also Washington Normal School.
A DIPLOMA entitles pupil to teach without examination.
Session Opens Sept. 16th.
Address, JAMES W. CAIN, L.L.D.

OBITUARY.
BENJAMIN F. PERKINS.
Mr. Benjamin F. Perkins, son of the late Dr. J. A. Perkins, died at his late residence in Germantown, Pa., on Friday last of typhoid fever, aged 32 years.

The death of Mr. Perkins has cast a gloom over the entire community. Born in Chestertown, reared among her people and educated in the schools of the town and graduated at Washington College, he was distinctively a Chestertown boy, honored for his ability and respected on account of the uprightness of his character.

He was a member of a family that has always been intimately associated with the social, professional, educational and religious life of the community, and the part that he was destined to take in life, judging by the prominence to which he had risen during his short probation, was one of honor to his family and his native town, and a credit to himself.

He was a young man of rare mental ability, and has built up a lucrative practice in the city of Philadelphia by his perseverance and energy. But alas! when life seemed so full of bright prospects, and the joys of home were just ripening into a sweet reality, the messenger came and called him to a higher estate.

Some years ago Mr. Perkins moved to Philadelphia to engage in the study and practice of law, and after having remained there for some years, he formed a partnership with a gentleman of great legal ability and having a fine practice. Mr. Perkins' future success seemed assured, and only a few days prior to his last illness he secured a verdict in a very large and important case. Nine months ago to the day of his death, Mr. Perkins was married to Miss Clara Vickers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harrison W. Vickers, and while the hand of death has dealt its severest blows, taking from Mr. Perkins' home his father and mother, yet their union had been a most happy one. The remains were brought to Chestertown on a special car on Monday, accompanied by the relatives and friends of the deceased. Funeral services were held from the residence of Harrison W. Vickers, Esq., on Monday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock. Revs. E. P. Roberts and D. L. Greenfield officiating. Interment was made in the Perkins' lot, beside mother and father, in Chester cemetery. The pall bearers were his brothers, Messrs. Alfred, Blackston, Walter, David, Norman, Herbert and Foster, and Thomas W. Perkins and George Vickers. Undertaker John N. Dodd, had charge of the funeral arrangements. The floral tributes were numerous and beautiful, requiring an extra conveyance to bring them to the grave. His widow and devoted relatives have the sympathy of the entire community.

MRS. EMMA J. LONG.
Mrs. Emma J. Long, wife of Mr. George Long, died at her home near Goose Hill last Saturday morning, aged 33 years. She leaves a husband and seven small children. Funeral services were held Monday afternoon conducted by Rev. R. S. Rowe, of Kennedysville, Interment in Union cemetery. The pall bearers were: Josiah Massey, Biddle Hossinger, W. D. Shinn, George Biddle, William Biggers and William Smith. J. E. Ferguson funeral director.

REGISTRATION.
For the benefit of the public in general and those personally interested, we publish the following provision of the Act, passed at the session of 1902, and relating to the registration of persons moving into Maryland from some other State, District or Territory:

Chapter 138, Section 25b. All persons who, after the passage of this Act shall remove into any county of this State, or into the city of Baltimore from any other state, district or territory, shall indicate their intent to become citizens and residents of this state by registering their names in a suitable record by the Clerk of the Circuit Court for the several counties and by the clerk of the Superior Court of Baltimore City, such record to contain the names, residence, age and occupation, and the intent of such persons to become citizens and residents of this state shall date from the day on which such registry shall be so entered in such record book by the clerk of the Circuit Court for the county, or of the Superior Court of Baltimore City, as the case may be, into which county or city such person shall so remove from any other state, district or territory. And no person coming into this state from any other state, district or territory shall be entitled to registration as a legal voter of this state until one year after his intent to become such entry in such record book, and such entry or duly certified copy thereof shall only be competent and admissible evidence of such intent. And the clerk of the Superior Court of Baltimore City, and of the several counties of the several counties shall immediately upon the passage of this act, procure a suitable record book for the recording therein of such entries arranged alphabetically under the names of such persons. For every person so registered under the provisions of this section, they shall be entitled to demand and receive the sum of 25 cents to be paid to said clerks by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore and the County Commissioners, respectively.

