LOCAL MATTERS.

Investigating Fires.—State Fire Marshall Price has been in Kent county during the week investigating the several mysterious fires that have been occurring lately.

Another Fire.—A serious fire occurred on one of the farms of Capt. Andrew Woodall near Fredericktown, in Cecil county, Tuesday evening.

Flag Raising.—The Quaker Neck public school was the scene of gay festivities on Friday afternoon last when was hoisted the handsome American flag presented to it last week by the Washington Camp No. 34, P. O. S. of A.

Looking for a Farm.—Mr. F. Hanke, a wealthy New Yorker, has been spending a few days in Chestertown at Pippin's Hotel.

Threatens Court With Fire.—State's Attorney Clayland Mullikin has received an anonymous letter postmarked Cordova, telling him that if George Parker, who was convicted of selling whiskey at Chapel District, and who is in jail at Easton, is not set free in time to eat his Thanksgiving dinner at home and his fine of $300 remitted and the indictment against the other violators in Chapel District quashed, the writers and the others will burn the court house, jail, the residences of Judge Martin and Mr. Mullikin, the Methodist and Episcopal churches and other buildings.

The Horse Ran Off.—Mr. Fryer, of the Chester River Company, had quite a novel experience with a fine livery team on Sunday night. The team was standing in front of the home of Mrs. Jonathan Anthony on High street.

Way go the Turkeys.—About 20,000 turkeys for Thanksgiving arrived along Light Street wharf this week. The Emma Ford carried about 1,000 from Chester River.

LITTLE LOCALS

The Association of Maryland School Commissioners and Examiners will hold its annual meeting in Baltimore on December 4th and 5th.

A full attendance of county teachers greeted Prof. Peterson on the opening of the Teacher's Association on Wednesday morning.

Thanksgiving Day was celebrated in the usual quiet way in Chestertown. Services were held in our churches, sports of various kinds were enjoyed, while those who wish a quiet day at home with the family, availed themselves of the pleasure.

McIntyre & Hodgkins, the obliging High street grocermen have rented for the holiday season the store room of Mr. M. A. Toulson, adjoining the tailoring establishment of H. Kaplan, and will have there a first-class stock of Christmas delicacies.

Mr. Graham, of Queen Anne's, who will engage in business with Mr. George W. Smith on January 1, will remove to the J. H. Sides house on Queen street, now occupied by Mr. and Mrs. George D. Loffland.

CHURCH NOTES.

Rev. J. M. Sheridan began a series of revival services at St. James' M. P. Church on Sunday evening last.

Union Thanksgiving services were held on Thursday in the M. E. Church. Rev. D. L. Greenfield preached an excellent sermon and the combined choirs of the two Methodist Churches rendered fine music.

NOTES FROM COLLEGE HILL.

The Washington College football season ended Saturday last with a record to be proud of. The season has been the most successful in the history of the College, and proved to all interested that next year's team, which will be practically the same, will, without doubt, pass this standard.

Washington College closed her football season on Saturday last, when she defeated the strong Wilmington Conference Academy team, at Dover, Del., by the score of 6 to 5.

Parvis kicked off for the Academy to Schutz, who advanced the ball 10 yards. By steady hits rushes and end plays it was taken 80 more yards down to W. C. A's 8-yard line.

Parvis kicked off again to W. C. The ball was now taken back to the Academy's 35-yard line, when Schutz recovered the ball and rushed across the line for 5 points.

In the second half W. C. kicked off again. The Academy, after a few rushes, was held for downs, and Parvis punted. W. C. now carried the ball 30 yards, but by a close decision of the referee, the Academy was given the ball on W. C.'s 20-yard line.

W. C. A's 40-yard line McGinnis ploughed through for gains of 10 and 15 yards. W. C. A's men seeming to lose strength completely. With 11 yards to make for a touch-down, time was called, neither side having scored in this half.

For W. C. O., Gary and McGinnis played a star game, while the quarter-back was worked to perfection by Schutz and Hitch.

For the Academy, W. Banks and J. Long played well.

THE LINE-UP. W. C. A. C. Long, Left End; A. Banks, Right End; J. Long, Left Tackle; J. Long, Right Tackle; J. Long, Left Guard; J. Long, Right Guard; J. Long, Quarterback; J. Long, Fullback; J. Long, Punter.

The following are the scores of 1903: Oct. 3—W. C. O.; Delaware, 27. Oct. 10—W. C. O.; Md. Agrl., 23. Oct. 30—W. C. O.; Wilmington M. A. O., 0. Nov. 6—W. C. O.; Conference Academy, 0. Nov. 14—W. C. O.; St. John's, 41. Nov. 21—W. C. O.; Conference Academy, 5.

WHAT PEOPLE SAY

About Pe-ru-na as a Remedy for All Diseases of Winter, Coughs, Colds and Catarrh. That Pe-ru-na cures catarrh, coughs, colds, is well known to both the medical profession and the people generally.

Pe-ru-na Cures a Cold at the Outset. Miss E. M. Isaacs, Armstrong, Pa., Vice-President of the Fortnightly Club, writes:

"No one who has tried the comforts Pe-ru-na brings would ever be without it. I used to dread the slightest cold, as its consequences were so lengthy and so unpleasant, and the catarrhal condition which invariably followed so hard to get rid of, but since I have known of the blessed relief secured through the use of Pe-ru-na, I am free from all this unpleasantness and suffering.

"A few doses never fails to cure me of a cold and I keep well through its use."—Miss E. M. Isaacs.

Hon. W. J. Purman, ex-member of Congress from Florida, writes from 1438 Q street, N. W., Washington, D. C., as follows:

"From representations to me and my own experience I feel justified in recommending your Pe-ru-na to any and all persons suffering with catarrh, nervousness or stomach troubles. I regard it as a great tonic and remedy for such afflictions. I, and others to whom I recommended it, are using it now with beneficial results."—W. J. Purman.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Pe-ru-na write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case, and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.
