What's in a Namelet?

Oh, girly girls.
With sunny curls,
And eyes
Blue as the skies,
And lots of lovely things;
The poet sings.
Won't you just the same,
Take on the proper name,
And drop
Kerflop,
Bessie and

About Shoes.

Never try to wear a shoe too small or that does not fit you when first put on.

Never let your shoe get hard or dry.

Do not let it run down at the heel or the side.

Never wear into the welt or insole.

A shoe repaired in time will retain its shape and afford comfort, and will be found true economy.

Never put wet shoes by the fire to dry, but dry them gradually and slowly.

Never dry a wet shoe without first applying some oil or greese—castor oil or tallow is the best.

The steam generated in a wet boot or shoe will scald it and cause it to crack.

Do not use too much force in polishing—a gentle brushing with a soft brush is better than the vigorous work of the bootblack.

Do not allow a thick crust of blacking on your shoes.

Wash it off occasionally and apply a little castor oil—you can polish it over in an hour or two.

Never try on or handle a patent leather shoe when cold; always thoroughly warm it before bending the leather.

A patent leather shoe put on in a warm room can be worn out in the cold weather without injury.

Never put a good pair of shoes in galoshes; use an old pair for this, and withdraw the galoshes as soon as you enter a house.

Nine Rules for Bathers.

Avoid bathing within two hours after a meal.

Avoid bathing when exhausted by fatigue or from any other cause.

Avoid bathing when the body is cooling after perspiration.

Avoid bathing altogether in the open air if, after having been a short time in the water, it causes a sense of chilliness and numbness of the hands and feet.

Bathe when the body is warm, provided no time is lost in getting into the water.

Avoid chilling the body by sitting or standing undressed on the banks or in boats after having been in the water.

Avoid remaining too long in the water; leave the water immediately if there is the slightest feeling of chilliness.

The vigorous and strong may bathe early in the morning on an empty stomach. The young and those who are weak had better bathe two or three hours after a meal—the best time for such is from two to three hours after breakfast.

Those who are subject to attacks of giddiness or faintness, and those who suffer from palpitation and other sense of discomfort at the heart, should not bathe.

Infantile Depravity.

Little Frances is three years old.

She is the proud possessor of a fat rubber doll which goes by the name of Edna.

Frances and Edna are inseparable companions.

One day Frances's mamma discovered the newly polished window pane covered with finger marks, and she spoke to the child in this wise:

"Frances, mamma didn't see who made all those finger marks on mamma's nice clean window pane, because her back was turned; but the dear Lord up in the sky saw who did it, and the angels wrote it down in a big book. Now tell me, Frances, do you know who marked up mamma's window?

"Yes'm," replied Baby Frances, looking mamma straight in the eye.

"Now, you must tell me right, you know, because the angles are listening."

"Yes'm."

"Frances, who marked up mamma's window like that?"

"Edna," replied the tot, promptly pointing to her rubber doll.

Remedy for Hoarseness.

George Washington, while attending a swell reception at Newport, noticed that the daughter of his host, Miss Ellery, was suffering from a severe sore throat and could not speak above a whisper. Gen. W., observing this embarrassment of his youthful hostess, said to her:

"Miss Ellery, you seem to be suffering very much; what is the matter?"

Miss Ellery told him the cause of her trouble, upon which the general said to her:

"I suffer myself very frequently from a sore throat and take a remedy which I find very useful, and which I would recommend to you were I not sure you would not take it."

"But I am sure," replied Miss Ellery "that I would take any remedy that Gen. Washington would propose."

"Well, then," said the general, "it is this—onions boiled in molasses. It has cured me often."

Miss Ellery took the remedy and, of course, was cured.

A Courteous Man.—Show me the man who is habitually courteous to other men of all degrees and I will show you a man who is sure to be kind to his wife his children and his horse. I saw a man give up his seat in a horse car the other day to another who was old and shabby. After standing for ten minutes the one first named alighted and three little children danced down to the gate to meet him. Good tendencies are always recorded on earth, although good acts may wait for a space.

He was a Stayer.—He had staid and staid the night before until the girl was mad enough to say anything, and she did the next day when she met him.

"I had a perfectly lelightful time at your house last night," he murmured when he met her.

"Time?" she said, curtly. "It was more like eternity."

Overlooked.—Mrs. Hicks—Why is it that you forget everything I send you for? You ought to tax your memory.

Hicks—Tax my memory! there I'll bet McKinley forgot all about that.

Politenes has been compared to an air cushion, which, although there is apparently nothing in it, eases our jolts wonderfully.

MICROBE KILLER
CURES ALL DISEASES.

It is conceded beyond a doubt that fermentation (microbes) is the cause of all disease, and we claim that no medicine can cure disease unless it has the combined qualities of a Blood Purifier, Antiseptic and Tonic. This powerful combination stops fermentation and arrests decay, thereby assisting nature to cure. We will mail you circulars free, explaining the germ theory of disease. Ask your druggest for it, or address.

'Square Dealing Means Success.'

HONEST TRANSACTIONS!

THIS is our motto, and one we have had hung up with the people of Kent and Queen Anne's counties for the past ten years. One suit justly sold sells another, and by selling the quantity we handle, we do not have to add a big margin on any one suit, but moderate profit will aggregate in quantity, and we are satisfied with small margins and larger sales. We claim to deal as justly with the man who is not a judge as the one who has had the opportunity of being better posted, and in these days of perplexities, when cotton is so blended with wool that even the closest scrutiny fails to reveals the fact, then it is even more important to buy where such an announcement as we make is fully substantiated, for our effort in business is to make permanent trade, and not sell a man one suit and lose him when in want of another. Come and see us and if we don't show you a line of goods to suit you, and give you prices in harmony with a limited purse, it will not be our fault, for we have visited the largest manufactures in the country and ground them down to the lowest possible prices on a line of goods that cannot fail to please the most fastidious, consequently we are in a position to please you.