WASHINGTON COLLEGE OPENS

A UNIQUE ADDRESS DELIVERED BY PRESIDENT JAMES W. CAIN, L.L. D. TO THE FACULTY AND STUDENTS.

Largest Enrollment of Students For Any "First Day" in the History of the College.

Washington College began its fall session on Monday last. Matriculation examinations were held last week. The total enrollment for the first day was 106 students, the largest for any opening day in the history of the college. We print in full the address delivered by Dr. Cain to the faculty and students on Monday morning.

MEMBERS OF THE FACULTY AND STUDENTS OF WASHINGTON COLLEGE.—I feel that I ought to take advantage of the opportunity presented by this first meeting of the college to say to you some of the things I wish to say, and which you, no doubt, desire to know. Your welfare and happiness will depend, in great measure, on the attitude I take in certain matters: it is right and proper for you to know as clearly as possible just what that attitude is to be.

Before going into that subject, I wish to say to you that it gives me very great pleasure to be with you, and to be identified with Washington College. I have known, of course, much about this institution for a long time; during the past summer I made it my business to examine more particularly its history and its achievements. The more I learn the more I am convinced that you and I have ground for pride in our connection with it.

If it appear presumptuous in me, the latest comer, to refer to this, I must remind you that, while we have the highest respect and admiration for our sister colleges, we have also the best of reasons for pride in our own.

To begin with, there is the antiquity of the college. In any academic gathering you and the representatives of your college will take precedence as the oldest college in Maryland and among the oldest in the United States. But more, and without an honorable past, is no ground for special pride. You may, however, point to a long line of distinguished college ancestors. We need not go outside of our own college, while they shout and cheer in the excitement of a contest, are prone to think that the students of other colleges have better accommodations, greater happiness and larger opportunities than their own. I speak from experience and intimate acquaintance when I say that, while we have the highest respect and admiration for our sister colleges, we have also the best of reasons for pride in our own.

To begin with, there is the antiquity of the college. In any academic gathering you and the representatives of your college will take precedence as the oldest college in Maryland and among the oldest in the United States. But more, and without an honorable past, is no ground for special pride. You may, however, point to a long line of distinguished college ancestors. We need not go outside of our own college, while they shout and cheer in the excitement of a contest, are prone to think that the students of other colleges have better accommodations, greater happiness and larger opportunities than their own. I speak from experience and intimate acquaintance when I say that, while we have the highest respect and admiration for our sister colleges, we have also the best of reasons for pride in our own.

To begin with, there is the antiquity of the college. In any academic gathering you and the representatives of your college will take precedence as the oldest college in Maryland and among the oldest in the United States. But more, and without an honorable past, is no ground for special pride. You may, however, point to a long line of distinguished college ancestors. We need not go outside of our own college, while they shout and cheer in the excitement of a contest, are prone to think that the students of other colleges have better accommodations, greater happiness and larger opportunities than their own. I speak from experience and intimate acquaintance when I say that, while we have the highest respect and admiration for our sister colleges, we have also the best of reasons for pride in our own.

To begin with, there is the antiquity of the college. In any academic gathering you and the representatives of your college will take precedence as the oldest college in Maryland and among the oldest in the United States. But more, and without an honorable past, is no ground for special pride. You may, however, point to a long line of distinguished college ancestors. We need not go outside of our own college, while they shout and cheer in the excitement of a contest, are prone to think that the students of other colleges have better accommodations, greater happiness and larger opportunities than their own. I speak from experience and intimate acquaintance when I say that, while we have the highest respect and admiration for our sister colleges, we have also the best of reasons for pride in our own.

To begin with, there is the antiquity of the college. In any academic gathering you and the representatives of your college will take precedence as the oldest college in Maryland and among the oldest in the United States. But more, and without an honorable past, is no ground for special pride. You may, however, point to a long line of distinguished college ancestors. We need not go outside of our own college, while they shout and cheer in the excitement of a contest, are prone to think that the students of other colleges have better accommodations, greater happiness and larger opportunities than their own. I speak from experience and intimate acquaintance when I say that, while we have the highest respect and admiration for our sister colleges, we have also the best of reasons for pride in our own.

