CHESTERTOWN, - AUG. 8, 1891

The Press on the Ticket.

WHAT IS THOUGHT OF MR. SMITH.

It was conceded that the nomination for Comptroller must go to the Eastern Shore and the selection of M. deK. Smith has been judicious.—Bel Air Aegis.

Though nominated in the convention by acclamation, the nominees for Comptroller and Clerk of the Court of Appeals did not get their nominations without a preliminary contest, but both are men admirably suited to the positions for which they have been named. They are both true and tried Democrats, men of experience in public affairs, irreproachable in character and strong politically, and their names will draw strength to the ticket on the Eastern Shore and in Southern Maryland.—Harford Democrat.

The next Comptroller of the Treasury is a man well-known to the people of the Eastern Shore for his fine business qualifications, and we congratulate the Democracy of the State in making Mr. Smith its candidate.—Snow Hill Messenger.

For Comptroller Marion deKalb Smith is well equipped, and for Clerk of the Court of Appeals J. Frank Ford is qualified in an eminent degree.—Westminster Advocate.

Marion deKalb Smith, Esq., the nominee for Comptroller, hails from Kent, our sister county on the other side of Chester river, and is well known to many of our people. He is a young man and a lawyer and has an extensive practice. For the past eight years he has been State's attorney for his county, and discharged the duties thereof with promptness and ability. He is popular with the people of Kent, and he justly deserves their confidence and support. He will make an excellent Comptroller.—Centreville Record.

The candidates for Comptroller and Clerk of the Court of Appeals are likewise men eminently fitted for the positions which they will soon be called upon to fill. Mr. Ford is an experienced clerk of the circuit court, and Mr. Smith is an able lawyer and business man.—Denton Journal.

Mr. Smith, the nominee for Comptroller, like Mr. Ford, the nominee for Clerk of the Court of Appeals, has not been identified with State politics and consequently not so well known in the State. He is considered a very safe man to place at the head of the State's finances.—Salisbury Advertiser.

Marion DeKalb Smith, the nominee for Compttoller, is a native of our sister county, Kent. He deserves and, no doubt, will receive the undivided support of our party. We have almost from the beginning expected his nomination. A better one, we will add, could not have been made.—Queen Anne's Advocate.

Mr. Smith is justly popular with the people of Kent. He will make an excellent comptroller.—Centreville Observer.

"Marion Dr. Kalb Smith, of Kent," is the way the Denton Union prints it.

Gov. Jackson in an interview since the nomination says the ticket "is first class in every respect."

"It has been stated," continued Gov. Jackson, "that Mr. Smith, the nominee for Comptroller, is not generally known through the State, even by the politicians. This is true, and the circumstance is due to the fact that he is a man who always attends to business and who is always to be found at his post of duty. For eight years he has served as State's attorney of Kent county, where he has performed the arduous duties of the position in a manner to win him golden opinions of political friends and foes alike. He will carry into the office to which he will be elected the same habits of faithfullness and industry and attention to public duty. So strict has he always been in looking after the public interests entrusted to his care that he has rarely, if ever, attended State conventions, and in all the years I have been going to Annapolis I have never seen him there.

The Ticket as a Whole.

Extraordinary harmony and practical unanimity characterized the proceedings of the democratic convention at its meeting in this city Thursday. Three of the candidates named by it for important offices were nominated by acclamation, and the nomination of the fourth was made unanimous before the result of the ballot was announced. Differences and rivalries, it was evident, had been settled beforehand by friendly consultation. Equally exceptional were the warmth and spontaneity of the endorsement of Senator Gorman's course in regard to the force bill—an appropriate and just recognition of his services at a great legislative crisis. The declaration that he should be re-elected to the United States Senate was hearty and strong and is in accord with democratic sentiment not only in Maryland, but in the country at large.—Baltimore Sun.

The election of the ticket is a foregone conclusion. It is only a question of majority.—Easton Star.

