THE CHESTERTOWN TRANSCRIPT, Chestertown, Md. Messrs. Editors—

In response to your invitation for expressions from the people on the United States Senatorship, I am not able to see where we could find a better Senatorial candidate than the Hon. Isidor Rayner. It seems to me we owe to him, who defended so admirably our own war hero, this honor. Then I like the way he has so frankly placed himself before the people, thus winning for us in the late election, it cannot be denied, many hundreds of votes.

True, the other aspirants are worthy men and it does look as if it is the Eastern Shoreman's turn, but did we not let that pass when we gave Mr. Gorman the seat two years ago? We are all sons of Maryland, so let us unite, acknowledging Mr. Rayner. That he will represent our best interests we feel perfectly confident.

EDWARD W. HEPBRON.

GALENA, Nov. 19, 1903.

What is most talked of here now is the election of a U. S. Senator. This district, as far as I have any knowledge of it, and I think I have some, is nearly all for the Hon. Isidor Rayner for U. S. Senator. I venture to say four-fifths of the Democratic voters are for Rayner, and as one man puts it, nine-tenths are for him.
When Mr. Rayner was advertised to speak in Chestertown during the campaign, it would do an old Democrat so much good to see what enthusiasm it diffused into the rank and file of the party. It put an old timer in mind of the Know Nothing campaign of 1856, when H. Winter Davis was advertised to speak. All went to hear him—his eloquence drew them to wards him. So with Rayner; he draws the people and holds them. Democrats, we expect our representatives in the Legislature, to vote according to the wishes of their constituents, and that would be for Rayner. Messrs. Foxwell, Gibbs and Atkinson are men of sound judgment, and they will carry out the wishes of the people. We are willing to leave it with them. The masterly and eloquent defense of the hero of Santiago by Mr.
Rayner ought to draw all Marylanders to him, and he is a Democrat of the old school. With Gorman and Rayner as U. S.
Senators, Maryland would be able to cope with any State in the Union.

A DEMOCRAT.

THE PEOPLE FOR HIM.
What a prominent citizen of Baltimore city says:

"I have never before known such an almost unanimous sentiment in favor of the election of any man as exists in favor of Hon. Isidor Rayner for United States Senator by the Democrats of Maryland. It is incomprehensible how any Democratic member of the Legislature can oppose him, knowing Mr. Rayner to be the choice of the party by a unanimity unprecedented in the history of the State.
The people demand his election, and the people must be heard. We unto those who attempt to stifle the voice of the people. Mr. Rayner is in every way qualified to serve the people of this good old Commonwealth with credit to himself and with honor to the State.

OBITUARY.

CAPTAIN JONATHAN ANTHONY.

Captain Jonathan Anthony, one of the best known and most highly respected citizens of Chestertown, died at the Marine Hospital, Baltimore, where he had gone for treatment, on Thursday evening.
Captain Anthony had been in poor health for some time, and his death was due to stomach trouble. Captain "Jack" Anthony, as he was familiarly known, was born in Queen Anne's county 58 years ago this month. He came to Kent county when quite young and entered the employ of the Chester River Steamboat Company.
For 27 years he has enjoyed the respect and confidence of his employers, and the travelling public had seemed to be even more at home when Captain Jack was in the pilot house of the company's steamers. During all this long time of service he was untiring in his efforts to promote the interests of the Chester River Company, and his familiarity with the details of the service and his ability as a seaman will render it extremely difficult for the company to fill his place.
He was one of the best know pilots on the Chesapeake, and enjoyed the respect of a host of friends here as well as all along the Chester River Line, who sympathize with his bereaved family.

His remains will be brought over on the Emma A. Ford, the Queen of the Chester, which the hand of the dead sailor has so often guided safely into port, to-day. Funeral services will be held at his late residence tomorrow (Sunday) afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, Rev.
E. P. Roberts officiating; interment in Chestertown cemetery. The pall bearers will be selected from the officers of the steamboat company. Undertaker J. E.
Ferguson will have charge of the funeral arrangements. The deceased leaves a widow and five children—Mrs. Hughes, Emma Grace, Mrs. Albert, of Baltimore, Misses Barbara and Iris, of Chestertown, and Prof. Harry D. Anthony, principal of the Queenstown Public School.

Capt. Anthony was a member of the Old Fellows and Independent Order of Heptasophis.

ALBERT G. CUNDIFF.
Capt. Albert G. Cundiff died at his late residence, 337 St. Paul street, Baltimore, on Monday after an illness of about one year. Captain Cundiff was one of the best known steamboat captains on the Chester River. He was 65 years old, and during the Civil War was in command of a union transport. For 25 years he was captain on the Ericsson line of steamers, but of late years was in the service of the Tolchester company. He was survived by a widow, who was Miss Emma J. Grace, Mrs. Albert, of Baltimore, Misses Barbara and Iris, of
thony, principal of the Queenstown Public School. Funeral services were held from his late residence on Wednesday at 2 o'clock.

COURT OF APPEALS DECISIONS.

Opinions Delivered in Kent County Cases.

The Court of Appeals has declared opinions in the following Kent county cases:

VALIDITY OF SUNDAY SALES.
J. Nelson Richards vs. Mollie F.
Richards. Judgment of the Circuit Court for Kent county reversed, with costs above and below and new trial awarded. The question in this case was as to the binding force of a barter or trade contract consummated and fully executed on Sunday.

KENT COUNTY ROAD CASE.
The County Commissioners of Kent county vs. Albert Godwin. Judgment of the Circuit Court for Kent county reversed, with costs without awarding a new trial. Hope H. Barroll, Esq., argued the case for Godwin and John D. Urie, Esq., represented the County Commissioners.