To begin with, there is the antiquity of the college. In any academic gathering you and the representatives of your college will take precedence as the oldest college in Maryland and among the oldest in the United States. But more, and without an honorable past, is no ground for special pride. You may, however, point to a long line of distinguished college ancestors. We need not go outside of our own college, while they shout and cheer in the excitement of a contest, are prone to think that the students of other colleges have better accommodations, greater happiness and larger opportunities than their own. I speak from experience and intimate acquaintance when I say that, while we have the highest respect and admiration for our sister colleges, we have also the best of reasons for pride in our own.

To begin with, there is the antiquity of the college. In any academic gathering you and the representatives of your college will take precedence as the oldest college in Maryland and among the oldest in the United States. But more, and without an honorable past, is no ground for special pride. You may, however, point to a long line of distinguished college ancestors. We need not go outside of our own college, while they shout and cheer in the excitement of a contest, are prone to think that the students of other colleges have better accommodations, greater happiness and larger opportunities than their own. I speak from experience and intimate acquaintance when I say that, while we have the highest respect and admiration for our sister colleges, we have also the best of reasons for pride in our own.

To begin with, there is the antiquity of the college. In any academic gathering you and the representatives of your college will take precedence as the oldest college in Maryland and among the oldest in the United States. But more, and without an honorable past, is no ground for special pride. You may, however, point to a long line of distinguished college ancestors. We need not go outside of our own college, while they shout and cheer in the excitement of a contest, are prone to think that the students of other colleges have better accommodations, greater happiness and larger opportunities than their own. I speak from experience and intimate acquaintance when I say that, while we have the highest respect and admiration for our sister colleges, we have also the best of reasons for pride in our own.

To begin with, there is the antiquity of the college. In any academic gathering you and the representatives of your college will take precedence as the oldest college in Maryland and among the oldest in the United States. But more, and without an honorable past, is no ground for special pride. You may, however, point to a long line of distinguished college ancestors. We need not go outside of our own college, while they shout and cheer in the excitement of a contest, are prone to think that the students of other colleges have better accommodations, greater happiness and larger opportunities than their own. I speak from experience and intimate acquaintance when I say that, while we have the highest respect and admiration for our sister colleges, we have also the best of reasons for pride in our own.

To begin with, there is the antiquity of the college. In any academic gathering you and the representatives of your college will take precedence as the oldest college in Maryland and among the oldest in the United States. But more, and without an honorable past, is no ground for special pride. You may, however, point to a long line of distinguished college ancestors. We need not go outside of our own college, while they shout and cheer in the excitement of a contest, are prone to think that the students of other colleges have better accommodations, greater happiness and larger opportunities than their own. I speak from experience and intimate acquaintance when I say that, while we have the highest respect and admiration for our sister colleges, we have also the best of reasons for pride in our own.

To begin with, there is the antiquity of the college. In any academic gathering you and the representatives of your college will take precedence as the oldest college in Maryland and among the oldest in the United States. But more, and without an honorable past, is no ground for special pride. You may, however, point to a long line of distinguished college ancestors. We need not go outside of our own college, while they shout and cheer in the excitement of a contest, are prone to think that the students of other colleges have better accommodations, greater happiness and larger opportunities than their own. I speak from experience and intimate acquaintance when I say that, while we have the highest respect and admiration for our sister colleges, we have also the best of reasons for pride in our own.

To begin with, there is the antiquity of the college. In any academic gathering you and the representatives of your college will take precedence as the oldest college in Maryland and among the oldest in the United States. But more, and without an honorable past, is no ground for special pride. You may, however, point to a long line of distinguished college ancestors. We need not go outside of our own college, while they shout and cheer in the excitement of a contest, are prone to think that the students of other colleges have better accommodations, greater happiness and larger opportunities than their own. I speak from experience and intimate acquaintance when I say that, while we have the highest respect and admiration for our sister colleges, we have also the best of reasons for pride in our own.

To begin with, there is the antiquity of the college. In any academic gathering you and the representatives of your college will take precedence as the oldest college in Maryland and among the oldest in the United States. But more, and without an honorable past, is no ground for special pride. You may, however, point to a long line of distinguished college ancestors. We need not go outside of our own college, while they shout and cheer in the excitement of a contest, are prone to think that the students of other colleges have better accommodations, greater happiness and larger opportunities than their own. I speak from experience and intimate acquaintance when I say that, while we have the highest respect and admiration for our sister colleges, we have also the best of reasons for pride in our own.