"We have met the enemy and he is ours." The Sun feels troubled, it can't boss the bosses, and it likes the Farmers' Alliance full as well as a cat does hot soup.—Farmers' Alliance Journal.

The ticket as named and located is a good one and Somerset county will rally to its support with as much enthusiasm as if Mr. Brattan had been placed on it, and Mr. Brattan has said that he will outdo its most earnest supporter in his work for its triumph.—Marylander.

The ticket is a strong one, nominated by an outburst of popular opinion. The popular vote will sustain it, and at the election the majority will be greater than any State ticket has received for years.—Baltimore Merchants' and Manufacturers' Journal.

Every man upon the ticket is an honorable gentleman, against whom there can be naught said to their disadvantage, and if the star of Democracy is in the ascendant in November, the affairs of the State will be conducted by them in a manner creditable to the party and satisfactory to the whole commonwealth.—Anne Arundel Advertiser.

The personnel of the convention, the ticket nominated, the principles proclaimed and the speeches made on the floor of the convention, inaugurate the fall campaign with an enthusiasm never before equalled in this State.—Wicomico News.

The ticket is an exceedingly strong one. It was made by the people, and the people will see to it that it is elected.—Westminster Advocate.

With the candidates that have been nominated standing upon this platform, the Farmers' Alliance in Maryland can stand squarely by the Democrat party, resting upon the assurance of the convention embodied in this platform that the reforms they advocate are endorsed and supported by the Democracy.—Easton Democrat.

With the candidates presented so eminently qualified for the several offices they have been selected to fill, and with a united Democracy as was evidenced by the remarkable unanimity which characterized the convention, there can be no question of the election of the ticket by an increased majority.—Cecil Democrat.

Collectively and individually the ticket is a strong one, and the Record predicts that the Democracy of Queen Anne's will give it more majority than any other county of the State.—Centreville Record.

Never has the party had a stronger ticket, and never has there been more perfect harmony among Democrats throughout the State.—Denton Journal.

The State ticket, nominated at the Convention in Baltimore on Thursday last by the Democrats, is one of the best that has been presented to the party in Maryland for years. To say we are pleased hardly expresses it. We are delighted. From top to bottom it is excellent. Take it altogether it is a suprisingly good ticket, and thoroughly a representive one. Frank Brown is a people,s man, and is the people's choice for Governor, and will make a people's Governor.—Queen Anne's Adocate.

Mr. Brown's nomination is probably the strongest that could be made in the State. He is himself a farmer, and is largely and closely connected with the farming interests of the State, which will find in him a ready sympathizer and efficient and active advocate.—Harford Democrat.

With such a ticket, headed by Frank Brown, Democratic success is again assured. It is a strong ticket, and we ask for it the support of every man who favors Democratic principles.—Bel Air Aegis and Intelligencer.

The ticket nominated by the State Convention held in Baltimore on Thursday, commands the respect of every Democrat in the State, and it will received the largest majority polled in ten years.—Snow Hill Messenger.

All in all the action of the convention has been such as to cement the party in every section of the State, and thus place us in a strong position for the great national battle of 1892.—Marlboro' Gazette.

A Few Republican Opinions.

Captain Wm. D. Burchinal, Surveyor of the Port, says: "So far as the candidates are concerned it is a good ticket, and it will not do for the Republicans to underrate it when making their nominations. It has been said that Mr. Smith was not the choice of his party, which, in my opinion, is a great mistake. It was the peculiar circumstances attending the entire selection of candidates that created this impression. Smith was fought by the Independents who desired to control the nomination of comptroller and not by the party generally. It will be found that Smith will get the entire vote of his party."

Deputy Collector of Customs Henry Lingenfelder said: "I do not think the ticket is a machine one. Mr. Brown was the man the masses of the Democratic perty wanted and he got the nomination on that account."

Naval Officer Urner said: "Mr. Brown is a very clever gentleman, and possesses many elements of popularity."