RIGHT-OF-WAY.
Vandergrift vs. Burke—Judgment of the Circuit Court for Kent county, sustained, with costs. Hope H. Barroll, Esq., argued the case for Vandergrift, and Wm. W. Beck, Esq., and James W. Chapman, Jr., Esq., of Baltimore, represented Burke.

WITH THE SICK
Col. Josiah Massey, who has been confined to his bed for some time with a slight attack of pneumonia, is improving rapidly under the care of Dr. W. Frank Hines.

Mrs. Hester A. Melvin, of Morgneck, who has been ill of pneumonia is convalescing under the care of Dr. H. G.
Simpers.

Mrs. Dr. James Roy Micou has been suffering with a severe cold for several days.

Miss Katie Wheatley has been quite sick for some days at her home on High street with a slight attack of La Grippe.
She is improving under the care of Dr.
H. B. Simmens.

Mrs. A. M. Bowers, who has been confined to her home for two weeks with pneumonia, is improving rapidly under the care of Dr. H. L. Dodd.

Dr. W. S. Maxwell, of Still Pond, who is quite ill of pneumonia is reported to be slightly improved. His physician is Dr. Messick.

Mrs. Dr. W. Frank Hines has been quite sick during the week at her Front street home.

CHAPTER OF ACCIDENTS.

Falling Timber Fractures the Limbs of two of Kent's Prominent Citizens—Hands Badly Lacerated.

Mr. John E. Morris, residing on Mr.
Samuel Vannort's farm near Fairlee, met with a painful accident on Tuesday morning. Mr. Morris was superintending the sawing of a pile of wood, when a part of the wood slipped, catching Mr.
Morris' left leg. His limb was fractured between the knee and ankle. Dr. W.
Frank Hines rendered surgical aid and we are glad to state that Mr. Morris is resting comfortably.

Mr. James Beck, of Piney Neck, met with a severe accident on Thursday of last week. He was engaged in cutting tall pines to be used as piling when in some manner one of the trees fell upon him and broke one of his legs near the knee. Dr. W. O. Selby set the fractured limb and the patient is doing nicely.

Mr. Charles King, brakeman on the Kent railroad, fell on the street yesterday morning and sustained a fracture of the same bone—the knee cap—that was broken some months ago while attempting to board the train at the old depot.
Mr. King was walking along the slippery pavement toward the old depot to his work. When opposite the residence of Mr.
Ralph Barnett on High street, Mr. King slipped and fell with such force upon his right leg that the tender bone was re-fractured. Mr. King had gone to work on Tuesday for the first time since his first accident.

On Friday morning last Mr. Wm. S.
Evans, owner of Roller's Range farm, near St. Michaels, was operating a corn husker, when Edward Miller, who was feeding the Machine had his hand caught, drawn in by the machine and badly torn.
Mr. Evans promptly went to his rescue and had both his hands caught in the same manner and severely lacerated. Both, however, were extricated and surgical aid rendered. The wounded men were disabled several weeks.—St. Michaels Comet.

Mr. Evans is well-known in Chestertown, having resided on Queen street, near Mr. Wm. H. Lambert. Some months ago he purchased the above fine farm and moved his family there. His many friends here hope for his speedy recovery.

WEDDING BELLS.

CARTER—LANDENBERG.

Mr. Charles L. Carter, the well-known proprietor of Carter's Paper Mill, near Singerly, Cecil county, was married on Wednesday at noon to Miss M. L. Landenberg at the residence of the bride's mother, in Germantown, Philadelphia.
An elaborate reception followed the ceremony. After an extended wedding tour, Mr. and Mrs. Carter will occupy the fine new residence which has recently been erected and handsomely furnished, near Providence, Cecil county. Mr. Carter is the youngest brother of Mrs. Hiram M. Brown, of Chestertown.

LANE—HEALEY.

Miss Alice Lee Healey was married on Thursday evening to Mr. Charles Elliott Lane, at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Mary M. Healey, 1828 Bolton St., Baltimore. The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. B. Patterson, of Madison Ave.
M. E. Church, assisted by Rev. Junius W. Millard, of Eutaw Place Baptist Church. The bride was given away by her uncle, Mr. James E. Healy. She wore a gown of white chiffon, pearl de-cayon over white tulle, silk, trimmed with chiffon applique and embroidered chiffon. Her tulle veil was caught with orange blossoms, and she carried a shower bouquet of bride roses and lilies of the valley. The flower girl was Miss Elsie Rayner, granddaughter of Mr.
William J. Vannort. Mr. William Spear Browley was one of the ushers. Miss Mary Knight and Mrs. William R.
Pippin attended the wedding from Chestertown. Mr. and Mrs. Lane will reside in Montclair, N. J.

SUMMERS—HUBBARD.

The marriage of Miss Grace Wooten Hubbard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm.
L. Hubbard, and a cousin of Wilbur W.
Hubbard, Chestertown, Md., to Mr.
Walter Penrose Summers, took place on Wednesday at noon in Madison Avenue M. E. Church, Baltimore. The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. B. Patterson.
The bride was given away by her father.
She wore a very beautiful gown of white panne crepe de chine with garniture of brussels lace and pearls, a tulle veil caught with orange blossoms and carries a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley.
Her jewels were a brooch of pearls and diamonds. She was attended by Miss Anna Maxwell Grise, of Easton, as best girl. A breakfast for the bridal party and members of the two families only was served after the wedding at the residence of the bride's parents, 842 West North Avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Summers left for a wedding trip South. They will reside at 748 Reservoir street. Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur W. Hubbard attended the wedding from Chestertown.

Dr. W. Frank Hines and Mr. Cornelius Brown, members of the School Board, attended the meeting of Examiners and School Commissioners held in Baltimore on Wednesday and Thursday. Examiner Peterson was detained at home on account of the pressure of business.