To begin with, there is the antiquity of the college. In any academic gathering you and the representatives of your college will take precedence as the oldest college in Maryland and among the oldest in the United States. But more, and without an honorable past, is no ground for special pride. You may, however, point to a long line of distinguished college ancestors. We need not go outside of our own college, while they shout and cheer in the excitement of a contest, are prone to think that the students of other colleges have better accommodations, greater happiness and larger opportunities than their own. I speak from experience and intimate acquaintance when I say that, while we have the highest respect and admiration for our sister colleges, we have also the best of reasons for pride in our own.

To begin with, there is the antiquity of the college. In any academic gathering you and the representatives of your college will take precedence as the oldest college in Maryland and among the oldest in the United States. But more, and without an honorable past, is no ground for special pride. You may, however, point to a long line of distinguished college ancestors. We need not go outside of our own college, while they shout and cheer in the excitement of a contest, are prone to think that the students of other colleges have better accommodations, greater happiness and larger opportunities than their own. I speak from experience and intimate acquaintance when I say that, while we have the highest respect and admiration for our sister colleges, we have also the best of reasons for pride in our own.

To begin with, there is the antiquity of the college. In any academic gathering you and the representatives of your college will take precedence as the oldest college in Maryland and among the oldest in the United States. But more, and without an honorable past, is no ground for special pride. You may, however, point to a long line of distinguished college ancestors. We need not go outside of our own college, while they shout and cheer in the excitement of a contest, are prone to think that the students of other colleges have better accommodations, greater happiness and larger opportunities than their own. I speak from experience and intimate acquaintance when I say that, while we have the highest respect and admiration for our sister colleges, we have also the best of reasons for pride in our own.

To begin with, there is the antiquity of the college. In any academic gathering you and the representatives of your college will take precedence as the oldest college in Maryland and among the oldest in the United States. But more, and without an honorable past, is no ground for special pride. You may, however, point to a long line of distinguished college ancestors. We need not go outside of our own college, while they shout and cheer in the excitement of a contest, are prone to think that the students of other colleges have better accommodations, greater happiness and larger opportunities than their own. I speak from experience and intimate acquaintance when I say that, while we have the highest respect and admiration for our sister colleges, we have also the best of reasons for pride in our own.

To begin with, there is the antiquity of the college. In any academic gathering you and the representatives of your college will take precedence as the oldest college in Maryland and among the oldest in the United States. But more, and without an honorable past, is no ground for special pride. You may, however, point to a long line of distinguished college ancestors. We need not go outside of our own college, while they shout and cheer in the excitement of a contest, are prone to think that the students of other colleges have better accommodations, greater happiness and larger opportunities than their own. I speak from experience and intimate acquaintance when I say that, while we have the highest respect and admiration for our sister colleges, we have also the best of reasons for pride in our own.

To begin with, there is the antiquity of the college. In any academic gathering you and the representatives of your college will take precedence as the oldest college in Maryland and among the oldest in the United States. But more, and without an honorable past, is no ground for special pride. You may, however, point to a long line of distinguished college ancestors. We need not go outside of our own college, while they shout and cheer in the excitement of a contest, are prone to think that the students of other colleges have better accommodations, greater happiness and larger opportunities than their own. I speak from experience and intimate acquaintance when I say that, while we have the highest respect and admiration for our sister colleges, we have also the best of reasons for pride in our own.

To begin with, there is the antiquity of the college. In any academic gathering you and the representatives of your college will take precedence as the oldest college in Maryland and among the oldest in the United States. But more, and without an honorable past, is no ground for special pride. You may, however, point to a long line of distinguished college ancestors. We need not go outside of our own college, while they shout and cheer in the excitement of a contest, are prone to think that the students of other colleges have better accommodations, greater happiness and larger opportunities than their own. I speak from experience and intimate acquaintance when I say that, while we have the highest respect and admiration for our sister colleges, we have also the best of reasons for pride in our own.

To begin with, there is the antiquity of the college. In any academic gathering you and the representatives of your college will take precedence as the oldest college in Maryland and among the oldest in the United States. But more, and without an honorable past, is no ground for special pride. You may, however, point to a long line of distinguished college ancestors. We need not go outside of our own college, while they shout and cheer in the excitement of a contest, are prone to think that the students of other colleges have better accommodations, greater happiness and larger opportunities than their own. I speak from experience and intimate acquaintance when I say that, while we have the highest respect and admiration for our sister colleges, we have also the best of reasons for pride in our own.