A Pear Cider Case.

The Tolchester "pear cider" case was heard before Justice J. Evan Thomas last Saturday. James T. Lamb was charged by James J. McKenna and S. L. Merrick with selling intoxicating drinks at his store on the main road in the woods near Tolchester. Rich'd D. Hynson, Esq., appeared as counsel for the defense. The State's witnesses failed altogether in establishing their case against the party charged and nearly a dozen witnesses for the defense were present and testified for Lamb, declaring that the only drink sold at his store was "pear cider," and that it was not intoxicating. The justice dismissed the case.

OTHER PETTY CASES.—Constable Henley arrested on Saturday, Richard Barbus, colored, upon a charge of assault and battery against Richard Starling, also colored. Alexander Taylor against Elizabeth White, assault and battery upon Taylor's daughter; not guilty. Frank Reese, colored, assault and battery upon William Cousins, colored; not guilty. Bailiff Kelley lodged in jail on Saturday night, for disorderly conduct, James Fairfax, colored, Andrew Murry, colored, and John Myers and Edward Donnelly, two peach plucks, for drunken and disorderly conduct. The men were fined by Justice Johnson, one dollar, and released in consideration of a promise of good behavior, and that they would go to work. Mat Graves, colored, was fined for assault and battery upon Carry Brown, colored. Geo. W. Harrington was arrested on Saturday by Constable Simpson, and Justice Thomas sent him to the House of Correction for six months.

The Latest Swindle.

Possibly some lady reader of the NEWS in this county has received a notice similar to the following:

Office of "The Home Fascinator," Montreal, Canada, July 20, 1891.—Dear Madam: With pleasure we inform you that you are one of the successful competitor's in the World's Fair word contest, and that you have been awarded an elaborate tea set, gold lined. The cost of boxing, packing and shipping is $4.90, which amount kindly remit us by registered letter, postoffice order, or express money order, and will instruct our United States agency to ship the prize to you. To avoid mistakes you will oblige us by returning this letter, with your full address written plainly in ink on the lines below. Congratulating you, we remain faithfully,

THE HOME FASCINATOR PUBLISHING CO.

P. S.—We ask you as a special favor to show this beautiful prize to your friends and at the same time to speak a good word for The Home Fascinator.

This "Home Fascinator Company," it is said, has secured a large circulation upon the basis of this lottery plan: A copy of the paper to be sent and four prizes awarded to the persons sending the largest correct list of English words of not less than four letters, costructed from the letters contained in the words "The World's Fair," each competitor to send with his list the sum of $1. Prizes were advertised to be awarded as follows: first, $1,000 in gold, second prize a grand piano, valued at $400, and the fourth prize a sewing machine, estimated at $65. As to the third prize, consisting of a silver tea set, gold-lined and valued at $120, the clever and unique plan was adopted of awarding it to thousands of persons, as is indicated by the receipt of the above printed notice, which was sent through the United States to the subscribers of the paper throughout the country. In some towns as many a half dozen have been notified that they were each awarded this silver tea set! And stranger still each one was fool enough to send on the $4.90!

Court News.

The county commissioners met on Tuesday, with a full board present. The board received eight proposals to build the iron bridge at Sparks' mill, representatives of each company being present. Bids were made by the Wrought Iron Bridge Co., of Canton, O; Dean & Westbrook, N. Y.; E, A. Perkins & Co., Horseheads, N. Y.; King Iron Bridge Co., Cleveland, O.; Croton Bridge Co., N. Y.; Pittsburg Bridge Company, Pa.; Riverside Bridge and Iron Works, N.Y.; Smith Bridge Co., Toledo, Ohio. The highest bid was $1,299; the lowest, $1,150; contract awarded to the Canton Bridge Co., provided their plan be submitted to a competent engineer, who shall find that it is not in excess of the other bids. Upon petition of W. T. Henry, permission was granted to erect a store-room 14x16 at Quaker Neck landing, for the purpose of storing fishing tackle, oyster rigging, etc., provided that public rights and privileges to said landing is not infringed upon. Wm. B. Usilton, county treasurer, presented a list of tax-payers whose property was offered for sale for taxes, by the sheriff, and not sold for want of bidders, which list was allowed a credit to county taxes in the treasurer's hand, and ordered to be certified to the Comptroller as a property credit on State taxes in favor of the treasurer. The board was further engaged in examining, approving and passing accounts for orders. Upon recommendation of Dr. John W. Latimer, an order was passed granting permission to Mary Benton, of Georgetown, to the use of the Free Bed in the Maryland General Hospital.

