LOCAL MATTERS.

Circuit Court.—The October term of the Circuit Court for Kent county will convene on Monday morning at nine o'clock as heretofore stated in the TRANSCRIPT. It is likely that the session will be a short one, as there are but few cases of such importance as to engross the attention of the Court and juries for a long hearing.

Rough on False Teeth.—It is related that a woman in Kent county, Del., took out her false teeth and laid them on the table before retiring one night recently. Her husband, in a spirit of jest, substituted a horseshoe in place of them. She wore the horseshoe all forenoon, complaining that her "teeth didn't fit," and only discovered the change by the wide cut the toe-calk made when she bit into a biscuit.

To Improve Mill Property.—The Unicorn Cotton Mills, near Millington, in Queen Anne's county, is being put in thorough repair and new machinery, new looms, etc., are being installed so as to be able to meet the increased demand for orders for cotton goods from this large factory. The mill is now under the control of the Queen Anne's Cotton Company, successors to George W. Todd & Co. Mr. Thomas Johnson, of Wilmington, Del., is superintendent.

To Employ a New Teacher.—The Board of Visitors and Governors of Washington College have decided to make an addition to the Faculty of the College, due to the increase in the number of students and the additional work adopted. The new teacher will act in the capacity of tutor, and will be resident in the West building, and will have charge of the order of that building. Dr. Cain, the president, is in communication with several men, and as soon as he finds the man he wants, the appointment will be made.

Barn Burned.—The large barn and all the outbuildings except the carriage house on the farm of County Commissioner, Perry Rasin, near Lynch's, were destroyed by fire on Monday afternoon. Mr. Rasin lost all his seed wheat and farming implements except those in the field at the time of the fire, as well as a large quantity of hay. The buildings were insured in the Continental, of New York, represented by Mr. James G. Beck, for $800, and the contents were insured for $900 in the same company. The buildings belonged to the estate of Mrs. Annie M. Bacon.

Washington College Loses at Football.—The Washington College football team suffered its second defeat of the season on Saturday last at the hands of the strong Maryland Agricultural College team. The game was played on the M. A. C. grounds at College Park, the score being 22 to 0. W. C.'s opponents outweighed them by fifteen pounds, and this combined with a very rough trip on the bay during the storm was responsible in a large measure for W. C.'s defeat. The team also felt the loss of Gary, who was unable to accompany them. This morning at 10:30 o'clock Washington College will play the first game of the season on the home grounds with the strong Wilmington Business School team and the game promises to be a hard fought battle. The boys say they are in fine condition and Gary will be in the game. Everybody go and give the boys encouragement.

Straw From Chile, S. A.—The steamer Corsica brought to Chestertown on Monday a cargo of baled wheat straw which was consigned to the American Strawboard Company. This straw was brought to Baltimore on a bark which sailed from Valparaiso, Chile, loaded with a cargo of iron ore, the baled straw having been used for dunnage. Mr. Joel R. Clements, the representative of the Chester River Steamboat Company here, stated that when all the straw was landed here there would be 1700 bales. Some idea as to the size of the ship can be ascertained when it is stated that these 1700 bales were only used for the purpose of "easing" the heavy weight of the cargo of iron ore, and yet it required two trips of the Corsica to bring it to Chestertown. Agent Dunbracco picked a quantity of wheat from the straw for the purpose of testing its growing qualities. It was learned that this wheat does not produce good flour and the experiment was abandoned. The bales were supported by sticks of South American wood and several of our citizens may be seen in the near future sporting walking sticks made of this material.

LITTLE LOCALS

*Mr. J. H. Sides moved into his new store between J. K. Aldridge & Co.'s hardware store and Sparks & Jefferson's dry goods store on Wednesday. He will have his opening on Monday and Tuesday. Mr. Sides will have one of the handsomest and largest jewelry stores in the state, and his stocks of goods will be rich and rare.

*A letter from Chrisfield says "Romeo and Juliett was played to a good house last year, but this year our best people say the Hall will not hold them." This company will be at Sam's Hall on Wednesday evening.

On Trial for Murder.—William T. fair was arraigned before the district court at Grand Junction, Col., last Saturday for the murder of Mr. Eben T. Massey, formerly of Millington, but for 20 years past the owner of a large cattle ranch in Colorado. Mrs. Robert Massey and Miss Etta Massey, mother and sister respectively, of the murdered man, are there from their home in Millington, together with Dr. David Madell, of Baltimore, an intimate friend.

RESULTS OF THE STORM.

The storm of last week was perhaps one of the severest and most general that has visited Kent county in years. Reports from all over the county are to the effect that considerable damage was done to property and to the corn still remaining in the fields. The heavy North-east wind that blew at terrific speed for several days drove the water out of Chester river and tributaries, causing the lowest tide in many years. On Saturday it was possible for one to walk from Chester bridge to the steamboat wharf, but one of our young men says that in his short lifetime he has seen the tide so low in the river as to enable one to walk under the Chester river wharf. Fishermen and oystermen had a harvest, doing with their hands in one day what they would not have been able to do in a week with the rake or net. One family near Quaker Neck wharf walked out on the bars and picked up nearly 100 bushels of oysters, while others took from 25 to 50 bushels. A buyer endeavored to buy up the day's work for 75 cents a bushel, but the oystermen held out for $1.00. Mr. George Rollison who has a fish pond across the river, caught a fish full of fine rock, pike and black bass, and up-the-river fishermen had a harvest. The Corsica made her trip to Crumpton on Friday but was grounded by the low tide of Saturday and did not reach Baltimore until Sunday afternoon on the return trip. Nearly all the bay steamers were locked in the harbor in Baltimore and the B. S. Ford did not reach her wharf here until Sunday afternoon at four o'clock. Quite a number of passengers were caught in Baltimore, among them the Washington College football team. Shade trees and telephone and electric light wires suffered to some extent. A large limb was blown from one of the handsome shade trees on Washington College campus, and a large tree in the heavy stable yard of Mr. Chas. H. Davis was demolished. No pumps were blown out of wells or feathers from the backs of chickens as was the case during the severe tornado during the summer. The storm was terrific along the Atlantic coast from Maine to Florida. Ocean City, Md., and Ocean City, N. J., suffered heavy losses to property, and lives were lost in New York and elsewhere.

MRS. HENRIETTA A. S. MARSH

Woman's Benevolent Association of Chicago.

Mrs. Henrietta A. S. Marsh, President Woman's Benevolent Association, of 827 Jackson Park Terrace, Woodlawn, Chicago, Ill., says:

"I suffered with the grippe for seven weeks and nothing helped me until I tried Peruna. I felt at once that I had at last secured the right medicine and kept steadily improving. Within three weeks I was fully restored."—Henrietta A. S. Marsh.

Independent Order of Good Templars, of Washington.

Mrs. T. W. Collins, Treasurer I. O. G. T., of Everett, Wash., has used the great catarrhal tonic, Peruna, for an aggravated case of dyspepsia. She writes:

"After having a severe attack of la grippe, I also suffered with dyspepsia. After taking Peruna I could eat my regular meals with relish, my system was built up, my health returned, and I have remained in excellent strength and vigor now for over a year."—Mrs. T. W. Collins.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

Address: Dr. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, O.