To begin with, there is the antiquity of the college. In any academic gathering you and the representatives of your college will take precedence as the oldest college in Maryland and among the oldest in the United States. But more, and without an honorable past, is no ground for special pride. You may, however, point to a long line of distinguished college ancestors. We need not go outside of our own college, while they shout and cheer in the excitement of a contest, are prone to think that the students of other colleges have better accommodations, greater happiness and larger opportunities than their own. I speak from experience and intimate acquaintance when I say that, while we have the highest respect and admiration for our sister colleges, we have also the best of reasons for pride in our own.

CHURCH NOTES.

The Rt. Rev. Dr. Coleman, Bishop of Delaware, will conduct a series of mission services in Emmanuel church, on November 11th to 15th, inclusive. A full order of these services will be announced later. They will be for all men, women and children, and will be of deep interest and value. The intention being to stir up and strengthen the religious and spiritual life of those who may be able to attend, and it is sincerely hoped that all who can possibly do so will endeavor so to arrange their domestic and business affairs that they may attend many of them, if not all. The hours will be fixed to suit all. These services are not for Emmanuel congregations only, but for all of whatever christian name and affiliation and a most cordial and affectionate invitation is hereby, in advance, extended to all our citizens. Bishop Coleman is one of the most eminent and learned of the Bishops of the Episcopal church and has conducted many missions with wonderful success. H. B. MARTIN.

Christ M. P. Church, Rev. D. L. Greenfield, pastor, 9:30 class; 10:30 sermon; 2:30 Sunday school; 6:15 Junior C. E. meeting; 6:45 Young People's meeting; 7:30 sermon.

At a teachers' meeting of Christ M. P. Sunday school held on Monday evening in the lecture room of the church the following new teachers were elected: Mrs. Alice McFeeley, Miss Bessie Wheat, Mr. Smith, Mr. Joseph Guest and Mr. Ralph Barnett.

Rev. F. T. Tagg, editor of the Methodist Protestant, Baltimore, will fill the pulpit of Christ M. P. Church on Sunday morning and evening.

Wesley Chapel will begin its revival services Sunday, Oct. 4th. The blind evangelist, H. J. Magonigal, will assist the pastor, Rev. J. L. Elderdicke, from that date until the 17th. Mr. Magonigal, besides preaching occasionally, will also preside at the organ and have charge of the after services. He is said to be very effective as a singer.

Rev. J. W. Talley will preach in Fairlee M. E. Church at 10:30 A. M. Worton 3 P. M. Sunday next, Sept. 27. He will also administer the sacrament of the Lord's Supper.

Sunday school rally at Asbury M. E. Church, Millington, on Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Special musical program. Speaker from abroad. Do not fail to attend.

The special meetings at Massey continue with increasing congregations and interest. After the close of the first ten days, a generous request came for a continuance of the meetings, and it was decided to continue them. Rev. A. P. Priddyman, of Galena, will preach there at 7:30 P. M. Sunday, Sept. 27. Class meeting will be held at 3 o'clock on Sunday afternoon by the class leader.

The pastor of the Asbury M. E. Church will preach at Morgau on Sunday afternoon, Sept. 27, at 3 o'clock. Sunday school at 2 P. M.

Mrs. Wm. J. Vannot delivered a very strong temperance address at the session of the M. E. Sunday School last Sunday afternoon.

A social and literary entertainment under the auspices of the Sunday School Calendar was held in the lecture room of the Chestertown M. E. Church on Thursday evening. A very pleasant time was spent by the large audience.

BANKERS' ASSOCIATION.

The Bankers' Association Convention, as reported in last week's issue of the Transcript, was held on board an elegant steamer going down the Chesapeake as far as Newport News on Thursday and yesterday. The convention was held jointly with the District of Columbia Bankers' Association, and the entire party left Washington at 1 P. M. Thursday for a delightful outing. The guests of honor were Hon. L. M. Shaw, Secretary of the Treasury; Hon. Wm. B. Riggely, Comptroller of the Currency, and Hon. Ellis H. Roberts, Treasurer of the United States. The association's headquarters while on land were at the magnificent Hotel Chamberlain, Old Point Comfort. All the places of interest in the vicinity of Old Point were visited, and the trip was one of much benefit and pleasure.