LAND SALES.—The real estate of Mr. E. B. Emory was sold in Centreville last Tuesday as follows: The Watson farm in Spaniard's Neck, 182 acres, for $3,913, to John M. Perry and C. A. Busteed. The Myers farm, five miles from Centreville, 310 acres, to W. E. Watson for $5,425. The Poplar Grove stock farm, 470 acres, for $26,414, to Mrs. Henrietta B. Emory and Miss M. J. Tilghman, of Centreville. The farm of Clayton Wright, 150 acres, sold for $9,680 to T. H. Dodd.

GOOD PRICES.—Mr. E. B. Emory, of Queen Anne's, has sold to John J. Gibbons, of Pa., his two-year-old filly Happy Lady, by Happy Russell, dam Lady Washington, record 2.28, for $4,000 cash. Mr. Gibbons was also the owner of Happy Bee, an own sister to Happy Lady, who trotted at Cleveland, Ohio, on Wednesday of last week, in 2.17¼, since which time he has sold her for $10,600.

WOODLAWN CAMP MEETING, at Woodlawn, Cecil county, Md., will begin on Tuesday, August 11. The Rev. Adam Stengle of Port Deposit will be pastor in charge of the meeting.

ROCK HALL LOCALS.

The McKinley Tariff bill in no wise affected a flock of sheep belonging to Mr. John Grulkey, tenant on the farm of Mr. J. V. Crosby. In January last they dropped ten lambs, and in June the same flock dropped eleven more.

The gentlemen employed by the U. S. to survey Rock Hall harbor, &c., have secured the services of Messrs. P. W. Middleton, Edw. Proctor and Wm. H. Sanford to assist them in their work, who are now becoming quite proficient in that line of business, much to the satisfaction of a number of our citizens, who hold in dispute old dividing lines of long standing. It is said that Unc. contemplates employing Jinks, Ned and Buck next winter to resurvey several disputed lines and straighten up the plats of various lots near the village.

Our genial road supervisor, Bro. Nick, must have met with a close shave some days ago. It is said while he was letting the water off the road in front of Miss A.'s dwelling, the lady suddenly pounced upon him for spoiling her footway. Poor fellow, his lodge friends presented a petition for a sum of money to repair damages. It is to be hoped that he will be more discreet in the future.

We had offered us a few days ago a chance to become wealthy in a very short space of time. The offer seems questionable. While we do not lay very strong claims to absolute honesty, as we have often said, every man has his price, yet this price is too large for us, it being $50,000. If some good fellow would join us on a trip te New York it might be advantageous to many.

The music of the saw and hammer is heard all along the line these days. Arks are going up like mushrooms of a night, boats are being built and repaired and painted, preparatory to entering into the work of the oyster season, soon to open. Quite an addition of new boats and new men will engage in the business the coming season. It is thought that the oyster business will not be brisk until after September, because of an abundant supply of fruit.

The contemplated picnic of the M. E. Sunday-school having failed for the time being, quite a number of ladies and gentlemen, with a goodly number of young folks, held an independent picnic on Swan Point on Thursday of last week, which was highly enjoyed by those present, notwithstanding the shower of rain in the morning. Many others had made preparation to go, but were deterred by the rain.