FURNISHING GOODS AND HATS!

we havn't space to tell you of our line, it is too large, come and see it.

SHOES! SHOES! SHOES!

We are selling lots of them. This alone is sufficient evidence of the substantial line we carry. We have anything a Man or Boy can desire, and made to measure and guarantee a fit from the finest stock. Plow Shoes, buckle or lace, 90c.; Solar Tip 90c.

Equitable Life Assurance Society,

OF THE UNITED STATES.

Before assuring your life, or investing your money, examine the Twenty-Year Tontine Policies of The Equitable Life Assurance Society of the U. S.

Policies maturing in 1891 realize cash returns to the owners, of amounts varying from 120 to 176% of the money paid in, besides the advantage of the Assurance during the whole period of twenty years.

The following is one of many actual cases maturing this year:

Endowment Policy No. 64,925.
Issued in 1871, at age 27. Amount, $5,000.
Premium, $239.90. Total Prems. Paid $4,798.

RESULTS

at End of Tontine Period in 1891:

Cash Surrender Value, $8,449.45

(Equal to $176.10 for each $100 paid in premiums, which is equivalent to a return of all premiums paid, with interest at 7¼ per cent. per annum.)
Or, in lieu of cash,

A Paid-up Life Policy for $19,470

(Equal to $405.80 for each $100 paid in premiums.)
Or,

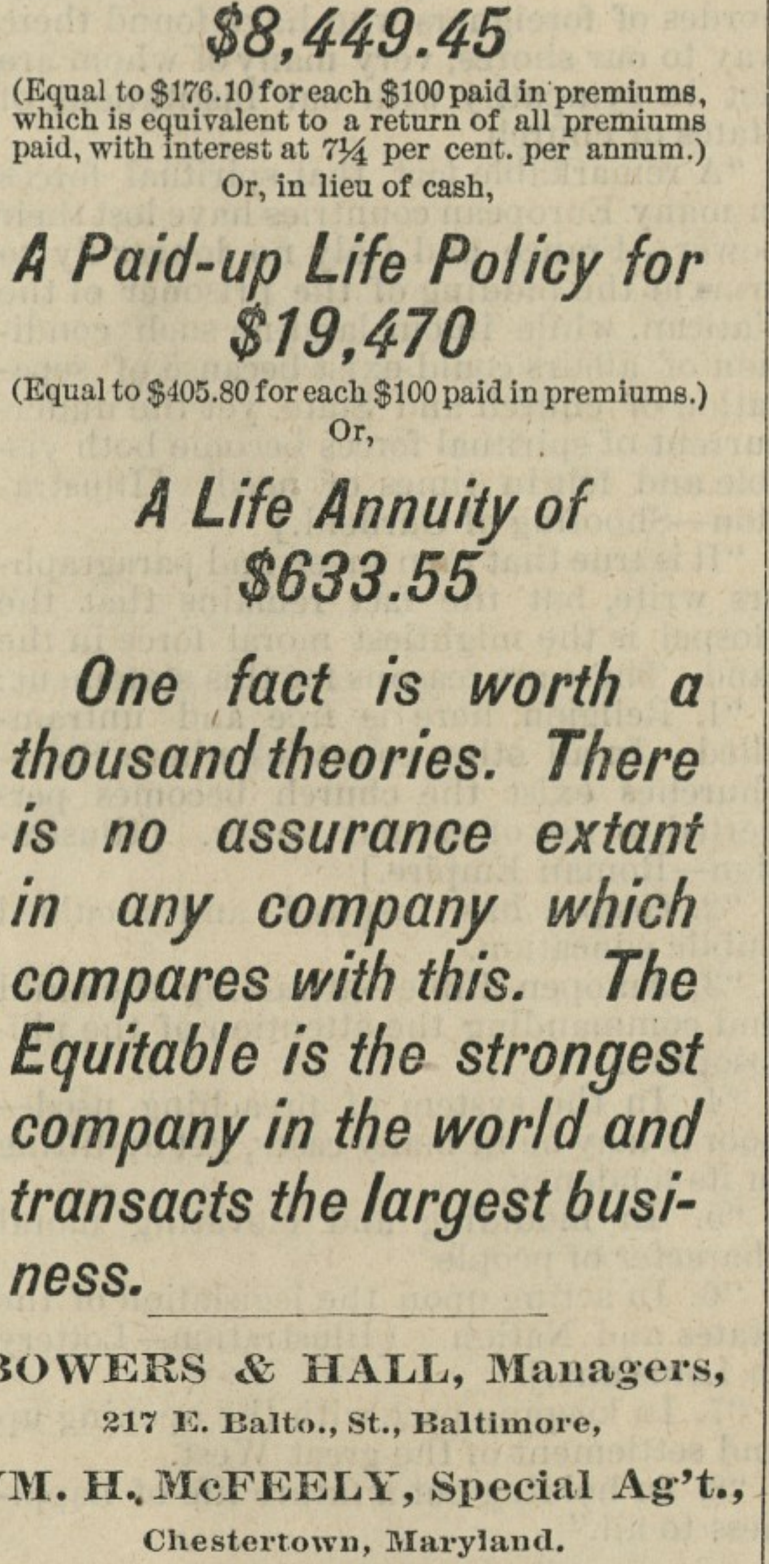

A Life Annuity of $633.55

One fact is worth a thousand theories. There is no assurance extant in any company which compares with this. The Equitable is the strongest company in the world and transacts the largest business.