Mr. J. A. Hersch, the veteran oyster rake handle maker of this place is prepared to supply the trade in that line, he having about 180 pairs of handles on hand of his own make, ranging in length from 10 to 25 feet, made of good North Carolina pine. Parties wishing to secure a good article will do well to give him an early call. He has always on hand a good smoke for his patrons also.

Perch fishing has been quite good during the week. Capt. S. M. Taylor and his two sons caught with hook and line about 50 bunches, or about 1,200 perch in one day. P. G. Ashley, the villiage blacksmith, and D. W. Ayres, the enterprising blacksmith of the Haven, are both very busy manufacturing oyster tongs and boat irons, in fact there seems to be great activity among the watermen, preparing for the ensuing season. R.

REPUBLICAN POLITICS.

County, State and National.

Locally the Republicans are now very quiet. They adjourned their county convention until Sept. 9th, at which time they propose to nominate a county ticket, hoping in the meantime to have something "turn up" in the Democratic camp to give them some hope of success.

The convention to nominate a State ticket will be held on the 27th instant at Ocean City.

Gen. Agnus, who was the choice of the Republicans, having declined the nomination, the active men in the party are looking for a candidate popular with the masses, and such a one as will make a fight worthy of the party in the State. Ex-Senator Cresswell has been strongly urged to come to the front again, but he declines, and Ex-Congressman McComas will be strongly pressed to permit the use of his name, and others mentioned are Joseph M. Cushing Lloyd Lowndes, and Wm. J. Vannort, of Kent county.

The Baltimore Sun's polical article of last Saturday states that "the names that meet with most favor among the republicans for Governor are John A. J. Cresswell, of Cecil, and Lloyd Lowndes, of Allegany. Mr. Vannort, of Kent, is the only candidate who has expressed a willingness to accept."

Senators Cameron and Quay, of Pennsylvania, are believed to have made up their minds to oppose President Harrison's renomination, but it is not so sure that they will support Mr. Blaine.

Secretary Blaine is now generally understood to be seeking the Presidential nomination. A New Yorker recently interviewed him at Bar Harbor reports him as speaking very slightingly of "the Harrison crowd." The administration pary is blamed with the conflicting accounts of Blaine's health.

This candidacy of Blaine and Harrison insures a pretty lively fight in Maryland between the "ins" and the outs." The Towsontown Union, a leading republican paper of this State, in its last issue has the following item upon this point: "It is said that Capt. W. D. Burchinal, Surveyor of the Port of Baltimore, may resign that position to become the nominee of the Republican party for Clerk of the Circuit Court of Kent county. It may not be generally known, but there is much ill feeling between the heads of the different departments in the Baltimore Custom House and this may have something to do with the proposed voluntary retirement of Capt. Burchinal."

THE Baltimore Sun states that its reporters interviewed the delegates at the recent State convention as to their candidate for President in 1892, and gives the total vote as follows:

Cleveland	65
Gorman	60
Party's nomination	9
Declined to answer	5
Hill	2
Whitney	1
Cleveland or Gorman	1
Cleveland or Campbell	1
Undecided	1

MILLINGTON LOCALS.

Peaches, Tramps, Ignoramusses, &c.

The peaches are coming in in better quality. The yellow fruit is as large as in any past year and well flavored—it is that of the genuine peach. We have several buyers here. The growers think they have combined and are buying at a lower figure than they should, but we know they are paying much better prices than shippers are receiving.

Our attention was called to an article in the Every Evening, copied from the Philadelphia Ledger. Millington is reported as a town of three hundred inhabitants. I learn from Mr. Price, the late enumerator, our town at the enumeration contained 597 inhabitants. Millington appears to be in ill luck. A number of papers published her as having two car loads of premature peaches returned to the original shippers from Philadelphia by the board of health. A likely thing indeed! Now, no newspaper with any claim of intelligence should be led into such an error.

The tramps of this season are a much better class than in the past; better dressed and more willing to work and generally intelligent. I learn from them that there is much distress with the laboring class of the woolen manufactures. It is strange and a disappointment. Everybody was promised that the McKinley bill would be a panacea for all the ills in the United States.

Miss Edith Reese, daughter of the late A. J. Reese, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. James R. Jones.

Dr. Jeter and wife, of Blueridge, Va., are visiting Mr. John McWhorter, Mrs. Jeter's father.

Mrs. John Crane of Phila., is visiting her mother-in-law Mrs. Dr. Crane.

Thomas Jeffers is now on the pension list at $12 per month; he is a grandson of Joseph Jeffers, who served in the Revolution, and was on the pension roll at $8 per month at the time of his death, which was in '40 or '41. He was buried on his own farm, now owned by Gov. Biggs, by the Millington Grays, commanded by Capt. E. Massey, First Lieutenant R. Millington, 2d, William Strong. Your writer was a boyish member of the company. We had 36 muskets in line. The deceased took part in all Fourth of July celebrations and always had the honor of bearing the flag. The small boy spoke of him as Uncle Joe Jeffers, the revolutionary soldier. Tom saw Gen. Lee's surrender, after which he was sent to Texas where he contracted scurvey. He owns a house and lot in town and says he can now live in ease, but shall continue to work. He is patrician in his department. J.

Peninsular Editors' Excursion.

The Peninsula Press Association, representing the papers of Delaware and the Eastern Shore of Maryland, met at Broad-Street Station, in Philadelphia, Saturday morning, where they took the 8.50 A. M. express for Watkins Glen. The Pennsylvania Railroad Company placed at the disposal of the party two special cars. At 1.01 P. M. they arrived at Watkins, immediately at the foot of Seneca Lake. They were quartered at the Glen Mountain House. On Sunday morning a party of 75 persons went through the glen. Monday morning the party left Watkins on the steamer Schuyler on Lake Seneca, and after a ride of 40 miles they were landed at Geneva, where the party again took the train, and after five hours' run reached Niagara. The party visited Toronto, Canada, and all points of interest connected with the Niagara Falls excursions.

The editorial party is composed of the following persons: J. B. Clarke and wife, John Y. Todd and wife, Mrs. George E. Haddaway, Mrs. Nina F. Aldridge, Rev. W. W. W. Wilson and wife, Clarence Hodson, Mrs. A. K. Welck, C. F. Hinchliffe, Nictor M. Lorbort, C. J. Freeman and sister, E. J. Grubbe and wife, C. W. Edwards, wife and child, Watson Broadway and wife, E. DIED.

Suddenly, on August 4, 1891, MARY LOUISA, aged 36 years, beloved wife of Edward A. Benny, and daughter of the late William A. Miller, of Galena, this county.

In Philadelphia, Aug. 4, 1891, HELEN RAE, only child of Dr. J. A. and Ida M. Vannort, and granddaughter of the late A. L. and Arilla A. Vannort, aged 18 months, 3 weeks. Interment in Derby Friends Cemetery, Friday, Aug. 7th.

Obituary.—Died at the residence of her father, near Worton Station, Wednesday, July 29, 1891, ADA BELL, eldest daughter of William D. and Mary E. Carter, aged 13 years, 1 week and 3 days. The funeral services were held at the house Friday, at 9 o'clock A. M., and were conducted by Revs. A. E. Keigwin and Q. L. Morrow. The remains were interred in Union M. E. Church-yard. The bearers were Thomas Massey, Tilden Cooper, George Parsons, Harry Beck, James Matthews and Eddie Smith. The large number of friends and schoolmates present at her funeral attested the high regard in which she was held. Just as she was blossoming into womanhood she was cut off. Her death is a great sorrow to her many friends; but she passed away from earth and its trials to mingle, we trust, with the redeemed above, leaving an aching void in the hearts of those to whom she was dear, which time cannot fill. As a friend she was true and sincere. She was a loving and dutiful child, always studying the interests of her father and mother, and the welfare of those around her. Oh! how sad it makes us feel when we think of her so lately in our midst, now lying beneath the cold sod in the lonely church-yard, away from all sympathy and love. She attended the Worton Presbyterian Sunday-school regularly and her teacher and classmates are sadly grieved. She was preparing to go to the Sunday-school picnic, which was held the day after she died. We extend our greatest smypathy to this bereaved family, and may they so live that when death comes they may meet her where there will be no parting, but all will be joy and peace.

Peaceful be thy silent slumber,
Peaceful in thy grave so low;
Thou, no more, will join our number,
Thou, no more, our song will know.
Yet again we hope to meet thee,
When the day of life is fled,
And in heaven with joy to greet thee,
Where no farewell tears are shed.—K. P.

IN MEMORY OF A BELOVED SCHOOL-MATE, ADA B. CARTER.

A mourning class, a vacant seat,
Tell us that one we love to meet,
Will join our youthful throng no more,
Till all these changing scenes are o'er.

No more that voice we loved to hear
Shall fill her teacher's listening year;
No more its tones shall join to swell
The songs that of a Saviour tell.

But in the land beyond the grave,
That voice will swell in rapturous tone
The song of him who died to save,
And bring the weary traveler home.

That welcome face, that sparkling eye,
And sprightly form must buried lie
Deep in the cold and silent gloom,
The rayless night that fills the tomb.

God tell us, by Ada's mournful deaths,
How vain and fleeting is our breath,
And bids our souls prepare to meet
The trial of his judgment seat.—KATIE WOOD.

WILLIAM S. ARCHER
MARTHA ANN PRICE, et. al.

In the Circuit Court for Kent Co., in Equity.

THE object of this suit is to procure a decree for the sale of certain Real Estate situated in Kent county and State of Maryland, and for the payment of the mortgage debt and interest and other liens and costs. The bill states that a certain Lewis Price, late deceased, and Selina Price, his wife, of Cecil county, in said State, on or about the 18th of December, 1879, by their deed of mortgage, a copy of which is filed with the bill, conveyed unto Henry W. Archer, of Harford county, in said State, a certain farm or tract of about 188 acres, 1 rood and 10 perches of land, situated on or near Mill Branch, in said Kent county, which is particularly described in said mortgage deed, conditioned for the payment to the said Archer, his executors, administrators or assigns of the sum, $3,300.00 with interest semi-annually within five years from said date. That said Lewis departed this life on or about the —— day of December, 1882, leaving a last will and testament, with codicil annexed, a copy of which is filed with the bill, in which he devised said farm or tract of land to Martha A., Lewis S. and Mary E. Price, of said Kent county, and the said Martha has conveyed by deed, her interest therein to Richard D. Hynson in trust, for the benefit of her creditors.

That the said Henry W. Archer has departed this life leaving a last will and testament, whereof he appoints Henry W. Archer, Junior, and William S. Archer, his executors, to whom letters of administration have been duly granted, who have duly assigned said deed of mortgage to William S. Archer, a copy of which assignment, annexed to said deed of mortgage, is filed with the bill.

That no part of the principal of said mortgage debt has been paid either to said Archer, deceased, or the said William S. Archer, though long since due, but the whole of said debt, with interest from the 18th of December, 1888, remain due and owing.

The bill further states that the defendants, James Lewis Hall, and Arabel Murphy, and John B. Murphy, her husband, are non-residents of the State of Maryland, and prays for an order of publication against the said non-resident defendants, and for general relief.

It is thereupon, this 14th day of July, 1891, adjudged and ordered that the complainant, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in said Kent county once in each of four successive weeks fifteen days before the 14th day of September, 1891, give notice to the said absent defendants of the object and substance of this bill, and warn them to appear in this court in person, or by solicitor on or before the said 14th day of September, to answer the premises and show cause, if any they have, why a decree ought not to be passed as prayed, otherwise a decree will be taken pro confesso against them.
